The negotiating parties agree to meet to discuss any question relating to the employees' working conditions and to adopt the appropriate solutions. Any solution accepted in writing by the negotiating parties may subtract from, add to, or alter any provision of the agreement. However, to be applicable, any solution thus accepted must have the written agreement of the Board and the Union. These provisions must not be interpreted as constituting a revision of the agreement which could lead to a dispute as defined in the Labour Code.

The Board and the Union shall recognize the right of the negotiating parties to deal with questions relating to the application of the agreement. Moreover, the Board and the Union shall recognize the right of the negotiating parties to decide on the interpretation of the agreement; the decision shall apply only with the written consent of the Board and the Union.

In the case where the same kind of grievance is filed in several boards, the negotiating parties must, at the request of either one, meet in order to deal with it within sixty (60) days of the request.

The CPNCSK, the Centrale des syndicats du Québec (CSQ) and the Fédération du personnel de soutien scolaire (FPSS) shall not be entitled to the grievance or arbitration procedures except if stipulated otherwise.

The Union may appoint one (1) employee per establishment¹ as a union delegate whose duties shall consist in meeting with any employee of the same establishment who has a problem regarding his or her working conditions which may give rise to a grievance and to accompany the employee to the meeting with his or her immediate superior, as prescribed in clause 9-1.01.

3-1.02

For this purpose, the Board shall authorize, for a valid reason, the delegate and the employee concerned to temporarily interrupt their work without loss of salary including applicable premiums, if any, or reimbursement.

3-1.03

The request for the leave prescribed in clause 3-1.02 must indicate the probable duration of the absence of the delegate and the employee concerned.

3-1.04

The Union may also appoint, from among the employees, a substitute for each union delegate, whose functions, when he or she replaces the delegate, shall be those of the union delegate.

Union Representative3-1.05

The Union may appoint, from among and on behalf of all employees who are members of the Union, a maximum of three (3) union representatives.

3-1.06

The duties of the union representative shall consist in assisting an employee, at the time of the formulation of a grievance, to obtain, where applicable, the information necessary for the meeting prescribed in paragraph a) of clause 9-1.03, to represent an employee during that meeting as well as to represent the employees on the Labour Relations Committee.

However, the union representatives on the Labour Relations Committee may be employees other than those designated in clause 3-1.05.

Except for the Labour Relations Committee and for the meeting prescribed in paragraph a) of clause 9-1.03, only one representative at a time may, within the limits of his or her functions, temporarily interrupt his or her work for a limited time without loss of salary including applicable premiums, if any, or reimbursement after having obtained permission from his or her immediate superior or his or her substitute. 3-1.07

When the union delegate and his or her substitute are unable to act or in their absence, a union representative may be absent from work after having obtained permission from his or her immediate superior and having indicated the probable length of his or her absence to accompany an employee for the meeting prescribed in clause 9-1.01. Permission cannot be refused without a valid reason.

3-1.08

Within fifteen (15) days of their appointment, the Union shall inform the Board of the names of its delegates and representatives. Subsequently, the Union shall inform the Board of any change.

3-1.09

Nothing in the agreement shall prevent the union representative from being accompanied by a union adviser in his or her dealings with the Board, or its representatives in the context of clause 3-1.06. In these cases, barring uncontrollable circumstances or an agreement to the contrary between the Department of Human Resources and the Union, the Board must be advised in writing of the presence of the union adviser at least two (2) working days before the meeting.

Barring uncontrollable circumstances and except for meetings of the Labour Relations Committee, the notice shall be in writing and must be given two (2) working days before the beginning of the absence. After having notified the immediate superior, the Union must forward a written notice to the same effect to the Department of Human Resources within five (5) days of the notice given to the immediate superior. This last obligation shall not apply to meetings of the Labour Relations Committee. The written notice must state that the absence is required under this clause and must specify the reason for the absence.

This service shall be free of charge to the Union as long as the use of the service by the Union does not entail additional costs to the Board; if it does, the Union must pay the Board the additional costs incurred by its use of the internal mail service. The Union shall respect the deadlines and procedures of the service.

The Union shall release the Board of any civil responsibility as regards any problem that may arise as a result of using the internal mail service of the Board.

At the request of a union representative, the Board shall allow the reasonable use of the following office equipment, providing this equipment is available and is not being used by school personnel, Board personnel or for the purposes of the Inuit community.

- B) the employee who holds a part-time position as of the coming into force of the plans described hereinafter, if he or she is in service on that date, if not, as of the date of assumption of his or her duties at the Board; in such cases, the Board shall pay half of the contribution which would be payable for an employee as prescribed in paragraph A) above, the employee paying the balance of the Board's contribution in addition to his or her own contribution;
- C) the temporary employee as defined in subparagraph b) of paragraph B) of clause 2-1.01.

The employee who is temporarily assigned by the Board to a position not covered by the certificate of accreditation shall continue to benefit from this article for the duration of the assignment.

5-3.02

For the purposes of this article, the word "dependent" means the employee's spouse or dependent child. A dependent child is defined as follows: a child of the employee, of his or her spouse or of both or a child living with the employee for whom adoption procedures have been undertaken, unmarried or not related by civil union and living or domiciled in Canada, who depends on the employee for his or her financial support and is under eighteen (18) years of age; or who is twenty-five (25) years of age or younger and is a duly registered student attending, on a full-time basis, a recognized institution of learning, or a child of any age who became totally disabled before reaching his or her eighteenth (18th) birthday or before reaching his or her twenty-sixth (26th) birthday if he or she was a student attending a recognized learning institution on a full-time basis and has remained continuously disabled ever since.

The word "disability" means any state of incapacity resulting from an illness, including a surgical procedure directly related to family planning, an accident subject to article 7-8.00, an absence prescribed in clause 5-4.20 or 5-4.21, or an absence for purposes of organ or bone marrow donation which requires medical care and which renders the employee totally unable to perform the usual duties of his or her position or of any other similar position calling for comparable remuneration which may be offered to him or her by the Board.

5-3.04

"Period of disability" means any continuous period of disability or any series of successive periods of disability separated by less than thirty-two (32)¹ days of actual full-time work or availability for full-time work, unless the employee establishes in a satisfactory manner that a subsequent period of disability is due to an illness or accident in no way related to the cause of the preceding disability.

A period of disability resulting from self-inflicted illness or injury, alcoholism or drug addiction, active participation in any riot, insurrection or criminal act or service in the armed forces shall not be recognized as a period of disability for the purposes of this article.

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, in the case of alcoholism or drug addiction, for purposes of this article, the period of disability during which the employee receives medical treatment or care in view of his or her rehabilitation shall be considered as a period of disability.

The provisions of the life insurance plan prescribed in the former agreement shall remain in force until December 16, 2005.

The provisions of the health insurance plan prescribed in the former agreement shall continue to apply until the date set by the Insurance Committee of the Centrale.

The new health insurance plan shall come into force on the date set by the Insurance Committee of the Centrale.

The new salary insurance plan shall apply as of December 16, 2005.

5-3.08

As a counterpart to the Board's contribution to the insurance benefits prescribed hereinafter, the full amount of the rebate allowed by Human Resources Development Canada in the case of a registered plan shall be the exclusive property of the Board.

Insurance Committee of the Centrale5-3.09

The Insurance Committee of the Centrale must prepare a schedule of conditions, if necessary and obtain, for all the participants in the plans, a group insurance policy for the basic health insurance plan and one or more group insurance policies for the other plans.

5-3.10

The Insurance Committee of the Centrale may maintain from year to year for retirees, with appropriate amendments, the basic plan coverage without any contribution on the part of the Board provided that:

- A) the employees' contribution to the plan and the Board's corresponding contribution be determined while excluding any cost resulting from the extension of coverage applying to retirees;
- B) the disbursements, contributions and rebates pertaining to retirees be recorded separately and any additional contribution which may be payable by the employees by virtue of the extension to retirees be clearly identified as such.

5-3.11

The insurer selected for all plans, including the general group insurance plans (FAMR)¹ prescribed in paragraph D) of clause 5-3.21, must have its head office in Québec and must be a single insurer or a group of insurers acting as a single insurer. For the purpose of selecting an insurer, the Insurance Committee of the Centrale or the Centrale in the case of the general group insurance plans (FAMR) may request bids or proceed according to any other method that it determines.

5-3.12

The Insurance Committee of the Centrale must carry out a comparative analysis of all bids received, if applicable, and after making its choice, provide the Fédération des commissions scolaires du Québec and the Ministère a report on the analysis and a statement giving the reasons for its choice.

5-3.13

Each plan shall have one premium calculation method only, whether it be a predetermined amount or an invariable percentage of salary.

5-3.14

Any change in premiums resulting from a modification to the plan may take effect only on January 1 following a written notice to the Board sent at least sixty (60) days in advance.

5-3.15

The benefit of exemption from a plan must be the same for all plans as regards its starting date and it must be total. Moreover, it cannot begin prior to the first complete pay period following the fifty-second (52nd) consecutive week of total disability.

5-3.16

There can be no more than one update campaign per three (3) years for all plans; the campaign shall be carried out by the insurer directly with the participants in a manner to be determined and the modifications shall come into force on January 1 following a written notice sent to the Board at least sixty (60) days in advance.

Dividends or rebates to be paid, as a result of favourable experience with the plans, shall constitute funds entrusted to the management of the Insurance Committee of the Centrale. Fees, salaries, expenses or disbursements incurred for the implementation and application of the plans shall constitute liens on these funds.

The balance of funds shall be used by the committee to meet the increases in the rates of premiums, to improve existing plans, or to be repaid directly to the participants by the insurer according to the formula determined by the committee or to grant a waiver of premiums. In this latter case, the waiver must be for at least a period of four (4) months and it must either be effective as of January 1 or end on December 31. The waiver must be preceded by a notice of at least sixty (60) days to the Board.

For the purposes of this clause, the basic plan must be handled separately from the complementary plans.

5-3.18

The Insurance Committee of the Centrale shall provide the Ministère and the Fédération with a copy of the schedule of conditions, the group policy and a detailed statement of the operations carried out under the policy as well as a statement of the payments received as dividends or rebates and how they were used.

The committee shall also provide, at a reasonable cost, any additional useful and relevant statements or statistics which may be requested by the Fédération or the Ministère concerning the basic health insurance plan.

Intervention of the Board5-3.19

- A) The Board shall facilitate the implementation and application of the group personal insurance plans, in particular, by:
- a) informing new employees;
 - b) registering new employees;
 - c) forwarding to the insurer the application forms and the pertinent information required by the insurer to maintain the participant's file up-to-date;
 - d) forwarding the deducted premiums to the insurer;
 - e) providing employees with the forms required for participation in the plan, claims and benefits or other forms supplied by the insurer;
 - f) conveying information normally required of the employer by the insurer for settling certain compensations;
 - g) forwarding to the insurer the names of employees who have indicated to the Board that they intend to retire.
- B) In the case of the general group insurance (FAMR)¹ prescribed in paragraph D) of clause 5-3.21, the Board shall forward the deducted premiums to the insurer only.

5-3.20

The Ministère and the Fédération on the one hand and the Centrale on the other hand, shall form a committee to assess the administrative problems raised by the application of the insurance plans. Moreover, any modification concerning the administration of the plans must be the subject of an agreement by the committee before it comes into effect. If the modification obliges the Board to hire supernumerary employees or requires overtime, the costs shall be assumed by the Union.

Complementary Insurance Plans to Which the Board Does not Contribute5-3.21

- A) The Insurance Committee of the Centrale shall determine the provisions of no more than three (3) complementary personal insurance plans. The cost of these plans shall be borne entirely by the participants.
- B) Every policy must include among others the following stipulations:
- 1) the provisions of paragraphs B) to L) of clause 5-3.31;

- 2) the participation of a new employee eligible for a complementary plan shall take effect within thirty (30) days of the request if it is made within thirty (30) days of the date on which the employee assumes his or her duties;
 - 3) if the request is made thirty (30) days after the date on which the employee assumes his or her duties, the participation of a new employee eligible for a complementary plan shall take effect on the first day of the complete pay period following the date on which the Board received the notice of acceptance from the insurer.
- C) In the case of boards which have, on December 16, 2005, optional complementary personal insurance plans other than those established by the Centrale, the following provisions shall apply:
- 1) the personal insurance policies and the resulting administrative measures for boards are maintained;
 - 2) any modification to any one of the plans or policies must be made in accordance with the provisions concerning the provincial complementary plans and by adapting them accordingly;
 - 3) the Union may choose to replace all the existing local plans by the provincial complementary plans. In this case, a notice of modification must be forwarded to the Board at least sixty (60) days before it comes into force.
- D) General Group Insurance (FAMR)¹

The Centrale may also determine the provisions of the general group insurance plans (FAMR). The cost of the plans shall be borne entirely by the participants.

The employees referred to in clause 5-3.01 may benefit from payroll deduction of the insurance premiums for these plans.

Only paragraph K) of clause 5-3.31 shall apply to the general group insurance plans (FAMR).

Life Insurance Plan

5-3.22

Each employee shall benefit, without contribution on his or her part, from an amount of life insurance equal to six thousand four hundred dollars ($6 400).

5-3.23

The amount shall be reduced by fifty percent (50%) for the employees referred to in paragraph B) of clause 5-3.01.

Basic Health Insurance Plan

5-3.24

The plan shall cover, as per the terms set down by the Insurance Committee of the Centrale, all drugs sold by a licensed pharmacist or a duly authorized physician, as prescribed by a physician or a dentist.

5-3.25

Moreover, if the committee deems it appropriate, the plan may cover all other expenses related to the treatment of the illness.

¹ (FAMR): Fire, Accident and Miscellaneous Risk

5-3.26

The Board's contribution to the basic health insurance plan on behalf of each employee cannot exceed the least of the following amounts:

- A) in the case of a participant insured for himself or herself and his or her dependents: one hundred and three dollars and ninety-five cents ($103.95) per year plus taxes on this amount, where applicable;
- B) in the case of an individually insured participant: forty-one dollars and sixty cents ($41.60) per year plus taxes on this amount, where applicable;
- C) an amount equal to twice the contribution paid by the participant himself or herself for the benefits provided by the basic health insurance plan;
- D) the contribution of the Board to the health insurance plan shall be paid to the insurer every year in two (2) installments:
 - a) the first installment covers the period from January 1 to June 30 and shall be determined by the insurer for all employees concerned during the pay period which includes April 1 and for whom this contribution must be made; this installment represents fifty percent (50%) of the Board's contribution;
 - b) the second installment covers the period from July 1 to December 31 and shall be determined by the insurer for all employees concerned during the pay period which includes November 1 and for whom this contribution must be made; this installment represents fifty percent (50%) of the Board's contribution.

5-3.27

In the event that the Québec Health Insurance Plan is extended to cover drugs, the amounts prescribed in clause 5-3.26 shall be reduced by two-thirds (2/3) of the yearly costs of the drug benefits included in the plan.

5-3.28

The health insurance benefits shall be reduced by the benefits payable under any other public or private, individual or group plan.

5-3.29

Participation in the health insurance plan shall be compulsory, but an employee may, by giving prior written notice to the Board stating the name of the insurer and the policy number, refuse or cease to participate in the health insurance plan provided that he or she establishes that he or she and his or her dependents are insured under a group insurance plan affording similar benefits.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the participation of an employee, whose regular workweek is less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the regular workweek of the full-time employee, shall not be covered by the health insurance plan.

Notwithstanding clause 5-3.01, the employee on leave without salary for twenty-eight (28) days or less shall remain covered by the plan. When the employee returns to work, the insurer shall adjust his or her premiums to take into account all the premiums required including the Board's share during his or her leave.

Notwithstanding clause 5-3.01, the employee on leave without salary for over twenty-eight (28) days shall remain covered by the plan. The insurer shall claim directly the entire amount of the premiums due including the Board's share.

5-3.30

An employee who has refused or ceased to be a participant in the plan may again become eligible thereto provided that:

he or she must establish to the satisfaction of the insurer that it is no longer possible for him or her to continue to be covered as a dependent under the current group insurance plan or of any other plan offering similar coverage.

When an employee submits his or her application to the insurer within thirty (30) days following the termination of his or her insurance coverage allowing him or her to obtain an exemption, the insurance plan shall take effect on the date on which his or her coverage is terminated. If the application is submitted after thirty (30) days following the termination of the coverage, the insurance plan shall take effect on the first day of the pay period following the date of receipt of the application by the insurer.

In the case of a person who, prior to applying for health insurance, was not insured under this health insurance plan, the insurer is not responsible for any payment of benefits which might be payable by a previous insurer under an extension or conversion clause or for any other reason.

5-3.31

Every policy must include, among others, the following stipulations:

- A) a specific provision with regard to the premium reduction which shall be allowed in the event that drugs prescribed by a physician are no longer considered admissible expenses under the health insurance plan;
- B) a guarantee that neither the factors of the retention formula nor the rates according to which the premiums are calculated may be increased prior to January 1 following the end of the first full policy year, nor more often than every January 1 thereafter;
- C) the excess of premiums over benefits or reimbursements paid to the insured persons must be reimbursed by the insurer as dividends or rebates, after deduction of the agreed amount according to the predetermined retention formula;
- D) the premium for a pay period shall be computed on the basis of the rate applicable to the participant on the first day of that period;
- E) no premium shall be payable for a pay period on the first day of which the employee is not a participant; also, the premium shall be payable in full for a pay period during which the employee ceases to be a participant;
- F) the insurer must also forward to the Ministère and the Fédération a copy of every notice of a general nature sent to the boards or the insured;
- G) the insurer shall be responsible for the keeping of files, analyses and claim settlements;
- H) the insurer shall provide the Insurance Committee of the Centrale with a detailed statement of all operations carried out under the policy as well as the reports, various statistics and any information which may be required to test the accuracy of the retention calculation;
- I) any change in coverage and in the resulting deduction at source for an employee already in the employ of the Board, following either the birth or the adoption of a first child, or a change in status, shall come into force on the date of the event if the application is made to the insurer within thirty (30) days of the event. Should a change in the health insurance coverage be made after thirty (30) days following the event, the change shall take effect on the first day of the pay period following the date of receipt of the application by the insurer;
- J) if it is accepted by the insurer, any other modification concerning the coverage and the resulting deduction at source for any employee already in the employ of the Board shall take effect on the first day of the complete pay period following the date on which the Board received the notice of acceptance from the insurer;

- K) the insurer shall determine the total amount of the employee's premium for each pay period and shall forward to the Board by computerized listing the total amount it deducts from each employees pays;
- L) the definitions of spouse and dependent child are identical to those of clauses 1-2.11 and 5-3.02 of the agreement.

Salary Insurance Plan

5-3.32

- A) In accordance with the provisions of this article, and subject to article 7-8.00, for every period of disability during which an employee is absent from work, he or she shall be entitled to the following:
 - a) up to the lesser of either the number of sick-leave days accumulated to his or her credit or five (5) working days: the payment of a benefit equal to the salary he or she would receive if he or she were at work;
 - b) upon termination of the payment of the benefit prescribed in paragraph a), if applicable, but in no event before the expiry of a waiting period of five (5) working days from the beginning of the period of disability and for a period of up to fifty-two (52) weeks from the beginning of the period of disability: the payment of a benefit equal to eighty-five percent (85%) of the salary he or she would receive if he or she were at work;
 - c) upon the expiry of the above-mentioned period of fifty-two (52) weeks and for a further period of up to fifty-two (52) weeks: the payment of a benefit equal to sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the salary he or she would receive if he or she were at work.

The salary of the employee for the purposes of calculating the benefit shall be the salary rate he or she would receive if he or she were at work.

For the purposes of this clause, the salary includes the premiums for regional disparities prescribed in article 6-6.00.

For the employee who holds a part-time position, the waiting period shall be calculated on the basis of his or her working days only, though without having the effect of extending the maximum period of one hundred and four (104) weeks of benefits.

- B) During a disability period, the Board and the regular employee who has been absent for at least twelve (12) weeks may agree to a return to work on a gradual basis. In this case:
 - a) the Board and the employee accompanied by his or her union delegate or representative, if he or she so desires, shall establish the period during which the employee will return to work on a gradual basis, which shall not exceed twelve (12) weeks and shall determine the time during which the employee must work;
 - b) during that period, the employee is still considered on a disability leave, even if he or she is working;
 - c) while at work, the employee must be able to perform all of his or her usual duties and functions according to the proportion agreed to;
 - d) the employee must provide a medical certificate from his or her attending physician attesting that he or she may return to work on a gradual basis;
 - e) the period of gradual return to work must be immediately followed by the employee's return to work for the duration of his or her regular workweek;
 - f) the preceding provisions shall not have the effect of extending the maximum period of one hundred and four (104) weeks of benefits.

In exceptional cases, the Board and the employee may agree on a gradual return to work before the thirteenth (13th) week.

During the period of gradual return to work, the employee shall be entitled to his or her salary for the proportion of time worked and to the benefit payable to him or her for the proportion of time not worked. The proportions shall be calculated on the basis of the employee's regular workweek.

Upon the termination of the period initially set for the gradual return, if the employee is unable to return to work for the duration of his or her regular workweek, the Board and the employee may agree on another period of gradual return while respecting the other conditions prescribed in this clause; failing agreement, the employee shall definitely resume his or her work for the duration of his or her regular workweek or shall continue his or her disability period.

5-3.33

As long as benefits remain payable, including the waiting period, if any, the disabled employee shall continue to participate in the Government and Public Employees Retirement Plan (RREGOP) or, if applicable, in the Teachers Pension Plan (TPP) or the Civil Service Superannuation Plan (CSSP) and to avail himself or herself of the insurance plans. However, he or she must pay the required contributions, except that, upon termination of the payment of the benefit prescribed in subparagraph a) of paragraph A) of clause 5-3.32, he or she shall benefit from a waiver of his or her contributions to his or her pension plan without losing his or her rights. Provisions relating to the waiver of contributions shall form an integral part of the pension plan provisions and the resulting cost shall be shared in the same manner as that of any other benefit.

The Board may not dismiss an employee for the sole reason of his or her physical or mental impairment as long as the latter can receive benefits as a result of the application of clause 5-3.32 or article 7-8.00. However, the fact that an employee does not avail himself or herself of clauses 5-3.44 and 5-3.45 cannot prevent the Board from dismissing the employee.

The benefits paid under clause 5-3.32 are reduced by the initial amount of any basic disability benefit paid to an employee under a federal or provincial law, except those paid under the Employment Insurance Act, regardless of subsequent increases in basic benefits arising from indexation.

When a disability benefit is paid by the Société de l'assurance automobile du Québec (SAAQ), the employee's gross taxable income is established as follows: the Board shall deduct the equivalent of all amounts required by law from the basic salary insurance benefit; the net benefit thus obtained shall be reduced by the amount of benefit received from the SAAQ and the difference is brought to the employee's gross taxable income from which the Board shall deduct all the amounts, contributions and dues required by law and the agreement.

The Board shall deduct one-tenth (1/10) of a day from the bank of sick-leave days per day used under subparagraph a) of paragraph A) of clause 5-3.32 in the case of the employee who receives benefits from the Société de l'assurance automobile du Québec.

As of the sixty-first (61st) day from the beginning of a disability, the employee considered eligible for disability benefits under a federal or provincial law, with the exception of the Employment Insurance Act must, at the Board's written request, along with the appropriate forms, request the benefits from the organization concerned and honour all obligations ensuing from such a request. However, the benefits prescribed in clause 5-3.32 shall be reduced only when the employee is recognized as eligible and effectively begins to receive the benefits prescribed by law. In the case where a benefit prescribed by law is granted retroactively to the first day of disability, the employee shall undertake to reimburse the Board, where applicable, for the portion of the benefit prescribed under clause 5-3.32 as a result of the application of the first paragraph of this clause.

Every employee who receives a disability benefit paid under a federal or provincial law, with the exception of the Employment Insurance Act must, in order to be entitled to his or her salary insurance benefits under clause 5-3.32, notify the Board of the amount of the weekly disability benefits paid to him or her. Furthermore, he or she must give his or her written authorization to the Board so that the latter may obtain all the necessary information from the organizations, in particular the SAAQ or the RRQ, which administer a disability insurance plan under which he or she receives benefits.

5-3.35

The payment of the benefit shall terminate at the latest on the date the employee begins his or her retirement.

5-3.36

No benefit shall be paid during a strike or lockout except for a period of disability that began before and for which the employee has provided the Board with a medical certificate. If the disability began during a strike or lockout and still exists at the end of the strike or lockout, the period of disability prescribed in clause 5-3.32 begins on the date of the employee's return to work.

5-3.37

Benefits payable as sick-leave days or under the salary insurance plan shall be paid directly by the Board, subject, however, to the employee providing the supporting documents required in clause 5-3.38.

The Board may require that the employee who is absent because of disability provide a written certificate for absences of less than four (4) days or a medical certificate attesting to the nature and duration of the disability. However, the cost of such a certificate shall be borne by the Board if the employee is absent for less than four (4) days. The Board may also require the employee concerned to submit to an examination in connection with any absence. The cost of the examination as well as the employee's transportation costs when the examination requires him or her to travel more than forty-five (45) kilometres from the usual place of work as defined in clause 7-3.20 shall be borne by the Board.

Upon the employee's return to work, the Board may require him or her to submit to a medical examination in order to establish whether he or she is sufficiently recovered to resume his or her work. The cost of the examination as well as the employee's transportation costs when the examination requires him or her to travel more than forty-five (45) kilometres from his or her usual place of work as defined in clause 7-3.20 shall be borne by the Board. If, in this case, the opinion of the physician chosen by the Board differs from the employee's physician, the Board and the Union shall, within thirty (30) days of their cognizance of the disagreement, agree on the choice of a third physician. Failing agreement within the said time limit, the Board's physician and the employee's physician shall agree on the choice of a third physician as soon as possible.

The third physician, without restricting the scope of his or her mandate and fully observing the code of ethics, shall take into account the opinions of the two physicians and his or her decision cannot be appealed.

The Board or its designated authority must treat the medical certificates and medical examination results in a confidential manner.

5-3.39

When payment of benefits is refused by reason of presumed nonexistence or termination of any disability, the employee may appeal the decision according to the procedure for settling grievances and arbitration prescribed in Chapter 9-0.00.

5-3.40

- A) On July 1 of each year, the Board shall credit each employee covered by this article with seven (7) sick-leave days. The seven (7) days thus granted shall be noncumulative but, when not used during the year, shall be redeemable on June 30 of each year under this article at the rate of the salary applicable on that date per day or fraction of a day not used.
- B) Moreover, in the case of a first year of service of an employee who is not reassigned under article 7-3.00, the Board shall add a credit of six (6) nonredeemable sick-leave days.

The employee hired during a fiscal year who was granted fewer than six (6) nonredeemable sick-leave days shall be entitled, on July 1 of the following fiscal year, if he or she remains in the service of the Board, to the difference between six (6) days and the number of nonredeemable sick-leave days granted to him or her on the effective date of his or her hiring.

- C) The employee who has thirteen (13) or fewer days of sick leave accumulated to his or her credit on June 1 may, by a written notice to the Board prior to that date, choose not to redeem on June 30 the balance of the seven (7) days granted under paragraph A) of this clause and not used under this article. The employee, having made this choice, shall add on June 30 the balance of seven (7) days, which are now nonredeemable, to the nonredeemable sick-leave days already accumulated.

If an employee becomes covered by this article in the course of a fiscal year or if he or she leaves his or her employment during the year, the number of days credited for the year in question shall be reduced in proportion to the number of complete months of service, it being specified that "complete month of service" means a month of service during which the employee is in service for half or more of the working days in that month.

Nevertheless, if an employee has used, in accordance with this agreement, some or all of the sick-leave days that the Board credited to him or her on July 1 of one year, no claim will be made as a result of the application of this clause.

5-3.42

In the case of an employee who holds a part-time position, the value of each day credited shall be reduced in proportion to the regular hours worked in relation to the regular workweek prescribed in clause 8-2.01 or 8-2.02, as the case may be.

5-3.43

Disabilities for which payment is being made on December 16, 2005 shall remain covered under the plan prescribed in this article.

The effective date of the beginning of the disability is not modified as a result of the coming into force of the new plan unless the employee does not meet the requirements of clause 5-3.04.

The disabled employee who is not entitled to any benefits on December 16, 2005 shall be covered by the new plan upon his or her return to work once he or she commences a new disability period.

5-3.44

The value of the redeemable days to an employee's credit may be used to pay for the cost of buying back previous years of service as prescribed in the pension plans provisions.

5-3.45

An employee may also use his or her nonredeemable sick-leave days to his or her credit, at a rate of one (1) day per day, to extend his or her disability leave upon termination of the benefits prescribed in subparagraph c) of paragraph A) of clause 5-3.32 and also for a leave prescribed in article 5-4.00, provided that the employee has already used up his or her redeemable sick-leave days (except for those prescribed in clause 5-3.40).

The sick-leave days to an employee's credit on December 16, 2005 shall remain to his or her credit and the days used shall be deducted from the total accumulated. The sick-leave days shall be used in the following order:

- A) the redeemable days credited under clause 5-3.40 of the agreement;
- B) after having used up the days mentioned in paragraph A) above, the other redeemable days to the employee's credit;
- C) after having used up the days referred to in paragraphs A) and B) above, the nonredeemable days to the employee's credit.

Every employee who benefits from paragraph A) of clause 5-3.40 may use, subject to the provisions of the following paragraph, up to two (2) days per year for personal business upon a notice to the Board of at least twenty-four (24) hours.

The days thus used shall be deducted from the credit of seven (7) days obtained by the application of paragraph A) of clause 5-3.40 and, after having used the days, they shall be deducted from the other redeemable days to the employee's credit.

The days prescribed in the first paragraph of this clause must be taken in half days or full days.

5-3.48

The Board shall prepare a statement of the employee's bank of sick-leave days on June 30 of each year and shall so inform him or her within the next sixty (60) calendar days that follow.

5-4.00 PARENTAL RIGHTSSection I General Provisions*5-4.01

The maternity leave, paternity leave or adoption leave allowances shall only be paid as supplements to the parental insurance benefits or employment insurance benefits, as applicable, or in the cases stipulated hereinafter, as payments during a period of absence for which the Québec Parental Insurance Plan and the Employment Insurance Plan are not applicable.

However the maternity leave, paternity leave and adoption leave allowances shall only be paid during the weeks when the employee receives benefits, or would receive them if he or she applied for such benefits, from the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or the Employment Insurance Plan.

In the case where the employee shares the adoption or parental benefits provided by the Québec Parental Insurance Plan and the Employment Insurance Plan with the other spouse, the allowance is paid only if the employee in fact receives a benefit from this plan during the maternity leave prescribed in clause 5-4.05, the paternity leave prescribed in clause 5-4.24, or the adoption leave prescribed in clause 5-4.35.

When the parents are both of the female sex, the allowances and benefits granted to the father are then granted to the mother who did not give birth to the child.

5-4.03

The Board shall not reimburse the employee for the amounts that might be required of him or her by the Ministre de l'Emploi et de la Solidarité sociale as a result of the application of the Act respecting parental insurance (R.S.Q., c. A-29.011).

Also, the Board shall not reimburse the employee for the amounts that might be required of him or her by Human Resources and Skills Development Canada by virtue of the Employment Insurance Act (S.C. 1996, c. 23).

The basic weekly salary¹, deferred basic weekly salary¹ and severance payments shall not be increased or decreased by the amounts received under the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or the Supplemental Employment Insurance Plan.

5-4.04

Unless there are specific provisions to the contrary, this article cannot result in granting an employee a benefit, monetary or nonmonetary, which he or she would not have had had he or she remained at work.

Section II Maternity Leave5-4.05

- A) The pregnant employee who is eligible for Québec parental insurance benefits shall be entitled to a maternity leave of twenty-one (21) weeks' duration which, subject to clauses 5-4.07 or 5-4.08, must be consecutive.

The pregnant employee who is eligible for employment insurance benefits shall be entitled to a maternity leave of twenty (20) weeks' duration which, subject to clauses 5-4.07 or 5-4.08, must be consecutive.

The pregnant employee who is not eligible for either Québec parental insurance benefits or employment insurance benefits shall be entitled to a maternity leave of twenty (20) weeks' duration which, subject to clause 5-4.07 or 5-4.08, must be consecutive.

- B) The employee who becomes pregnant while she is on a leave without salary or a part-time leave without salary prescribed in this article shall also be entitled to a maternity leave and to the allowances prescribed in clauses 5-4.12, 5-4.13 and 5-4.14, as the case may be.
- C) The residual of the maternity leave and the rights and allowances attached thereto shall be transferred to the employee whose spouse dies.
- D) In the case of miscarriage after the beginning of the twentieth (20th) week preceding the due date, the employee shall also be entitled to a maternity leave.

5-4.06

The distribution of the maternity leave, before and after the birth, shall be the employee's decision and shall include the day of the birth. However, in the case of the employee who is eligible for parental insurance benefits, this leave shall be simultaneous with the period of benefit payments granted under the Act respecting parental insurance (R.S.Q., c. A-29.011) and must begin no later than the week following the beginning of benefit payments granted under the Québec Parental Insurance Plan.

5-4.07 Interruption of the Maternity Leave

When she has sufficiently recovered from her delivery and her child must remain in the health establishment, the employee may interrupt her maternity leave by returning to work. It shall be completed when the child is brought home.

Furthermore, an employee who has sufficiently recovered from delivery but whose child is hospitalised after having left the health establishment, may interrupt her maternity leave, upon agreement with the Board, by returning to work during this period of hospitalisation.

5-4.08 Dividing the Maternity Leave

Upon request by the employee, the maternity leave can be divided into weeks if her child is hospitalised or due to circumstances other than an illness related to her pregnancy and referred to in sections 79.1 and 79.8 to 79.12 of the Act respecting Labour Standards (R.S.Q., c. N-1.1).

The maximum number of weeks during which a maternity leave can be interrupted is equal to the number of weeks of the child's hospitalisation. For other possibilities of division, the maximum number of suspension weeks is that which is prescribed in the Act respecting labour standards for such a situation.

During such an interruption, the employee shall be considered as being on leave without salary and shall receive no allowance or benefit from the Board. The employee is entitled to the benefits prescribed in clause 5-4.49 during this interruption.

When the employee resumes the maternity leave which was interrupted or divided under clauses 5-4.07 or 5-4.08, the Board shall pay the employee the allowance to which she would then have been entitled if she had not availed herself of such interruption or such division, for the residual number of weeks to be covered under clauses 5-4.12, 5-4.13 or 5-4.14, as the case may be, subject to clause 5-4.01.

5-4.10 Extension of the Maternity Leave

If the birth occurs after the due date, the employee shall be entitled to extend her maternity leave for the length of time the birth is overdue, except if she still has at least two (2) weeks of maternity leave remaining after the birth.

The employee may extend her maternity leave if her child's health so requires or if the employee's health so requires. The duration of such extension shall be that stated on the medical certificate which shall be provided by the employee.

During the extensions, the employee shall be considered as being on leave without salary, and shall not receive any allowance or benefit from the Board. During these periods, the employee shall be covered by clause 5-4.16 during the first six (6) weeks and by clause 5-4.49 thereafter.

5-4.11 Advance Notice

To obtain the maternity leave, the employee must give written notice to the Board at least two (2) weeks before the date of departure. The notice must be accompanied by a medical certificate or written report signed by a midwife, attesting to the pregnancy and the due date.

The time limit regarding the presentation of the notice may be less if a medical certificate attests that the employee must leave her job sooner than expected. In case of an unforeseen event, the employee shall be exempted from the formality of the notice provided that she gives the Board a medical certificate stating that she had to leave her job immediately.

5-4.12 Cases Eligible for the Québec Parental Insurance Plan

- A) The employee who has accumulated twenty (20) weeks of service¹ and who is eligible for benefits under the Québec Parental Insurance Plan is also entitled to receive, during the twenty-one (21) weeks of her maternity leave, an allowance equal to the difference between ninety-three percent (93%)² of her basic weekly salary and the amount of the benefits she receives, or would receive if she applied for such, from the Québec Parental Insurance Plan.

This allowance is calculated on the basis of the Québec parental insurance benefits that an employee is entitled to receive without taking into account the amounts deducted from such benefits because of the reimbursement of benefits, interest, penalties and other recoverable amounts under the Act respecting parental insurance (R.S.Q., c. A-29.011).

However, if there is a change to the Québec Parental Insurance Plan benefits following a modification to the information provided by the Board, the latter shall correct the benefit amount accordingly.

When the employee is working for more than one employer, the allowance is equal to the difference between ninety-three percent (93%) of the basic salary paid by the Board and the amount of Québec parental insurance benefits corresponding to the proportion of basic weekly salary paid by the Board in relation to the total basic weekly salaries paid by all the employers. To this end, the employee shall provide each of her employers with a statement of the weekly salaries paid by each of them as well as the amount of the benefits payable under the Act respecting parental insurance.

- B) The Board may not offset, through the allowance that it pays to the employee on maternity leave, the reduction in the Québec parental insurance benefits attributable to the salary earned from another employer.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding subparagraph, the Board shall provide the allowance if the employee proves that the salary earned from another employer is a customary salary by means of a letter to this effect from the employer who pays it. If the employee proves to the Board that only a portion of the salary paid by this other employer is customary, the allowance shall be limited to that portion.

The employer who pays the customary salary prescribed in the preceding subparagraph must, at the employee's request, produce such a letter.

- C) The total amounts received by the employee during her maternity leave in Québec parental insurance benefits, allowance and salary may not however exceed ninety-three percent (93%) of the basic weekly salary paid by the Board or, where applicable, by her employers (including her Board).

¹ The absent employee shall accumulate service if her absence is authorized, particularly for disability and includes benefits or remuneration.

5-4.13 Cases not Eligible for the Québec Parental Insurance Plan but Eligible for Employment Insurance

The employee who has accumulated twenty (20) weeks of service¹ and who is eligible for Employment Insurance benefits though not eligible for Québec parental insurance benefits is entitled, during her maternity leave, to receive:

- A) for each week of the waiting period stipulated by the Employment Insurance Plan, an allowance equal to ninety-three percent (93%)² of her basic weekly salary;
- B) for each week following the period prescribed in the preceding paragraph A), an additional allowance equal to the difference between ninety-three percent (93%) of her basic weekly salary and the weekly maternity or parental benefit that she is receiving or would receive upon request from the Employment Insurance Plan, until the end of the twentieth (20th) week of the maternity leave;

The additional allowance shall be calculated on the basis of the employment insurance benefits that an employee is entitled to receive without taking into account the amounts deducted from such benefits because of the reimbursement of benefits, interest, penalties and other amounts recoverable under the Employment Insurance Plan.

However, if there is a change to the Employment Insurance Plan benefits following a modification to the information provided by the Board, the latter shall correct the benefit amount accordingly.

In the case of the employee who works for more than one employer, the additional allowance shall be equal to the difference between ninety-three percent (93%) of the basic weekly salary paid by the Board and the percentage of the employment insurance benefit corresponding to the proportion of basic weekly salary it pays her in relation to the total basic weekly salaries paid by all the employers. To this end, the employee shall provide each of her employers with a statement of the weekly salaries paid by each of them and the amount of the benefits paid to her by Human Resources and Skills Development Canada.

Moreover, if Human Resources and Skills Development Canada reduces the number of weeks of employment insurance benefits to which the employee would otherwise have been entitled had she not received employment insurance benefits before her maternity leave, the employee shall continue to receive, for a period equivalent to the weeks deducted by Human Resources and Skills Development Canada, the additional allowance prescribed in the first subsection of this paragraph as if she had, during that period, received employment insurance benefits.

- C) Paragraphs B) and C) of clause 5-4.12 are applicable to this clause with the necessary changes.

¹ The absent employee shall accumulate service if her absence is authorized, particularly for disability and includes benefits or remuneration.

5-4.14 Cases not Eligible for the Québec Parental Insurance Plan and the Employment Insurance Plan

The employee who is not eligible to receive benefits under the Québec Parental Insurance Plan and the Employment Insurance Plan shall also be excluded from receiving any allowance provided in clauses 5-4.12 and 5-4.13. However:

- A) The employee who holds a full-time position and who has accumulated twenty (20) weeks of service¹ shall be entitled to an allowance equal to ninety-three percent (93%) of her basic weekly salary for twelve (12) weeks, if she does not receive benefits from another parental rights plan in effect in another Province or Territory.
- B) The employee who holds a part-time position and who has accumulated twenty (20) weeks of service shall be entitled to an allowance equal to ninety-five percent (95%) of her basic weekly salary for twelve (12) weeks, if she does not receive benefits from another parental rights plan in effect in another Province or Territory. If the part-time employee is exonerated from contributing to the pension plans and to the Québec Parental Insurance Plan and the Employment Insurance Plan, the percentage of the allowance shall be set at ninety-three percent (93%) of her basic weekly salary.

5-4.15 In the Cases Prescribed in Clauses 5-4.12, 5-4.13 and 5-4.14

- A) No allowance may be paid during the vacation period for which the employee is paid.
- B) Unless the applicable salary payment system is on a weekly basis, the compensation shall be paid at two (2)-week intervals, the first instalment only being payable, in the case of the employee eligible for benefits under the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or the Employment Insurance Plan, fifteen (15) days after the Board obtains proof that she is receiving benefits from one of these plans. For purposes of this paragraph, shall be considered as admissible proof a statement of benefits, a stub as well as information provided by the Ministère de l'Emploi et de la Solidarité sociale or by Human Resources and Skills Development Canada (HRSDC) by means of an official statement.
- C) Service shall be calculated with all the employers in the public and parapublic sectors (education, civil service, health and social services), health and social services agencies, bodies whose employees are subject to salary scales or standards which by law are determined in accordance with the conditions set by the government, the Office franco-québécois pour la jeunesse, the Société de gestion du réseau informatique des commissions scolaires (GRICS) and any other body listed in Schedule C of the Act respecting the process of negotiation of the collective agreements in the public and parapublic sectors (R.S.Q., c. R-8.2).

Moreover, the requirement of twenty (20) weeks of service contained in clauses 5-4.12, 5-4.13 and 5-4.14 shall be deemed to have been met, where applicable, when the employee meets the requirement with one of the employers mentioned in this paragraph.

- D) The basic weekly salary of the employee who holds a part-time position shall be the average basic weekly salary that she received during the last twenty (20) weeks preceding her maternity leave. If, during that period, the employee received benefits based on a certain percentage of her regular salary, it shall be understood that, for calculation purposes, her basic salary during her maternity leave shall be the basic salary on the basis of which such benefits were determined.

Any period during which the employee on a special leave prescribed in clause 5-4.20 does not receive any indemnity from the CSST shall be excluded for the purposes of calculating her average basic weekly salary.

¹ The absent employee shall accumulate service if her absence is authorized, particularly for disability and includes benefits or remuneration.

If the twenty (20)-week period preceding the maternity leave of the employee who holds a part-time position includes the date on which the salary rates and scales are increased, the basic weekly salary shall be calculated on the basis of the salary rate in force on that date. If, on the other hand, the maternity leave includes this date, the basic weekly salary changes as of that date according to the adjustment formula of the applicable salary scale.

For the purposes of calculating her average basic weekly salary, the twenty (20)-week period preceding the employee's maternity leave shall exclude any period of layoff.

The provisions of this paragraph shall constitute one of the express stipulations covered by clause 5-4.04.

- E) In the case of an employee who is temporarily laid off, the maternity leave allowance to which the employee is entitled under the agreement and which is paid by the Board ceases as of the date on which the employee is laid off.

Subsequently, when the employee is recalled or, as the case may be, reinstated in her position in accordance with the provisions of the agreement, the maternity leave benefit is reestablished as of the date on which the employee would have been reinstated in her position or in another position under her right of recall.

The weeks for which the employee received maternity leave benefits and the weeks included in the layoff period shall be deducted from the number of weeks to which the employee is entitled under clauses 5-4.12, 5-4.13 or 5-4.14, as the case may be, and the maternity leave benefit shall be reestablished for the number of weeks remaining under clauses 5-4.12, 5-4.13 or 5-4.14, as the case may be.

5-4.16

During the maternity leave and during the first six (6) weeks of the extensions prescribed in clause 5-4.10, the employee shall benefit, insofar as she is normally entitled to it, from the following:

- life insurance plan;
- health insurance plan by paying her share;
- accumulation of vacation or payment made in lieu thereof;
- accumulation of sick-leave days;
- accumulation of seniority;
- accumulation of experience;
- accumulation of active service for the purposes of acquiring tenure;
- right to apply for a position that is posted and to obtain it in accordance with the provisions of the agreement as if she were at work.

The employee may defer a maximum of four (4) weeks' annual vacation if it falls within her maternity leave and if she notifies the Board in writing of the date of the deferral no later than two (2) weeks before the termination of the maternity leave.

5-4.17

The maternity leave may be for a duration of less than that provided in clause 5-4.05. If the employee returns to work within the two (2) weeks following the birth, she shall, at the Board's request, produce a medical certificate confirming that she is sufficiently recovered to resume work.

5-4.18

During the fourth (4th) week preceding the termination of the maternity leave, the Board must send the employee a notice indicating the anticipated date of the expiry of the leave.

The employee to whom the Board has sent the aforementioned notice must report to work upon the termination of the maternity leave, unless the leave is extended as prescribed in clause 5-4.47.

The employee who does not comply with the preceding subparagraph shall be considered as being on a leave of absence without salary for a maximum period of four (4) weeks. At the end of that period, the employee who has not reported to work shall be considered as having resigned.

5-4.19

When she returns from her maternity leave, the employee shall return to her position. Should the position have been abolished, the employee shall be entitled to the rights she would have had had she been at work at that time.

Section III Special Leaves Regarding Pregnancy and BreastfeedingProvisional Assignment and Special Leaves*5-4.20

The employee may request to be temporarily assigned to another position, permanently vacant or temporarily vacant, of the same class of employment or, if she agrees and subject to the provisions of the agreement, another class of employment in the following cases:

- a) she is pregnant and her working conditions entail risks of infectious disease or physical dangers for herself or her unborn child;
- b) her working conditions entail dangers for the child whom she is breastfeeding;
- c) she works regularly at a cathode-ray tube terminal.

The employee must submit a medical certificate to this effect as soon as possible.

The Board shall immediately notify the Union of any request for special leave and shall provide it with the name of the employee and the reasons supporting her request for special leave.

The employee thus assigned to another position shall maintain the rights and privileges related to her regular position.

If the assignment is not carried out immediately, the employee shall be entitled to a special leave which begins immediately. Unless a temporary assignment arises afterward to cancel the special leave, the special leave shall terminate for the pregnant employee, on the date of the birth, and for the employee who is breastfeeding, at the end of the breastfeeding period. However in the case of the employee who is eligible for benefits payable under the Act respecting parental insurance (R.S.Q., c. A-29.011) the special leave shall terminate as of the fourth (4th) week before the due date. The assignment shall have priority over the application of the second and third paragraphs of clause 7-1.15 and the application of the priority to fill a position of a temporary nature assigned to an employee laid off temporarily under clause 7-2.04.

During the special leave prescribed in this clause, the employee shall be governed, with respect to her allowance, by the provisions of the Act respecting occupational health and safety (R.S.Q., c. S-2.1) concerning the reassignment of the pregnant employee or the employee who is breastfeeding.

However, following a written request to this effect, the Board shall pay the employee an advance on the forthcoming allowance based on the anticipated benefits. If the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail (CSST) pays the anticipated payment, the reimbursement shall be made from that amount. If not, the reimbursement shall be made under clause 6-7.04 until the amounts owing have been paid. If the employee exercises her right to apply for a review of the CSST decision or to contest it before the Commission des lésions professionnelles, the reimbursement cannot be payable until the administrative review decision of the CSST or, where applicable, the decision of the Commission des lésions professionnelles, has been rendered.

In addition to the preceding provisions, at the employee's request, the Board must study the possibility of temporarily changing the duties, without loss of rights, of the employee assigned to a cathode-ray tube terminal so as to reduce her working time at the terminal to a maximum of two (2) hours per half (1/2) day and assign her to other duties which she is reasonably capable of performing for the remainder of her working time.

Other Special Leaves

5-4.21

The employee shall also be entitled to a special leave in the following cases:

- a) when a complication in the pregnancy or a risk of miscarriage requires a work stoppage for a definite period prescribed by a medical certificate; the special leave cannot be extended beyond the beginning of the fourth (4th) week preceding the due date;
- b) upon presentation of a medical certificate prescribing the duration, when a natural or induced miscarriage occurs before the beginning of the twentieth (20th) week preceding the due date;
- c) for visits related to the pregnancy which are with a health care professional and which are supported by a medical certificate or a written report signed by a midwife. The employee shall benefit from a special leave without loss of salary for a maximum of four (4) days. These special leaves may be taken in half-days.

During the special leaves prescribed in clauses 5-4.20 and 5-4.21, the employee shall be entitled to the benefits prescribed in clause 5-4.16, insofar as she is normally entitled to them, and in clause 5-4.19.

Moreover, the employee referred to in clause 5-4.21 may also avail herself of the benefits of the sick-leave plan or the salary insurance plan. In the case of paragraph c) of clause 5-4.21, the employee must first have used up the four (4) days mentioned in this paragraph.

Section IV Other Parental Leaves

Paternity Leave

5-4.23 Paternity Leave for a Maximum Period of Five (5) Days

An employee shall be entitled to a leave with salary for a maximum period of five (5) working days for the birth of his child. The employee shall also be entitled to the leave in case of miscarriage occurring after the beginning of the twentieth (20th) week preceding the due date. While the leave need not be continuous, it must be taken between the beginning of the delivery and the fifteenth (15th) day following the mother's or the child's return home.

One (1) of the five (5) days may be used for the child's baptism or registration.

The female employee whose spouse gives birth to a child is also entitled to this leave if she is designated as one of the child's mothers.

The employee shall inform the Board as soon as possible of the date on which he plans to take the paternity leave.

5-4.24 Paternity Leave for a Maximum Period of Five (5) Weeks

On the occasion of the birth of his child, the employee is also entitled to a paternity leave of a maximum duration of five (5) weeks which, subject to clauses 5-4.30 and 5-4.31, must be consecutive. This leave must end at the latest at the end of the fifty-second (52nd) week following the week of the birth of the child.

The leave of the employee eligible for the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or Employment Insurance Plan shall be concurrent with the period during which benefits are paid under one of these plans and must begin no later than the week following the start of such benefit payments.

The female employee whose spouse gives birth, is also entitled to this leave if she is designated as one of the child's mothers.

5-4.25 Cases Eligible for the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or the Employment Insurance Plan

During the five (5) weeks of the paternity leave provided for in clause 5-4.24, the employee shall receive an allowance equal to the difference between his basic weekly salary and the amount of Québec Parental Insurance Plan or Employment Insurance Plan benefits he is receiving or would receive, upon request.

The allowance is based on the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or Employment Insurance Plan benefits, as the case may be, to which an employee is entitled, without taking into account the amounts subtracted from such benefits for repayment of benefits, interest, penalties and other amounts recoverable under the Act respecting parental insurance (R.S.Q., c. A-29.011) or the Employment Insurance Plan. However, if there is a change to the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or Employment Insurance Plan benefits following a modification to the information provided by the Board, the latter shall correct the benefit amount accordingly.

An employee who works for more than one employer shall receive an allowance equal to the difference between one hundred percent (100%) of his basic weekly salary paid by the Board and the amount of Québec Parental Insurance Plan or Employment Insurance Plan benefits corresponding to the proportion of the basic weekly salary it pays as compared to the total basic weekly salaries paid by all the employers. For that purpose, the employee shall submit to each of his employers a statement of the weekly salary paid by each employer together with the amount of benefits payable under the Act respecting parental insurance or the Employment Insurance Plan.

Paragraphs B) and C) of clause 5-4.12 shall apply to this clause by making the necessary changes.

5-4.26 Cases ineligible for the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or the Employment Insurance Plan

The employee who is not eligible for paternity benefits under the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or for parental benefits under the Employment Insurance Plan shall receive, during the paternity leave provided for in clause 5-4.24, an allowance equal to his or her basic weekly salary.

5-4.27

During the paternity leave provided for in clauses 5-4.23 and 5-4.24, the employee shall be entitled to the benefits provided for in clause 5-4.16, insofar as he or she is normally entitled to them, and in clause 5-4.19.

5-4.28

Paragraphs A), B), D) and E) of clause 5-4.15 shall apply to the employee who is entitled to the allowances provided for in clause 5-4.25 or 5-4.26 by making the necessary changes.

5-4.29

To be granted the paternity leave provided for in clause 5-4.24, the employee must submit a written request to the Board at least three (3) weeks before the date of departure. The time limit can however be reduced if the birth occurs before the due date. The request shall indicate the date of expiry of the leave.

The employee must report to his or her place of work upon the termination of his paternity leave, unless the leave has been extended in the manner provided for in clause 5-4.47.

The employee who does not comply with the preceding subparagraph is deemed to be on leave of absence without salary for no more than four (4) weeks. The employee who does not report for work at the end of that period is deemed to have resigned.

5-4.30 Interruption of the Paternity Leave

When his child is hospitalised, the employee may interrupt the paternity leave provided for in clause 5-4.24, upon agreement with the Board, by returning to work for the duration of this hospitalisation.

5-4.31 Dividing the Paternity Leave

Upon request by the employee, the paternity leave provided for under clause 5-4.24 may be divided into weeks if his child is hospitalised or due to circumstances referred to in sections 79.1 and 79.8 to 79.12 of the Act respecting Labour Standards (R.S.Q., c. N-1.1).

The maximum number of weeks during which the paternity leave may be interrupted is equal to the number of weeks of the child's hospitalisation. For other possibilities of division, the maximum number of suspension weeks is that which is prescribed in the Act respecting labour standards for such a situation.

During such an interruption, the employee shall be considered as being on leave without salary and shall receive no allowance or benefits from the Board. The employee shall be entitled to the benefits provided for in clause 5-4.49 during the period of interruption.

5-4.32

When the employee resumes the suspended or divided paternity leave under clauses 5-4.30 or 5-4.31, the Board shall pay the employee the allowance to which he would have been entitled had he not availed himself of the suspension or division for the number of weeks remaining under clause 5-4.24, subject to clause 5-4.01.

5-4.33 Extension of the Paternity Leave

The employee who, before the date of expiry of the paternity leave provided for in clause 5-4.24, provides the Board with a notice along with a medical certificate attesting that his child's health requires it, is entitled to an extension of his paternity leave. The duration of this extension is that which is stated in the medical certificate.

During this extension, the employee shall be considered as being on leave without salary and shall receive no allowance or benefits from the Board. The employee shall be covered by clause 5-4.49 during this period.

Leaves for Adoption and Leaves of Absence Without Salary for Adoption Purposes5-4.34 Leave for Adoption - Maximum Period of Five (5) Days

An employee shall be entitled to a leave with salary for a maximum of five (5) working days for the adoption of a child other than the child of his or her spouse. The leave may be discontinuous but it may not be taken more than fifteen (15) days following the child's arrival home.

One (1) of these five (5) days may be taken for the child's baptism or registration.

The employee shall inform the Board as soon as possible of the date on which he plans to take the leave for adoption.

5-4.35 Leave for Adoption - Maximum Period of Five (5) Weeks

The employee who legally adopts a child, other than the child of his or her spouse, shall also be entitled to a leave of absence for adoption for a maximum period of five (5) weeks which, subject to clauses 5-4.36 and 5-4.37, must be consecutive. The leave must end at the latest at the end of the fifty-second (52nd) week following the child's arrival home.

For the employee eligible for benefits under the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or the Employment Insurance Plan, this leave shall be concurrent with the period during which benefits are paid under one of these plans and must begin no later than the week following the start of such benefit payments.

For the employee who is not eligible for benefits under the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or the Employment Insurance Plan, this leave must take place after the child's placement order or its equivalent in the case of international adoption, in accordance with the adoption plan, or at another time agreed upon with the Board.

5-4.36 Interruption of the Leave for Adoption

When a child is hospitalised, the employee may interrupt his or her leave for adoption provided for in clause 5-4.35, upon agreement with the Board, by returning to work during the period of this hospitalisation.

5-4.37 Dividing the Leave for Adoption

Upon request by the employee, the leave for adoption provided for in clause 5-4.35 may be divided into weeks if his or her child is hospitalised or due to circumstances referred to in sections 79.1 and 79.8 to 79.12 of the Act respecting Labour Standards (R.S.Q., c. N-1.1).

The maximum number of weeks during which the leave for adoption may be interrupted is equal to the number of weeks of the child's hospitalisation. For other possibilities of division, the maximum number of suspension weeks is that which is prescribed in the Act respecting labour standards for such a situation.

During such an interruption, the employee shall be considered as being on leave without salary and shall receive no allowance or benefits from the Board. The employee shall be entitled to the benefits provided for in clause 5-4.49 during the period of interruption.

When the employee resumes the leave for adoption which has been interrupted or divided under clauses 5-4.36 and 5-4.37, the Board shall pay the employee the allowance to which he or she would have been entitled if he or she had not availed himself or herself of such interruption or such division, for the residual number of weeks to be covered under clause 5-4.35, subject to clause 5-4.01.

5-4.39 Extension of the Leave for Adoption

The employee who, before the date of expiry of his or her leave for adoption provided for in clause 5-4.35, provides the Board with a notice along with a medical certificate attesting that the health of his or her child requires it, is entitled to an extension of his or her leave for adoption. The duration of this extension is that which is stated on the medical certificate.

During this extension, the employee shall be considered as being on leave without salary and shall receive no allowance or benefits from the Board. The employee shall be covered by clause 5-4. 49 during this period.

5-4.40 Cases Eligible for the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or the Employment Insurance Plan

During the five (5) weeks of the leave for adoption prescribed in clause 5-4.35, the employee shall receive an allowance equal to the difference between his or her basic weekly salary and the amount of the benefits he or she receives, or would receive if he or she applied for them, under the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or the Employment Insurance Plan.

This allowance is calculated on the basis of the Québec parental insurance benefits or employment insurance benefits, as the case may be, that an employee is entitled to receive without taking into account the amounts deducted from such benefits because of the reimbursement of benefits, interest, penalties and other recoverable amounts under the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or the Employment Insurance Plan.

However, if there is a change to the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or Employment Insurance Plan benefits following a modification to the information provided by the Board, the latter shall correct the benefit amount accordingly.

When the employee is working for more than one employer, the allowance shall be equal to the difference between one hundred percent (100%) of the basic salary paid by the Board and the amount of the Québec parental insurance benefits or employment insurance benefits corresponding to the proportion of basic weekly salary paid by the Board in relation to the total basic weekly salaries paid by all the employers. To this end, the employee shall provide each of his or her employers with a statement of the weekly salaries paid by each of them as well as the amount of the benefits payable as a result of the application of the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or the Employment Insurance Plan.

Paragraphs B) and C) of clause 5-4.12 shall apply to this clause by making the necessary changes.

5-4.41 Cases not Eligible for the Québec Parental Insurance Plan and the Employment Insurance Plan

The employee who is not eligible for adoption benefits under the Québec Parental Insurance Plan and for parental benefits under the Employment Insurance Plan and who adopts a child other than the child of his or her spouse shall receive, during the leave for adoption prescribed in clause 5-4.35, an allowance equal to his or her basic weekly salary.

5-4.42 Leave for Adoption of the Spouse's Child

The employee who adopts his or her spouse's child is entitled to a maximum leave of five (5) working days, of which only the first two (2) are with salary.

While this leave need not be continuous, it cannot be taken after the expiry of the fifteen (15) days following the date of the filing of the application for adoption.

5-4.43

During the leaves of absence for adoption prescribed in clauses 5-4.34, 5-4.35 and 5-4.42, the employee shall be entitled to the benefits prescribed in clause 5-4.16, insofar as he or she is normally entitled to them, and in clause 5-4.19.

5-4.44

To be granted the leave for adoption provided for in clause 5-4.35, the employee must submit a written request to the Board at least three (3) weeks before the date of departure. The time limit can however be reduced if the adoption occurs before the due date. The request shall indicate the date of expiry of the leave.

The employee must report to his or her place of work upon the termination of his or her leave for adoption, unless the leave has been extended in the manner prescribed in clause 5-4.47.

The employee who does not comply with the preceding subparagraph shall be considered as having been on a leave of absence without salary for a maximum period of four (4) weeks. At the end of that period, the employee who has not reported back to work shall be considered as having resigned.

5-4.45

Paragraphs A), B), D) and E) of clause 5-4.15 shall apply, by making the necessary changes, to the employee who is entitled to the allowances provided for in clauses 5-4.40 and 5-4.41.

5-4.46Leaves of Absence without Salary for Adoption Purposes

An employee shall be entitled to a leave of absence without salary of a maximum duration of ten (10) weeks to adopt a child, beginning on the date on which the employee assumes full legal responsibility for the child, except in the case of a child of his or her spouse.

The employee who travels outside Québec in order to adopt a child, except in the case of a child of his or her spouse, shall for that purpose and upon written request submitted to the Board two (2) weeks in advance, where possible, obtain a leave of absence without salary for the time necessary for the travel. However the leave shall cease no later than the week following the beginning of benefit payments under the Québec Parental Insurance Plan or the Employment Insurance Plan, as the case may be, and the provisions of clause 5-4.35 shall apply.

During the leave of absence without salary with a view to adopt, the employee shall be entitled to the same benefits as those pertaining to full-time or part-time leaves of absence without salary prescribed in clause 5-4.49.

Full-time or Part-time Leaves of Absence without Salary for Maternity, Paternity or Adoption5-4.47

Following a written request submitted to the Board at least three (3) weeks in advance in the case of a full-time leave of absence without salary and at least thirty (30) days in advance in the case of a part-time leave of absence without salary, the employee who wishes to extend her maternity leave, the employee who wishes to extend his paternity leave and the employee who wishes to extend either one of the leaves for adoption shall benefit from one of the two options listed hereinafter, under the conditions stipulated therein:

- A) a full-time leave of absence without salary for a maximum period of fifty-two (52) continuous weeks which begins at the time the employee chooses and ends no later than seventy (70) weeks after the birth or, in the case of an adoption, seventy (70) weeks after he or she assumes full legal responsibility for the child;
- B) a full-time or part-time leave without salary for a maximum period of two (2) years, as an extension to the maternity leave prescribed in clause 5-4.05, the paternity leave prescribed in clause 5-4.24 or the leave for adoption prescribed in clause 5-4.35. In the case of a paternity leave or a leave for adoption, the maximum duration of the leave without salary shall not exceed the one hundred and twenty-fifth (125th) week following the child's birth or arrival at home, as the case may be.

For the duration of this leave, the employee shall be entitled, following a written request submitted at least thirty (30) days in advance, to benefit from on the following changes:

- i) from a full-time leave without salary to a part-time leave without salary, as the case may be;
- ii) from a part-time leave without salary to a different part-time leave without salary.

The employee who holds a part-time position shall also be entitled to the part-time leave without salary. However, the other provisions of the agreement concerning the determination of the number of working hours shall remain applicable.

The employee who does not use his or her full-time or part-time leave of absence without salary may, for that portion of the leave which his or her spouse does not use, benefit from a full-time or part-time leave of absence without salary, at his or her choosing, by following the formalities prescribed.

The request for a part-time leave of absence without salary must specify the schedule of the leave. Should the Board disagree on the number of days off per week, the employee shall be entitled to a maximum of two and a half (2.5) days off per week or the equivalent for a maximum period of two (2) years. Should the Board disagree on the distribution of the days, it shall effect the distribution.

If the spouse of the employee is not an employee of the public or parapublic sector, the employee may avail himself or herself of a leave prescribed above at the time he or she chooses within two (2) years following the birth or adoption without exceeding the two (2)-year time limit following the birth or adoption.

During either one of the aforementioned leaves, the employee shall retain the right, insofar as he or she is entitled to it, to use the sick-leave days prescribed in article 5-3.00.

In the case of either one of the aforementioned leaves, the request must specify the date of return to work.

5-4.48

Upon request from the employee, the full-time leave without salary provided for in clause 5-4.47 may be divided into weeks before the termination of the first fifty-two (52) weeks if the child is hospitalized or due to circumstances referred to in sections 79.1 and 79.8 to 79.12 of the Act respecting labour standards (R.S.Q., c. N-1.1).

The maximum number of weeks during which the full-time leave without salary may be suspended corresponds to the number of weeks of the child's hospitalization. For other possibilities of division, the maximum number of weeks during which the leave may be suspended is that which is prescribed in the Act respecting labour standards for such a situation.

During such a suspension, the employee is considered on leave without salary and shall not receive any allowances or benefits from the Board. The employee shall be entitled to benefits under clause 5-4.49 during this period.

During the leave of absence without salary, the employee shall accumulate seniority and shall retain his or her experience. He or she shall continue to contribute to the basic health insurance plan applicable to him or her by paying his or her share of the required premiums for the first fifty-two (52) weeks of the leave and the total amount of the required premiums for the subsequent weeks. Moreover, he or she may continue to participate in the complementary insurance plans applicable to him or her by so requesting at the beginning of the said leave and by paying the total amount of the required premiums, plus tax, where applicable.

The employee who benefits from a part-time leave without salary shall accumulate seniority on the same basis as prior to the leave and, for the proportion of hours worked, shall be governed by the provisions applicable to an employee who has a part-time position.

Notwithstanding the preceding subparagraphs, the employee shall accumulate his or her experience, for the purposes of determining his or her salary, up to the first fifty-two (52) weeks of a leave without salary or part-time leave without salary.

5-4.50

The employee may take his or her deferred annual vacation immediately prior to his or her full-time or part-time leave of absence without salary provided that there be no discontinuity with his paternity leave, her maternity leave or his or her leave for adoption, as the case may be.

5-4.51

The employee to whom the Board has sent a notice four (4)-weeks in advance indicating the termination date of one of the leaves prescribed in clause 5-4.47 must inform the Board of his or her return to work at least two (2) weeks before the termination of the leave. Failing which, he or she shall be considered as having resigned.

5-4.52

The employee who wishes to terminate his or her leave without salary before the anticipated date must submit a written notice of his or her intention at least twenty-one (21) days prior to his or her return. In the case of a leave without salary exceeding fifty-two (52) weeks, the notice shall be submitted at least thirty (30) days in advance.

On returning to the Board from a full-time or a part-time leave without salary, the employee shall be reinstated in the position he or she held prior to his or her departure, subject to article 7-3.00.

Leaves for Parental Responsibilities5-4.53

A part-time or full-time leave without salary for a maximum of one (1) year shall be granted to an employee whose minor child experiences socioemotional problems or whose minor child is handicapped or ill and requires his or her care. In this case, the fifth subparagraph of paragraph B) of clause 5-4.47 shall apply except as regards the maximum duration of the leave without salary, which cannot exceed one (1) year.

Section V Miscellaneous Provisions5-4.54

The employee who receives a premium for regional disparities under the agreement shall receive it for the duration of her maternity leave prescribed in Section II.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the total amounts received by the employee in parental benefits or employment insurance benefits, allowances and premiums may not exceed ninety-five percent (95%) of her basic salary and the premium for regional disparities.

Also the employee who receives a premium for regional disparities under the agreement shall receive the premium during the weeks when he or she receives a benefit, as the case may be, prescribed in clauses 5-4.24 or 5-4.35.

5-4.55

Any benefit or allowance referred to in this article the payment of which began before a strike or lockout shall continue to be paid during the strike or lockout.

5-4.56

If it is established before an arbitrator that a probationary employee availed herself of a maternity leave or a full-time or part-time leave without salary to extend a maternity leave and that the Board terminated her employment, the latter must prove that it terminated her employment for reasons other than for having taken the maternity leave or the full-time or part-time leave without salary.

5-4.57

Should any changes occur in the Québec Parental Insurance Plan, to the Employment Insurance Act (S.C. 1996, c. 23), or to the Act respecting labour standards (R.S.Q., c. N-1.1) with respect to parental rights, it is understood that the parties shall meet to discuss the possible impact of these changes on the present parental plans.

5-5.00 PARTICIPATION IN PUBLIC AFFAIRS5-5.01

The Board shall recognize the same rights for an employee to participate in public affairs as those recognized for all citizens.

When an employee is called upon to work for a competent authority during an election or referendum, he or she shall be entitled to a leave of absence without loss of salary including applicable premiums, if any. However, he or she must remit to the Board the salary received during the election or referendum up to the amounts paid by the Board.

The regular employee, who is a candidate in a municipal, school, provincial or federal election or an election to an organization prescribed in the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement or who is a candidate for a position of director of the Federation of Cooperatives of Northern Québec or the Makivik Corporation shall obtain, upon request, a leave of absence without salary which could extend from the declaration of the elections to the tenth (10th) day which follows the election day or for any shorter period situated between these two events.

5-5.03

A regular employee who does not report to work within the time limit specified shall be considered as having resigned, unless the reason for which he or she does not report to work is one of the reasons for absence prescribed in the agreement. In this case, the employee must notify the Board, except if it is impossible for him or her to report to work on the first working day following any leave prescribed in the agreement, otherwise he or she shall be considered as having resigned as of that day.

5-5.04

The regular employee, elected in a municipal or school election, to an organization prescribed in the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement, the board of directors of a hospital, the Federation of Cooperatives of Northern Québec, the Makivik Corporation or a local community services centre may benefit from leaves of absence without salary with the Board's authorization which cannot be refused without a valid reason and according to the terms and conditions prescribed by it in order to carry out the duties of his or her position.

5-5.05

The regular employee elected in a provincial or federal election shall remain on leave without salary for the duration of his or her mandate.

5-5.06

Within twenty-one (21) days of the expiry of his or her term of office, the employee must inform the Board of his or her decision to return to work; failing this, the employee shall be considered as having resigned.

On returning to the Board, he or she shall be reinstated in his or her position, if it is available, or an equivalent position, the foregoing subject to Chapter 7-0.00.

5-5.07

Every employee elected to the council of commissioners of the Kativik School Board or to an Education Committee of the Board shall be considered as having resigned from his or her position with the Board as of the tenth (10th) day following his or her election.

5-6.00 VACATION5-6.01

During each fiscal year, an employee shall be entitled, according to the duration of his or her active service for the preceding fiscal year, to an annual vacation period the duration of which is determined in clauses 5-6.10 and 5-6.11.

5-6.02

Every absence with salary shall be considered as active service for purposes of calculating vacation. However, the absence must not have the effect of deferring vacation to another fiscal year without the Board's permission or unless provided in the agreement, nor shall it result in a salary which is higher than the employee's annual salary.

5-6.03

The length of the vacation period shall not be reduced in the case of one or more periods of disability not exceeding a total of two hundred and forty-two (242) working days per fiscal year nor in the case of a work accident or an occupational disease.

In the case where the disability period exceeds two hundred and forty-two (242) working days per fiscal year, the excess shall not be counted as active service.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the first and second paragraphs of this clause, no more than two hundred and forty-two (242) days of active service per disability period may be counted even if the period extends beyond one fiscal year.

For a new employee as well as for an employee who leaves his or her position permanently, the month during which he or she was hired and the month during which he or she leaves shall count for one (1) complete month of active service, provided that he or she worked one-half or more of the working days of the month.

5-6.04

Vacation must usually be taken during the fiscal year following that in which it was acquired.

5-6.05

The vacation period shall be determined in the following manner:

- A) Before May 1 of each year the Board, after consulting the Union or the group of unions concerned, may establish a period of total or partial shutdown of its activities for a maximum period of ten (10) working days. The period may be longer than ten (10) working days insofar as the Union agrees. Every employee affected by the total or partial shutdown must take all the vacation to which he or she is entitled or part of his or her vacation equal to the shutdown period; the period of total or partial shutdown may vary for different groups of employees. The employee who is entitled to a number of days of vacation greater than the number of days used during the shutdown period shall take the additional days according to the terms and conditions prescribed hereinafter.
- B) Before May 15 of each year, employees shall choose the dates on which they wish to take their vacation and the latter shall be distributed by taking into account the seniority of the employees in the same office, department or school, where applicable. The employees' choices shall be submitted to the Board for approval and the latter shall take into account the needs of the department. The Board shall inform the employee of its decision no later than June 1 and the employee whose choice is refused shall then choose new dates.
- C) Once the vacation period has been approved by the Board, a change is possible when requested by an employee if the needs of the department permit and if the change does not affect the vacation periods of other employees.

- D) Every employee who benefits from at least ten (10) working days of vacation may take up to ten (10) working days of vacation during the summer. To this effect, the shutdown period prescribed in paragraph A) shall count for the purpose of applying this paragraph. This paragraph shall not apply to warehouse employees.
- E) The Board and the Union may conclude an agreement concerning different terms and conditions from those prescribed above.

5-6.06

The employee must take his or her vacation in periods of at least five (5) consecutive days. Any remaining period of less than five (5) days must be taken consecutively, unless there is an agreement to the contrary between the Board and the employee concerned.

5-6.07

If one or more paid legal holidays coincide with the employee's vacation, the period shall be extended for an equivalent duration.

5-6.08

An employee on vacation shall continue to receive the salary regularly paid to him or her under article 6-7.00. However, the salary shall be paid to him or her, before the departure, for the duration of his or her vacation period, provided the employee has submitted a request to this effect to the Board at least two (2) weeks before the beginning of his or her vacation. The employee shall be deemed to have made a request if he or she informs the Board of his or her choice before May 15 of the year concerned.

5-6.09

In the case of permanent termination of employment, the employee shall be entitled, under this article, to the payment of vacation acquired and not used.

5-6.10

Subject to clause 5-6.11, the employee shall be entitled to:

- twenty (20) working days of vacation if he or she has less than seventeen (17) years of seniority on June 30 of the year of acquisition;
- twenty-one (21) working days of vacation if he or she has seventeen (17) years or more of seniority on June 30 of the year of acquisition;
- twenty-two (22) working days of vacation if he or she has nineteen (19) years or more of seniority on June 30 of the year of acquisition;
- twenty-three (23) working days of vacation if he or she has twenty-one (21) years or more of seniority on June 30 of the year of acquisition;

- twenty-five (25) working days of vacation if he or she has twenty-five (25) years or more of seniority on June 30 of the year of acquisition.

5-6.11

Subject to clause 5-6.03 the employee whose duration of active service, during the year of acquisition of vacation, was less than one (1) year, shall be entitled to the number of vacation days as determined in the following table:

5-9.01

The Board shall grant a regular employee a leave of absence without salary on a full-time or part-time basis for reasons it deems valid for a maximum duration of twelve (12) consecutive months, which leave of absence may be renewed. In the case of a part-time leave, the relevant provisions of the agreement shall apply to the employee concerned.

¹ or, if need be, according to the eligibility criteria and method of participation of employees prescribed by the Professional Improvement Committee.

5-9.02

The Board shall grant a leave without pay for a period not exceeding twelve (12) months to enable an employee to accompany his or her spouse whose workplace has been temporarily or permanently changed.

5-9.03

The Board shall grant a regular employee who requests a full-time or a part-time leave of absence without salary:

- a) if the granting of such a leave permits the use of the services of an employee in surplus;
- b) when his or her spouse, dependent child, father, mother, sister, brother, grandfather or grandmother is seriously ill, as attested to by a medical certificate. This provision shall also apply to an employee who accompanies the person who must be evacuated and taken to a hospital.

5-9.04

Subject to the second paragraph of clause 5-9.05, the Board shall grant the tenured employee a first full-time or part-time leave of absence without salary for a period not exceeding twelve (12) consecutive months for studies leading to a diploma awarded by an officially recognized institution.

5-9.05

The Board shall grant a regular employee a full-time or a part-time leave without salary of a minimum duration of one (1) month without exceeding twelve (12) consecutive months. The regular employee may benefit from such a leave every time he or she has accumulated at least five (5) years of seniority.

The Board shall not be required to grant the leave for or during the same period to more than one employee per office, department, school or adult education centre; in this case, priority shall be given to the employee with the most seniority. The Board may also refuse an application to this effect if it is unable to find a replacement if need be.

5-9.06

The employee affected by a prolonged illness attested to by a medical certificate accepted by the Board shall, if he or she has exhausted the benefits prescribed in clauses 5-3.32, 5-3.44 and 5-3.45, obtain a full-time leave of absence without salary for the balance of the current fiscal year.

5-9.07

Except for the case prescribed in clause 5-9.03, the request for a leave without salary or for the renewal of a leave without salary must be made at least thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of the leave; the request shall be made in writing and must specify the reasons as well as the dates of the beginning and the end of the leave. Moreover, the request for a part-time leave without salary must specify the schedule of the leave.

5-9.08

In the case of a part-time leave without salary prescribed in this article, the Board and the employee must agree on the schedule of the leave and on the other terms and conditions of application.

5-9.09

During his or her absence, the employee's seniority shall be calculated under article 8-1.00. He or she shall continue to participate in the health insurance plan by paying all the premiums and contributions required plus applicable tax, if any. He or she may participate in the complementary plans, provided he or she pay all the premiums and contributions required plus applicable tax, if any, if the regulations of the plans so permit.

5-9.10

An employee who wishes to terminate his or her leave without salary before the date foreseen must obtain the consent of the Board. In this case, the Board shall take into account the needs of the department.

Moreover, an employee may also terminate his or her leave without salary before the date foreseen if he or she obtains a position under clause 7-1.03.

5-9.11

Pursuant to clause 5-9.10, the employee shall, on his or her return, be reinstated in the position he or she held upon his or her departure, subject to article 7-3.00.

5-9.12

In case of resignation during or at the end of the leave of absence, the employee shall reimburse the Board for any amount paid for and in the name of the employee.

5-9.13

The employee who uses his or her leave of absence for purposes other than those for which he or she obtained it shall be considered as having resigned as of the beginning of the leave.

5-10.00 SABBATICAL LEAVE PLAN WITH DEFERRED SALARY5-10.01

The sabbatical leave with deferred salary plan allows a tenured employee who is not in surplus to have his or her salary for a given period of work spread over a longer period in order to benefit from a sabbatical leave with salary; such a plan is only applicable in accordance with the law and its regulations.

The purpose of the leave is not the payment of benefits to the employee upon retirement nor the deferral of income tax.

5-10.02

The granting of the leave shall be the responsibility of the Board; however, should the Board refuse the leave, it shall provide the employee with the reason for its refusal if the employee so requests.

5-10.03

For the purpose of this article the term "contract" means the contract mentioned in Appendix VI.

5-10.04

The sabbatical leave plan may only apply for the period of the contract and the corresponding duration of the leave as determined in the following table and according to the percentages of salary paid during the contract.

Period of Leave	Period of Participation in the Plan (contract)
	2 years	3 years	4 years	5 years
6 months	75.00%	83.33%	87.50%	90.00%
7 months	70.83%	80.56%	85.42%	88.33%
8 months	66.67%	77.78%	83.33%	86.67%

10 months		72.22%	79.17%	83.33%
11 months		69.44%	77.08%	81.67%
12 months		66.67%	75.00%	80.00%

5-10.05

The sabbatical leave of a duration of six (6) months to twelve (12) months terminates at the same time as the contract ends.

5-10.06

At the end of the leave, the employee must return to work in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act pertaining to individuals.

5-10.07

The leave is subject to the provisions of Appendix VI.

5-10.08

An employee who obtained a sabbatical leave with deferred salary under a former collective agreement shall continue to be governed by the provisions applicable to him or her until the expiry of the contract.

CHAPTER 6-0.00 REMUNERATION6-1.00 CLASSIFICATION RULES*Determination of the Class of Employment on the Date of the Coming into Force of the Agreement*6-1.01

The classification of an employee shall be that held on the date of the coming into force of the agreement.

Determination of the Class of Employment During the Agreement6-1.02

As of his or her hiring, the employee shall be classified according to the Classification Plan.

6-1.03

In all cases, the Board's assignment of a class of employment prescribed in the Classification Plan shall be based on the nature of the work and on the characteristic functions that the employee is principally and customarily required to perform.

6-1.04

At the time of hiring, the employee shall be informed in writing of his or her status (on probation, regular or temporary), class of employment, salary, step, date of advancement in step under article 6-2.00 and job description.

6-1.05

Subsequently, an employee shall be informed of any change in his or her duties.

6-1.06

The employee who obtains a new position under article 7-1.00 or 7-3.00 and who claims that the new duties which he or she must perform principally and customarily correspond to a class of employment which differs from that obtained shall be entitled to file a grievance according to the usual procedure within ninety (90) days after he or she obtains the position. In the case of arbitration, clause 6-1.15 shall apply.

Change in Duties6-1.07

The employee who claims that the duties which he or she must perform principally and customarily as required by the Board correspond to a class of employment which differs from his or her own may file a grievance according to the procedure for settling grievances prescribed in article 9-1.00 of the agreement. Notwithstanding the time limit specified in the first subparagraph of paragraph A) of clause 9-1.03, the employee may validly submit a grievance as long as he or she is performing the duties.

In the event of arbitration, clause 6-1.15 shall apply and the ensuing decision cannot have any retroactive effect prior to the date on which the grievance was filed at the Board.

The fact that the changes occurred under the 2005-2010 collective agreement cannot invalidate the grievance provided that it was filed within thirty (30) working days of the date of the coming into force of this agreement.

6-1.08

The arbitrator who decides a grievance filed under clauses 6-1.06 and 6-1.07 shall only have the power to grant a monetary compensation equal to the difference between the employee's salary and the higher salary which corresponds to the class of employment the duties of which the employee proved that he or she performed principally and customarily as required by the Board.

The arbitrator's decision must comply with the Classification Plan and he or she must establish the similarity between the employee's characteristic functions and those prescribed in the Classification Plan.

The monetary compensation prescribed in this clause shall be calculated in accordance with clause 6-2.13.

If the arbitrator cannot establish the similarity referred to in clause 6-1.08, the following provisions shall apply:

- A) within twenty (20) working days of the arbitrator's decision, the negotiating parties shall meet in order to determine a monetary compensation within the salary scales prescribed in the agreement and shall agree, if need be, on the class of employment to be used as a basis, in accordance with clauses 6-1.06 and 6-1.07, in order to determine the said compensation;
- B) failing agreement, the union concerned by the arbitral decision may request that the arbitrator determine the monetary compensation by finding in the agreement a salary which is the closest to a salary corresponding to duties similar to those of the employee concerned within the public and parapublic sectors.

In the case of a grievance submitted under clause 6-1.06 or 6-1.07, if, within thirty (30) days following the arbitrator's decision under clause 6-1.08 or 6-1.09, the Board has not reestablished the employee's duties to those prior to the grievance, the employee shall obtain the class of employment corresponding to the duties that he or she has shown to have performed principally and customarily.

6-1.11

If the Board decides to maintain a position for which, under clause 6-1.09, the arbitrator was not able to establish similarity, it shall approach the management group in order to obtain the creation of a new class of employment which shall at least include the characteristic functions of the position. The procedures prescribed in clauses 6-1.13 and 6-1.14 shall then apply.

6-1.12

For as long as the class has not been created and the salary has not been determined, the employee concerned shall continue to receive the monetary compensation prescribed in clause 6-1.08 or 6-1.09 for as long as he or she occupies the said position.

Creation of New Classes of Employment or Changes in Duties or Qualifications6-1.13

If, during the life of the agreement, after consulting the union group, new classes of employment are created by the management group or if the duties or qualifications of a class of employment are changed, the negotiating parties shall determine the applicable salary rate on the basis of the rates prescribed for comparable positions within the public and parapublic sectors.

6-1.14

If, during the forty (40) working days of the notice of the creation of the new class of employment or the notification of a change made by the management group, there is no agreement with the union group on the salary rate proposed by the management group, the union group may then, within the next twenty (20) working days, submit a grievance directly to arbitration according to the procedure prescribed in clause 6-1.15. The arbitrator must make a decision on the new rate by taking into account the rates in effect for similar positions in the public and parapublic sectors.

Arbitration6-1.15

For the purposes of clauses 6-1.08, 6-1.09, 6-1.14 and 7-1.02, the grievances submitted to arbitration shall be decided upon, for the duration of the agreement, by the following arbitrators:

BHÉRER, Jacques
CHARLEBOIS, Paul

DUFRESNE, Pierre N.
TOUSIGNANT, Lyse

or any person appointed by the negotiating parties to act as arbitrator under this clause.

The chief arbitrator whose name appears in clause 9-2.02 shall distribute the grievances among the arbitrators appointed under this clause. The procedure prescribed in article 9-2.00 shall apply with the necessary changes.

6-1.16

The time limits mentioned in this article shall be compulsory unless there is a written agreement to the contrary. Failure to comply with the time limits shall render the grievance null and void.

6-2.00 DETERMINATION OF STEPAt the Time of Hiring*6-2.01

Pursuant to this article, the salary step of each new employee shall be determined according to the class of employment assigned to him or her, taking into account his or her schooling and experience.

6-2.02

The step shall usually correspond to one (1) complete year of recognized experience. It shall denote the salary rate in the scales found in Appendix I.

6-2.03

An employee who possesses only the minimum qualifications specified in the Classification Plan to obtain a class of employment shall be entitled to the first step of the class.

6-2.04

An employee who possesses more years of experience than the minimum specified in the Classification Plan for his or her class of employment shall be granted one step per additional year of experience, provided that the experience be deemed valid and directly relevant to the duties outlined in the class of employment.

In order to be recognized for the purposes of determining the step in a class of employment, the experience must be relevant and must have been acquired with the Board or with another employer in a class of employment of an equivalent or higher level than that class of employment, taking into account the qualifications required by the class of employment.

The relevant experience acquired in a class of employment of a level lower than the employee's class of employment may be used solely to meet the qualifications required by the class of employment.

Within ninety (90) days of the Board's request, a newly hired employee shall provide any information required to determine his or her salary step. The salary step determine shall have a retroactive effect to the date of the hiring.

When an employee provides the information requested for the determination of his or her salary step at the time of his or her hiring after the expiry of the time limit prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the determination of the step shall have a retroactive effect to ninety (90) days of the date on which the documents were forwarded.

In both cases, the Board shall not claim any money as a result of a decision to decrease the salary step except for a fraudulent statement.

6-2.05

An employee who has successfully completed more years of schooling than the minimum required in the Classification Plan in an officially recognized institution shall be granted two (2) steps for each year of schooling in addition to the minimum required, provided that the studies are deemed directly relevant by the Board and that they are greater than the qualifications required in terms of schooling for the class of employment to which the employee belongs.

Advancement in Step

6-2.06

The first advancement in step shall be granted on January 1 or on July 1 which follows by at least nine (9) months the effective date on which an employee assumed his or her duties.

The subsequent advancement in step shall usually be granted on the anniversary date of the first advancement.

This clause shall apply, subject to clause 6-2.08.

6-2.07

The employee who is temporarily laid off due to a cyclical slowdown or seasonal shutdown of activities in his or her sector shall be considered as being in the service of the Board during that period for the purposes of determining the date of his or her advancement in step as well as for the purposes of advancement in step.

6-2.08

The period of time spent in a step shall usually be one (1) year and each step shall correspond to one (1) year of experience.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, no advancement in step shall be granted for the period from January 1, 1983 to December 31, 1983 and the step thus lost may in no way be recuperated.

Moreover, the months between January 1, 1983 and December 31, 1983 may not be taken into account when determining any subsequent step or when applying clauses 6-2.06, 6-2.13, 6-2.14 and 6-2.15.

The preceding provisions shall not modify the date of advancement in step of an employee for any period subsequent to December 31, 1983.

6-2.09

The transition from one step to another shall take place following the employee's annual evaluation; an advancement in step shall be granted, unless the evaluation was unsatisfactory.

6-2.10

If the advancement in step is not granted, the Board shall notify the employee and the Union at least fifteen (15) days before the date foreseen for the said advancement. In the event of a grievance, the burden of proof lies with the Board.

6-2.11

The advancement of two (2) additional steps shall be granted on the date of advancement foreseen when the employee has successfully completed professional improvement studies equivalent to one (1) year of full-time studies, provided that the studies are deemed directly relevant by the Board and that they are greater, in terms of schooling, than the qualifications specified in the Classification Plan for his or her class of employment.

6-2.12

A change in class of employment, a promotion, a transfer or a demotion shall not affect the date of the advancement in step.

Determination of the Step at the Time of a Promotion, Transfer or Demotion

6-2.13 At the Time of a Promotion

When an employee receives a promotion or a temporary assignment which constitutes a promotion, his or her step in the new class of employment shall be determined according to the more advantageous of the following formulas:

A) a) Categories of Technical and Paratechnical Support and Administrative Support Positions

The employee shall be placed in the step in which the salary rate is immediately above that which he or she was receiving; the resulting increase must at least be equal to the difference between the first two (2) steps of the new class of employment; failing this, he or she shall be assigned the step immediately above. If such an increase has the effect of giving him or her a rate higher than that of the last step in the scale, the difference between the rate of the last step and the higher rate shall be paid to him or her in a lump sum spread over each of his or her pays.

b) Category of Labour Support Positions

The transition of the employee's salary rate to the rate of the new class must assure a minimum increase of $0.10/hour; failing this, the employee shall receive the rate of the new class and a lump sum spread over each of his or her pays to make up the difference up to the $0.10 minimum/hour.

B) The employee shall be placed in the step in his or her new class of employment which corresponds to his or her years of experience recognized as being valid and directly relevant to the performance of the duties of the new class.

- C) Employees who are overscale and who remain overscale:
- a) Categories of Technical and Paratechnical Support and Administrative Support Positions

The employee shall receive an increase determined as follows:

- his or her overscale salary increased by one-third (1/3) of the difference between the maximum salary provided in the scale of the class of employment that he or she is leaving and the maximum salary provided in the scale of the class of employment to which he or she is promoted; such an increase must ensure an increase at least equal to the difference between the first two (2) steps of his or her new class of employment; the increase shall be paid as a lump sum spread over each of the employee's pays.

- b) Category of Labour Support Positions

The employee shall receive an increase which is determined in the following manner:

- his or her overscale salary rate increased by one-third (1/3) of the difference between the rate provided for the class of employment that he or she is leaving and the rate provided for the class of employment to which he or she is promoted. The salary rate shall ensure an increase of at least $0.10/hour; the increase shall be paid as a lump sum spread over each of the employee's pays.

6-2.14 At the Time of a Transfer

When an employee is transferred, he or she shall be placed in the step of the new class of employment which corresponds to his or her years of experience recognized as being valid and directly relevant to the performance of the duties of the new class or he or she shall retain his or her current salary rate if the latter is more advantageous.

6-2.15 At The Time of a Demotion

- A) An employee demoted voluntarily shall receive the salary which corresponds to the more advantageous of the following formulas:

- a) he or she shall be placed in the step of the new class of employment, the salary rate of which is immediately below that which he or she receives;
- b) he or she shall be placed in the step of the new class of employment corresponding to his or her years of experience recognized as being valid and directly relevant to the performance of the duties of that class.

- B) An employee demoted involuntarily shall obtain the salary which corresponds to the more advantageous of the formulas prescribed in the preceding paragraph A), on the condition that the difference between the salary in his or her new class of employment and the salary he or she received before his or her demotion be made up by a lump sum spread over each of his or her pays and paid over a maximum period of two (2) years after the demotion.

However, the employee who, within a two (2)-year period following his or her demotion, obtains a position which would have constituted a transfer had he or she not been demoted shall then receive the same salary that he or she would have received had he or she not been demoted.

Failing an agreement to the contrary between the Board and the Union, an employee who receives a lump sum under clauses 6-2.13 and 6-2.15 of the former agreement shall continue to do so in the manner described in the former agreement and for the time specified therein.

This clause cannot result in modifying the rights and obligations of the parties prescribed in clauses 6-2.13 and 6-2.15 of the former agreement.

6-3.00 SALARY6-3.01 Salary Rates and Scales

⁶ For each year of the Agreement, the annual variation in the consumer price index corresponds to the variation between the average indexes for the months of April to March of the agreement year concerned and the average indexes for the preceding months of April to March.

The increased prescribed in the preceding paragraph shall be included in the employees' pay within sixty (60) days following the publication of the Statistics Canada data regarding Québec's CPI for the month of March 2015.

- G) The employees in the employ of the Board when payment of the increase referred to in the second subparagraph of paragraphs C), D), E) and of the first subparagraph of paragraph F) of this clause is made, as the case may be, shall receive retroactivity within sixty (60) days of this increase.

To receive the amounts to be paid under the preceding subparagraph, the employee must submit a written request to the Board no later than one hundred and twenty (120) days of the Union receiving the list. In the event of an employee's death, the request may be submitted by his or her heirs or assigns.

The amounts owing in accordance with the preceding subparagraph are payable within 60 days of the receipt of the request.

Overrate or Overscale Employees

6-3.03

The employee whose salary rate on the day preceding the date on which the salary scales and rates are increased is higher than the single rate or the maximum of the salary scale in effect for his or her class of employment shall receive, on the date on which the salary scales and rates are increased, a minimum rate of increase equal to half of the percentage increase applicable on April 1 of the period concerned in relation to the preceding March 31, to the single salary rate or step situated at the maximum of the scale of the preceding March 31 corresponding to his or her class of employment.

If the application of the minimum rate of increase determined in clause 6-3.03 has the effect of placing, on April 1, an employee who was overscale or overrate on March 31 of the preceding year at a salary which is lower than the maximum step of the scale or single salary rate corresponding to his or her class of employment, the minimum rate of increase is brought to the percentage necessary to permit the employee to reach that step or single salary rate.

6-3.05

The difference between, on the one hand, the percentage increase of the maximum step of the salary scale or the single salary rate corresponding to the employee's class of employment and, on the other hand, the minimum rate of increase determined under clauses 6-3.03 and 6-3.04 shall be paid to him or her as a lump sum calculated on the basis of his or her salary rate on March 31.

6-3.06

The lump sum is spread and paid over each pay period in proportion to the regular hours remunerated for each pay period.

6-6.00 REGIONAL DISPARITIES6-6.01 Definitions

For the purposes of this article, the following expressions mean:

A) Dependent

The spouse and dependent child¹ and any other dependent as defined in the Taxation Act provided that the latter resides with the employee. However, for the purpose of this article, the income earned from a job by the employee's spouse shall not nullify the latter's status as dependent.

The fact that a child attends a secondary school declared to be of public interest situated elsewhere than in the employee's place of residence shall not nullify his or her status as dependent if no public secondary school is accessible where the employee lives.

Moreover, the fact that a child attends preschool or elementary school, recognized of public interest, in a locality other than the employees place of residence shall not remove his or her status of dependent when no school recognized of public interest, preschool or elementary, as the case may be, is accessible in the child's language of instruction (French or English) in the locality where the employee lives.

A child aged twenty-five (25) years or less shall also be considered as having the status of dependent, providing he or she meets the three (3) following conditions:

- 1) the child is a full-time student attending a postsecondary school declared to be of public interest situated elsewhere than in the place of residence of the employee working in sectors I, II and III;
- 2) the child had the status of dependent during the twelve (12) months preceding the beginning of his or her postsecondary education program;
- 3) the employee has provided the supporting documents attesting to the fact that the child is a full-time student attending a postsecondary education program i.e. proof or registration at the start of the session and proof of attendance at the end of the session;

this recognition allows the employee to maintain his or her level of premiums with dependent as provided in clause 6-6.02 and the child to benefit from the provisions of clauses 6-6.13 to 6-6.20 with the understanding that transportation costs, allowed to the dependent child and arising from other programs, shall be deducted from the benefits related to outings for this dependent child¹.

In addition, the child aged twenty-five (25) years or less who is no longer considered as a dependent with respect to the application of this clause and who is a full-time student attending a postsecondary school declared to be of public interest may again hold the status of dependent if he or she meets conditions 1) and 3) mentioned above¹.

B) Point of Departure

Domicile in the legal sense of the word at the time of engagement insofar as the domicile is situated in one of the localities of Québec. The point of departure may be modified by an agreement between the Board and the employee subject to it being situated in one of the localities of Québec.

¹ Dependent child means: a child of an employee, of an employee's spouse or of both or a child living with the employee for whom adoption procedures have been undertaken, unmarried or not related by civil union and living or domiciled in Canada, who depends on the employee for his or her financial support and who is under eighteen (18) years of age; every child under twenty-five (25) years of age who is a duly registered student attending a recognized learning institution on a full-time basis or a child of any age who became totally disabled before reaching his or her eighteenth (18th) birthday or before reaching his or her twenty-fifth (25th) birthday if he or she was a duly registered student attending a recognized learning institution on a full-time basis and has remained continuously disabled ever since.

The fact that an employee in the public and parapublic sectors already covered by the provisions concerning regional disparities changes employer in the public and parapublic sectors shall not modify his or her point of departure.

- O) the accumulation of earnings and deductions.

6-7.03

The Board and the Union may also agree, in writing, on a different method of payment from that described in clause 6-7.01. The Board and an employee may agree in writing on a method of payment different from that described in clause 6-7.01, such as credit transfer.

6-7.04

If the Board pays an employee more money than he or she should have received, without the employee being at fault, the Board shall reach an agreement with the employee regarding the method of reimbursement. To this effect, the Board shall inform the employee concerned that he or she may be accompanied by his or her union delegate. Failing agreement, the Board shall be required to deduct from the employee's regular salary an amount not exceeding ten percent (10%) of his or her gross salary per pay period.

However, the maximum amount per pay period may be exceeded in order to ensure total reimbursement of the employee's debt over a period of twelve (12) months from the first payment.

Should the employee permanently leave the Board, the Board shall have the right to recover the total amount concerned from the amounts owing to the employee.

6-7.05

If, due to an error, the Board fails to pay an employee on the date foreseen or pays an amount which is less than the amount due, the Board shall, following a request from the employee concerned, take without delay the necessary interim measures for the payment of the amounts due.

6-7.06

The Board shall give an employee a signed statement of the amounts owing in salary and fringe benefits within thirty (30) days of his or her departure.

The Board shall give or forward to the employee his or her paycheque including his or her fringe benefits within thirty (30) days of his or her departure.

6-7.07

The Board shall inform the employee in writing of the amount collected in his or her name from the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail (CSST).

6-7.08

The Board shall indicate on the T-4 and Relevé 1 forms the total amount paid by an employee as union dues during the corresponding calendar year.

CHAPTER 7-0.00 MOVEMENT OF PERSONNEL AND SECURITY OF EMPLOYMENT7-1.00 VACANT POSITIONS*7-1.01

When a position becomes vacant, the Board shall have a sixty (60)-day period in which to decide whether to abolish or modify the position. If the position is abolished or modified, the Board shall inform the Union of its decision within fifteen (15) days.

The Board may assign all or part of the functions and duties of an abolished or modified position to other employees. The assignment cannot entail an excessive workload nor a danger to health and safety. When the abolishment of a position causes the employee to principally and customarily perform duties which correspond to a class of employment different from his or her own, this must be the subject of a written agreement between the Board and the Union and, in this case, clause 6-1.03 shall apply.

Failing agreement, the employee shall be entitled to the grievance procedure prescribed in clause 6-1.07. However, in the event of arbitration, clause 6-1.15 shall apply and the arbitrator shall carry out the mandate conferred under clauses 6-1.03, 6-1.07 and 6-1.09.

Subject to article 7-3.00, when the Board decides to fill a position, permanently vacant or newly created, other than a position of a temporary nature, it shall proceed in the following manner:

- A) It shall fill the position by choosing in the same class of employment from among the employees in surplus and the support staff members in surplus in its employ or from among the tenured employees and the support staff in its employ who have a right to return under article 7-3.00 or clause 7-8.20.
- B) It shall fill the position by choosing, regardless of the class of employment, from among the employees in surplus and the support staff members in surplus in its employ.
- C) It shall offer the position to its employees by means of a posting in accordance with clause 7-1.04.
- D) It shall fill the position by choosing from among its laid off regular employees or those referred to in article 7-7.00 registered on the lists of the Regional Placement Bureau.
- E) It shall fill the position by choosing from among the regular employees laid off for under two (2) years and who, immediately prior to being laid off, held a part-time position and had completed two (2) years of active service with the Board.
- F) It may fill the position by choosing from among the managerial staff on availability in its employ.
- G) It shall fill the position by choosing from among temporary employees who are eligible or registered on the priority of employment list and have the equivalent of two (2) work years on a full-time basis by taking into account the regular workweek defined in clause 8-2.01 and excluding, for each year, twenty (20) days of vacation and the paid legal holidays under article 5-2.00.
- H) It may fill the position by choosing from among the temporary employees who have completed at least six (6) months of service with the Board within a twelve (12)-month period and who have the qualifications required and meet the other requirements determined by the Board.
- I) It shall offer the position to the candidate of its choice.

The notice prescribed in paragraph C) of clause 7-1.03 shall include, among others, a brief job description, a summary of the work schedule, the class of employment, the salary scale or rate, the required qualifications and other requirements determined by the Board, the duration of the regular workweek, the name of the department or school, the deadline for applications as well as the name of the person to whom the application must be forwarded. The notice shall be posted for no less than ten (10) working days and forwarded to the Union.

Any employee interested or affected by the posting may apply for the position according to the method prescribed by the Board. An employee may also obtain, for information purposes, any additional information related to the job description from the person to whom the application must be forwarded.

For the purposes of this clause, Anglophone or Francophone employees in service on the date of the signing of the agreement shall not be required to have a working knowledge of Inuttitut to maintain their employment ties in a position they hold at the Board or in any other position which the employee could subsequently obtain with the Board and for which a working knowledge of Inuttitut was not a requirement at the time when the employee obtained the position.

In all cases where the Board determines requirements other than those prescribed in the Classification Plan, the requirements must be related to the position to be filled.

Within twenty (20) days¹ after the Board decides to fill a position, it must proceed with a posting.

Within twenty (20) working days¹ of the end of the posting period, the Board shall forward to the Union the names of the candidates and their seniority and shall indicate the candidate selected.

The employee selected must assume his or her duties within the next ten (10) working days. Failing this, the Board shall grant the employee the class of employment and the conditions related to the new position as if he or she had assumed his or her duties.

The preceding paragraph shall not apply to probationary employees. A probationary employee must complete his or her probation period before the appointment to his or her new position can take effect.

In the cases prescribed in clause 7-1.03, the employee or person concerned must have the required qualifications and meet the other requirements determined by the Board. The Board shall determine the means and methods for evaluating candidates.

When more than one employee possesses the required qualifications and meets the other requirements determined by the Board, the Board shall offer the position to the employee with the most seniority or, according to the duration of employment, in the case of employees registered on the priority of employment list.

In the case of the employees or persons referred to in paragraph A) of clause 7-1.03, the position shall be offered by order of seniority and the employee or person with the least seniority shall be required to accept it.

In the case of the employee referred to in paragraphs G) and H) of clause 7-1.03 who cannot keep his or her position during the probation period, he or she shall be deemed to remain a temporary employee without loss of rights and without having the effect of giving him or her an additional benefit.

¹ The days in the months of July and the Christmas holidays are not included in calculating the time limits prescribed in this article.

In this context, the employee concerned in the preceding paragraph is re-registered in the employment priority list according to the duration of employment he or she had, or he or she is re-established in the recognition of time worked for purposes of eligibility to be registered in the employment priority list, according to what he or she had accumulated before obtaining a position through the application of clause 7-1.03.

Clause 7-1.03 shall not apply when the Board decides to assign the vacant position to a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement.

In this case, if more than one candidate meets the requirements of the Board and possesses the qualifications required by the Classification Plan, the position shall be given, as a priority, to the candidate who is an employee or a member of the support staff employed by the Board; in this last case, the Board shall, in filling the position, take into account the respective seniority, experience and qualifications of the candidates.

In the case of an administrative reorganization, the Board and the Union may agree on particular rules for the movement of personnel. Failing agreement, this chapter shall apply.

7-1.09

As an exception to the provisions of clause 7-1.06, failing sufficient schooling, relevant experience shall compensate at the rate of two (2) years of relevant experience for each year of insufficient schooling, it being understood that, after deduction, the balance of the relevant years of experience to a candidate's credit must remain sufficient in order to meet the qualifications required for the class of employment with regard to experience. The exception shall apply to positions in the subcategory of paratechnical support positions, the category of administrative support positions and the category of labour support positions. However, the employees who already belong to the subcategory of technical support positions shall be considered as possessing the qualifications required for the class of employment they hold.

Any movement of staff resulting from the application of paragraphs B), D), E) and F) of clause 7-1.03 may not constitute a promotion nor result in assigning the person chosen a salary scale the maximum of which is greater than that of his or her salary scale prior to being placed in surplus or prior to benefiting from a status equivalent to that of an employee in surplus.

7-1.11

An employee's salary shall not be decreased as a result of a temporary assignment requested by the Board.

7-1.12

The regular employee who, at the Board's request, temporarily fills a position which would constitute a promotion for him or her if he or she were assigned to it on a regular basis, shall be paid in the same manner as he or she would be if he or she were promoted to the position, as of the first day of his or her temporary assignment.

When the assignment ends, the employee shall return to his or her regular position under the conditions and with the rights he or she had before his or her temporary assignment.

7-1.13

If, at any time during the three (3)-month adaptation period following any promotion, the Board determines that the employee does not perform his or her duties adequately, it shall notify the Union and shall reinstate the employee in his or her former position. In the case of a grievance submitted to arbitration, the burden of proof lies with the Board.

An employee who has been promoted within the Board may decide to return to his or her former position within thirty (30) days of his or her promotion.

The application of the preceding paragraphs shall entail the cancellation of every movement of personnel resulting from said promotion and the employee concerned shall not be entitled to the income protection granted for a demotion; an employee may, in this context, again become available and be sent back to his or her original board, if applicable.

7-1.14

The employee assigned on a regular basis to a position shall receive the job title and salary associated with the position as of his or her assignment.

7-1.15

When the Board decides to fill a temporarily vacant position, it may, in order to temporarily fill the position, use the services of one or more employees in surplus or support staff members in surplus in its employ.

Failing this and if the duration foreseen for the temporary assignment is three (3) months or less, the following provisions shall apply: the Board may designate an employee of its choice who accepts to fill the position temporarily; if no employee accepts, the Board may designate the employee who is capable of filling the position and who has the least seniority. The assignment must not have the effect of causing the employee to hold two (2) positions at the same time. The Board may also establish a system whereby two (2) or more employees accept to fill the temporarily vacant position in turn within the same day or week.

However, failing to fill the position under the second paragraph, and if the duration of the temporary assignment exceeds ten (10) days but the duration foreseen for the temporary assignment is three (3) months or less, the Board shall fill the position temporarily under clauses 7-1.18 to 7-1.23. If no candidate meets the criteria for the position to be filled, clause 7-1.03 shall apply.

Failing to fill the position under the first paragraph and if the duration foreseen for the temporary assignment exceeds three (3) months, the Board shall fill the position temporarily, in the same class of employment, under the provisions of clauses 7-1.18 to 7-1.23. If no candidate meets the criteria of the position to be filled, clause 7-1.03 shall apply.

When the Board has particular work to be performed during a temporary increase in workload, it shall apply the above.

The Board may at any time replace a temporary employee with a beneficiary of the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement hired for that purpose.

7-1.16

Following an agreement with the Union and notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter, the Board may, at any time, reassign an employee for administrative reasons from one department or school to another, within the same department or school or from a department to a school or vice versa. The reassignment shall be carried out within the same class of employment and in the locality¹ where the employee concerned is assigned on a regular basis.

¹ Within the meaning of article 7-3.00

As a specific exception, when under paragraph C) of clause 7-1.03 an employee who holds a part-time position obtains a full-time position, the period of time constituting active service during which the employee occupied a part-time position with the Board shall then be recognized for the purposes of acquiring tenure.

The same shall apply for the purposes of applying paragraph E) of clause 7-1.03 to a regular employee who is laid off and who had a part-time position before his or her layoff and who obtains a full-time position.

In the context of paragraph C) of clause 7-1.03, this clause can apply only after the three (3)-month adaptation period prescribed in clause 7-1.13.

Priority of Employment Lists7-1.18

When the Board decides to fill a temporarily vacant position within the meaning of clause 7-1.15, it shall offer the position to an employee, according to the duration of employment, from among those who are registered on the priority of employment list and who have the qualifications required for the position under the Classification Plan and who meet the other requirements determined by the Board.

The duration of employment shall be calculated in years, months, days and, where applicable, hours.

7-1.20

A priority of employment list shall be drawn up for each category of employment: paratechnical and technical support, administrative support and labour support. The name of an employee may not be entered on more than one list.

7-1.21

To be eligible for a priority of employment list, the employee must meet the following criteria:

must have worked in the context of a replacement or a temporary increase in work for at least four (4) months during the last twelve (12) months, must have received a satisfactory evaluation and whom the Board decided to include on the list.

7-1.22

The name of an employee may be removed from the priority of employment list for one of the following reasons:

- A) the refusal of an offer of employment except for:
 - a) a maternity leave, a leave for adoption or a paternity leave covered by the Act respecting labour standards;
 - b) a disability or work accident within the meaning of the agreement;
 - c) a position within the Centrale des syndicats du Québec, the Fédération du personnel de soutien scolaire or the Union;
 - d) a reason agreed to by the Board and the Union;
 - e) an offer of employment necessitating his or her moving;

- B) the failure to be present at work on the date agreed to by the employee and the employer without a reason deemed valid by the Board;
- C) the acquisition of a full-time position;
- D) not having worked for eighteen (18) months.

7-1.23

The lists shall be updated on July 1 of each year according to the duration of employment accumulated on June 30 of each year. A copy shall be sent to the Union before July 31.

7-1.24 Procedure for Filling a Specific Position

Before creating a specific position, the Board must consult the Union. The consultation must deal with the nature, the duration and the staff required for the project as well as the source of financing. When the Board decides to fill a specific position, it shall proceed as follows:

- a) it shall fill the position with a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement who has the qualifications required under the Classification Plan and who meets the other requirements determined by the Board.

If more than one candidate has the qualifications required under the Classification Plan and meets the other requirements determined by the Board, the position shall be granted, as a priority, to the candidate who is an employee and shall take into account seniority, experience and qualifications;

- b) failing this, it shall assign an employee in surplus;
- c) failing this, it shall post the position under clause 7-1.04 and shall offer the position by choosing from among the regular employees who have applied for the position;
- d) failing this, it shall fill the position by choosing from among the laid off regular employees or those referred to in subparagraph f) of paragraph B) and subparagraph f) of paragraph C) of clause 7-7.06 and who are registered on the lists of the Regional Placement Bureau;
- e) failing this, it shall proceed in the manner described in clause 7-1.18;
- f) it shall offer the position to the candidate of its choice.

The regular employee assigned to a specific position shall continue to hold his or her original position during the first twenty-four (24) months, subject to the application of articles 7-3.00 and 7-7.00.

When the Board decides to fill a temporarily vacant position because the incumbent is assigned to a specific position, it shall proceed in the manner described in clause 7-1.15.

In the context of this clause, the employee or person concerned can obtain the specific position only if he or she has the required qualifications and meets the other requirements determined by the Board.

7-2.00 TEMPORARY OR PERIODIC LAYOFF

Section I Temporary Layoff

7-2.01

The employee whose nature of work is such that he or she must be temporarily laid off because of the cyclical slowdown or the seasonal shutdown of activities in his or her sector shall not benefit from the provisions of article 7-3.00.

However, article 7-3.00 shall apply to an employee whose position is abolished under that article.

Furthermore, when a position which is not of a cyclical or seasonal nature so becomes, the employee concerned shall benefit, at his or her choice, either from article 7-3.00 or this article.

After consulting the Union, before May 1 of each year, the Board shall establish the approximate duration of temporary layoffs and the order in which they shall be carried out.

The duration of a temporary layoff must not, except for cafeteria personnel, exceed a period of eleven (11) weeks.

In the case of cafeteria personnel, the temporary layoff period cannot exceed a period of twenty-one (21) weeks.

7-2.03

At least one (1) month before the effective date of the layoff, the Board shall inform each of the employees concerned of the date and approximate duration of their temporary layoff and of the provisions of clause 7-2.04. A copy of the notice shall be sent to the Union at the same time.

7-2.04

Subject to the provisions of the first paragraph of clause 7-1.15, every employee who is temporarily laid off shall be given priority to fill, during that period, any temporary position situated in the locality¹ where he or she is normally assigned when he or she is not laid off. In order to benefit from the priority, the employee could inform the Board, in writing, of his or her intention to accept the position that could be offered to him or her within five (5) working days of receiving the notice prescribed in clause 7-2.03. The employee must, moreover, possess the qualifications required. He or she shall receive the salary rate of the position he or she fills temporarily.

7-2.05

Subject to article 7-3.00, the employee shall be reinstated in his or her regular position at the end of the temporary layoff period.

7-2.06

Moreover, the employee who is temporarily laid off under this article shall be covered by the following provisions:

- A) he or she shall benefit, during the temporary layoff period, from the health and life insurance plans, provided that he or she pay his or her share of the annual premium during his or her period of active service;
- B) in order to determine the vacation credit prescribed in clauses 5-6.10 and 5-6.11, the employee shall be considered in the employ of the Board during the temporary layoff period.

Section II Periodic Layoff

7-2.07

The periodic layoff associated with a position cannot circumvent the application of article 5-2.00 to the Christmas holidays.

¹ Within the meaning of article 7-3.00

7-2.08

A periodic position does not include a temporary layoff within the meaning of article 7-2.00. Consequently, the periodic layoff cannot correspond to the period prescribed in the second paragraph of clause 7-2.02.

7-3.00 SECURITY OF EMPLOYMENT7-3.01

The Board may only abolish positions, other than vacant positions, once per fiscal year, at a date determined by the Board between July 1 and September 1.

However, the Board may in exceptional instances abolish positions on other dates in the course of a fiscal year in order to meet administrative or pedagogical requirements which could not be reasonably foreseen at the time when the Board abolished or could abolish a position under the preceding paragraph.

7-3.02

The Board may assign all or part of the functions and duties of an abolished position to other employees. Such an assignment may not cause employees to have an excessive workload nor create a danger to their health and safety.

7-3.03

When the Board intends to abolish a position under clause 7-3.01, it shall inform the Union of:

- A) the position deemed to be surplus;
- B) the name and the status of the person holding the position deemed to be surplus;
- C) the planned date on which the position shall be abolished.

The employee whose position is abolished shall, according to his or her status, be reassigned to another position, laid off, placed in surplus or his or her employment shall terminate according to the following provisions.

The Board must consult the Union on whether the reasons for abolishing a position are well-founded at least sixty (60) days before the effective date on which the position is abolished.

Following the consultation:

- A) The Board shall identify the positions it is abolishing.
- B) The Board shall inform, in writing, the Union and the employee whose position is abolished at least forty-five (45) days before the effective date on which the position is abolished and shall indicate to the employee his or her options under clauses 7-3.05 and 7-3.06; the employee must convey his or her decision in writing within three (3) days of receiving the notice. The Board and the Union may agree that the employees' choices be conveyed to the Board at a meeting of the employees concerned.

For every other employee having a choice to make under clauses 7-3.05 and 7-3.06, the Board shall inform him or her of his or her options under clauses 7-3.05 and 7-3.06 and the employee shall convey his or her decision to the Board within the time limit prescribed in the preceding paragraph.

- C) The regular employee who must be laid off or placed in surplus shall receive a prior notice of at least thirty (30) days before the effective date on which the position is abolished.

- D) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of a position abolished under the second paragraph of clause 7-3.01, the forty-five (45)-day notice prescribed in the preceding paragraph B) shall be replaced by a thirty (30)-day notice and the notice prescribed in the preceding paragraph C) shall be replaced by a fifteen (15)-day notice.
- E) The employee on probation whose employment is terminated shall receive a notice equal in duration to at least one (1) pay period.
- F) All movements of personnel resulting from the application of clauses 7-3.05 and 7-3.06 shall take effect on the effective date on which the position is abolished.

Subject to clause 7-3.06, the following provisions shall apply to the employee whose position is abolished as well as to the employee who is displaced:

- A) if he or she is a probationary employee, the Board shall terminate his or her employment as of the date on which his or her position is abolished or he or she is displaced;
- B) if he or she is a nontenured regular employee:
 - 1) the employee shall be reassigned to a permanently vacant position in his or her class of employment in his or her locality, subject to the application of paragraphs A) and B) of clause 7-1.03;
 - 2) failing this, the employee shall choose between being reassigned, subject to the application of paragraphs A) and B) of clause 7-1.03, to a permanently vacant position in another class of employment in his or her locality, or displacing the employee with the least seniority in a position in his or her class of employment in his or her locality;
 - 3) failing this, the employee shall displace the employee with the least seniority in a position in another class of employment in his or her locality;
 - 4) failing this, the employee shall be laid off as of the effective date on which his or her position is abolished.
- C) if he or she is a tenured employee:
 - 1) the employee shall be reassigned to a permanently vacant full-time position in his or her class of employment in his or her locality. This reassignment shall take place prior to applying clause 7-1.03;
 - 2) failing this, the employee shall choose either to be reassigned to a permanently vacant full-time position in another class of employment in his or her locality, notwithstanding clause 7-1.03 or to displace the employee with the least seniority in a full-time position in his or her class of employment in his or her locality;
 - 3) failing this, the employee shall displace the employee with the least seniority in a full-time position in another class of employment in his or her locality;
 - 4) failing this, the employee shall be placed in surplus.

The probationary employee who, through the application of paragraph A) of this clause, cannot keep his or her position during the probation period, shall be deemed to remain a temporary employee without loss of rights and without having the effect of giving him or her an additional benefit.

In this context, the employee concerned in the preceding paragraph is re-registered in the employment priority list according to the duration of employment he or she had, or he or she is re-established in the recognition of time worked for purposes of eligibility to be registered in the employment priority list, according to what he or she had accumulated before obtaining a position through the application of clause 7-1.03.

In the cases prescribed in clause 7-3.05:

- A) the vacant position referred to is the one the Board intends to fill;
- B) the employee referred to must possess the required qualifications and meet the other requirements determined by the Board;
- C) if the tenured employee who displaces does not meet the requirements of the Classification Plan or the particular requirements determined by the Board for the position of the employee who has the least seniority in his or her class of employment in the locality where the displacement is carried out, he or she must then displace the employee who has the least seniority in the locality in the class of employment where the displacement is carried out and who holds a position for which he or she meets not only the requirements of the Classification Plan but also the particular requirements determined by the Board;
- D) if a position has requirements determined by the Board other than the qualifications required by the Classification Plan, the requirements shall be taken into account before seniority;
- E) an employee may only displace another employee who has less seniority than him or her; for this purpose, the tenured employee shall be deemed to have more seniority than the nontenured employee.

Furthermore, the tenured employee who is a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement shall be deemed to have more seniority than the tenured employee who is not a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement and the nontenured employee who is a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement shall be deemed to have more seniority than the nontenured employee who is not a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement;

- F) only an employee holding a position within the meaning of clause 1-2.25 may be displaced;
- G) a movement of personnel in the context of clause 7-3.05 or this clause cannot entail a promotion;
- H) when an employee is demoted, his or her salary shall be determined under clause 7-3.08;
- I) the salary of the nontenured regular employee who is demoted shall be determined under paragraph B) of clause 6-2.15;
- J) in the case where, an employee is required to displace, under clause 7-3.05, an employee in his or her class of employment whose position was affected by a technological change or a change of software during the two (2) years preceding the effective date of the displacement, the following conditions shall apply:
 - when the particular requirements to fill the position are related exclusively to the technological changes or changes of software, the employee may not be prevented from obtaining the position for the sole reason that he or she does not meet the particular requirements;
 - the employee shall participate in activities that will enable him or her to meet the particular requirements.

7-3.07

If, as a result of the application of clause 7-3.05 or 7-3.06, an employee who holds a part-time position displaces an employee who holds a full-time position, he or she shall acquire tenure if he or she has at least two (2) years of active service. As an exception and in this case only, active service acquired as a part-time employee shall be taken into account.

The tenured employee who has no other choice but to be assigned to a position which constitutes a demotion for him or her, either as a result of the application of paragraph B) of clause 7-1.03, clause 7-3.05, clause 7-3.06 or subparagraph a) of paragraph B) of clause 7-3.16 shall maintain his or her class of employment and the salary related thereto.

This shall also apply to the tenured employee who has been demoted as a result of the application of paragraph b) of clause 7-1.03, clause 7-3.06 or paragraph a) of clause 7-3.15 of the 1983-1985 agreement or paragraph b) of clause 7-1.03, clauses 7-3.06 and 7-3.07 and paragraph a) of clause 7-3.22 of the 1986-1988 agreement.

The employee mentioned in the preceding clause shall benefit from a right to return to a vacant or a newly created position in his or her class of employment that the Board decides to fill or to a newly created position under paragraph A) of clause 7-1.03.

7-3.10

When, as a result of the application of clause 7-3.05 or 7-3.06 of the agreement, a tenured employee has no other choice but to be reassigned to a position with fewer working hours than his or her regular workweek, he or she shall be deemed to be reassigned on a temporary basis and the reassignment shall last until the Board assigns him or her, notwithstanding clause 7-1.03 and article 7-3.00, to a vacant or a newly created position in his or her class of employment or in the class of employment to which he or she has been reassigned, if he or she has been demoted, with a number of working hours at least equal to his or her regular workweek. At the time of the reassignment on a temporary basis, it shall be up to the Board to complete the work schedule of the employee with support staff duties related to his or her qualifications.

The application of the preceding paragraph shall not have the effect of having a split schedule or a shift change imposed on the employee.

This clause shall also apply to the employee who, as a result of the application of clause 7-3.09, obtains a position with fewer working hours than his or her regular workweek.

The tenured employee who, at the time of the coming into force of the agreement, was entitled to the income protection referred to in paragraph b) of clause 7-3.13 of the 1983-1985 agreement or that which is referred to in clause 7-3.16 of the 1986-1988 agreement, shall continue to be entitled to it, according to the conditions and the duration specified therein.

As long as he or she is still considered reassigned on a temporary basis, the employee referred to in the preceding clause shall also benefit from the right to return mentioned in clause 7-3.09 to a position with working hours at least equal to his or her regular workweek prior to his or her reassignment.

In the case where, under clauses 7-3.05 and 7-3.06, a tenured employee has no other choice but to be reassigned to a full-time position of a cyclical or seasonal or periodic nature, he or she shall be entitled to the following income protection:

he or she shall retain the remuneration determined on the basis of his or her salary rate and the number of regular working hours applicable immediately prior to his or her assignment, for as long as the remuneration resulting from the new position is lower;

however, the difference between the remuneration resulting from the new position and that determined immediately prior to his or her assignment shall be paid in a lump sum spread over each of his or her pays; the amount shall be reduced as the employee's salary progresses.

7-3.13

The employee referred to in the preceding clause shall also benefit from the right to return mentioned in clause 7-3.09 to a full-time position which is not of a cyclical or seasonal nature.

7-3.14

When an employee refuses to accept a position offered to him or her, in the locality where he or she is assigned, in the context of the right to return, from which he or she benefits under clauses 7-3.09, 7-3.11 or 7-3.13, as the case may be, he or she shall then lose all the benefits inherent to such a right; the provisions concerning voluntary demotion prescribed in clause 6-2.15 shall apply to the employee for whom the reassignment giving rise to his or her right to return constituted a demotion; moreover:

- A) if he or she is an employee referred to in clause 7-3.10, he or she shall no longer be reassigned on a temporary basis, it shall no longer be up to the Board to complete his or her work schedule and he or she shall then be remunerated according to the hours actually worked;
- B) if he or she is an employee referred to in clause 7-3.12, he or she shall no longer benefit from the second and third paragraphs of clause 7-3.12 and shall be remunerated according to the hours actually worked.

7-3.15 Measures to Reduce the Number of Employees in SurplusA) Preretirement

For the purpose of reducing the number of employees in surplus, the Board shall grant a preretirement leave under the following terms and conditions:

- a) the preretirement leave is a leave of absence with salary for a maximum period of one (1) year; during the leave, the employee shall not be entitled to any of the benefits of the agreement except for the health and life insurance plans, provided that he or she pay at the beginning of the leave, the entire amount of the premiums required plus tax, where applicable;
- b) the preretirement leave shall count as a period of service for purposes of the pension plan covering the employee concerned;
- c) only an employee who would be entitled to retire at the end of the leave of absence but who would not have reached the normal retirement age (65 years) during the leave or who would not be entitled to a full pension during the leave is eligible;
- d) at the end of the leave with salary, the employee shall be considered as having resigned and he or she shall be pensioned off;
- e) the leave shall permit the reduction of the number of employees in surplus.

B) Severance Pay

The Board shall grant severance pay to a tenured employee if his or her resignation allows the reassignment of an employee in surplus. Acceptance of severance pay shall cause the employee to lose his or her tenure.

The Board may also grant severance pay to a tenured employee in surplus who chooses to resign. The Board shall grant severance pay to a tenured employee in surplus who refuses a position offered by the Board if the position is situated in an Inuit community and if the refusal entails the employee's resignation. In these cases, the employee concerned shall lose his or her tenure.

Severance pay shall equal one (1) month of salary per complete year of service at the time when the tenured employee resigned from the Board. Severance pay shall be limited to a maximum of six (6) months' salary. For the purpose of calculating severance pay, the salary shall be the salary the employee concerned received when he or she resigned from the Board.

The employee who receives severance pay may not be hired in the education sector during the year following that in which he or she received it, unless the severance pay is reimbursed. Severance pay may not be granted to an employee who has already received severance pay from an employer in the education sector nor to the employee who resigns because he or she refused a position.

C) Transfer of Rights

When an employee who is not in surplus is hired by another school board and his or her resignation allows the reassignment of an employee in surplus, he or she shall transfer to his or her new employer his or her status of employee, tenure, seniority, bank of nonredeemable sick-leave days, salary step and date of advancement in step.

D) Voluntary Relocation Premium

The employee placed in surplus who accepts, with another employer in the education sector, a position at more than fifty (50) kilometres by road from his or her domicile and from his or her place of work at the time of his or her placement in surplus shall be entitled to a voluntary relocation premium, if the relocation requires his or her moving.

The voluntary relocation premium shall be equal to four (4) months' salary if the relocation takes place in the territory of regional office 1, 8 or 9 and originates from the territory of a regional office other than that of his or her new place of work. In other cases, the voluntary relocation premium shall equal two (2) months' salary.

The Board shall also grant the voluntary relocation premium to the tenured employee who is not in surplus but whose relocation allows the reassignment of an employee in surplus to another employer in the education sector.

The relocated employee shall transfer to his or her new employer his or her status, tenure, seniority, bank of nonredeemable sick-leave days, salary step and date of advancement in step.

The employee relocated under paragraph D) who is required to move, shall benefit from the Board or, where applicable, from another school board which hires him or her, from the provisions of Appendix II under the terms and conditions prescribed therein.

Moreover, the employee shall be entitled to:

- 1) a maximum of three (3) working days without loss of salary to find a dwelling. The three (3)-day maximum shall not include the duration of the return trip;
- 2) a maximum of three (3) working days without loss of salary to cover the moving and settling into a new dwelling.

7-3.16 Rights and Obligations of Employees

A) Rights of Employees

- a) For as long as an employee remains in surplus, his or her salary shall progress normally.
- b) When the employee in surplus accepts a position with another school board under this clause, the employee shall not undergo a probation period.

- c) When an employee is relocated under this clause, he or she shall transfer to his or her new employer his or her status of regular employee or, as the case may be, his or her tenure, seniority, bank of nonredeemable sick-leave days, salary step and date of advancement in step.
- d) The employee relocated as a result of the application of paragraph D) of clause 7-3.15 or subparagraph e) of paragraph B) of this clause and who is required to move shall benefit from the Board or, where applicable, from another school board which hires him or her, from the provisions of Appendix II under the terms and conditions prescribed therein, provided that the allowances prescribed in the federal mobility assistance program to look for employment do not apply.

B) Obligations of Employees

- a) An employee in surplus with the Board who is offered a full-time position with the Board must accept it. If the position offered is situated in a school, the Board must obtain the approval of the local Education Committee.

The employee who holds a periodic position, at the time of his or her placement in surplus, must accept a position in which the regular work year is at least equal to his or her own at the time of his or her placement in surplus. If the position offered is situated in a school, the Board must obtain the approval of the local Education Committee.

Moreover, the employee in surplus to whom the Board or another employer in the education sector is offered a full-time position within a fifty (50)-kilometre radius by road from his or her usual place of work or residence at the time of his or her placement in surplus must accept it in the following situations:

- 1- in the case of an employee whose regular working hours were, when he or she was placed in surplus, less than the regular workweek:
 - if the regular working hours of the position offered by his or her Board or another employer in the education sector are at least equal to those of the position he or she held when he or she was placed in surplus;
- 2- in the case of an employee whose regular working hours were, when he or she was placed in surplus, equal to or greater than his or her regular workweek;
 - if the regular working hours of the position offered by his or her Board or another employer in the education sector are at least equal to the regular workweek;
- 3- in the case of an employee holding, when he or she was placed in surplus, a periodic position:
 - if the regular working hours of the position offered by his or her Board or another employer in the education sector are at least equal to his or her own at the time of his or her placement in surplus.

The third paragraph of clause 7-3.16 B) a) applies as long as there are employees assigned in the city of Montréal.

In the cases where an employee must accept a position, he or she shall benefit from clauses 7-3.08 and 7-3.09, where applicable, and clause 7-3.14 applies.

An employee in surplus who willingly accepts any other position offered to him or her shall benefit, where applicable, from clauses 7-3.08, 7-3.09, 7-3.10 and 7-3.11, as the case may be, and clause 7-3.14 applies.

Failure to accept a position so offered within ten (10) days of the written offer shall constitute the employee's resignation.

- b) The employee in surplus must appear for an interview with another school board when the Regional Placement Bureau so requests. The employee who fails or neglects to comply with this obligation shall be deemed to have resigned.
 - c) The employee in surplus must provide, upon request, any information relevant to his or her security of employment.
 - d) As long as the employee remains in surplus, he or she shall be required to perform the support staff duties that the Board assigns him or her compatible with his or her qualifications, regardless of the certificate of accreditation, class of employment and work schedule which applied to the employee on the date of his or her placement in surplus.
 - e) The nontenured regular employee who has completed at least one year of active service as a regular employee and who is laid off as a result of the abolishment of a position shall remain on the lists of the Regional Placement Bureau for a maximum period of two (2) years. During that period, he or she must accept a written offer of employment which the Board or another school board in the territory of the same regional office could make him or her within ten (10) days of the written offer of employment. Failure to accept such a written offer of employment shall entail the removal of his or her name from the lists of the Regional Placement Bureau.
- C) Shall constitute prima facie proof for calculating the deadlines prescribed in this clause:
- a) the date of the signature of the employee or of a witness when the document is delivered by hand; or
 - b) the date of the signature of the post office receipt of the documents sent by registered mail; or
 - c) the date of the transmittal by fax;
 - d) the date of service by a bailiff.

Obligations of the Board

7-3.17

When the Board must proceed with a hiring to fill a vacant full-time position other than a temporarily vacant position, it may submit a request to the Regional Placement Bureau serving its territory and shall specify the class of employment and the requirements of the position to be filled.

The Board which hires a person referred by the Regional Placement Bureau shall recognize his or her status of regular employee or, as the case may be, his or her tenure, bank of nonredeemable sick-leave days, salary step, date of advancement in step and the seniority which he or she had upon his or her departure.

The Board must inform the Regional Placement Bureau of the names of the employees it is placing in surplus as well as the names of the nontenured regular employees who have completed at least one (1) year of active service whom it is laying off.

If another school board assumes the responsibility for instruction to children with social maladjustments or learning difficulties or for instruction to students of a given grade or option, under section 450 of the Education Act for the Native Cree, Inuit and Naskapi (R.S.Q., c. I-14), the regular employee or the tenured employee who would be affected by a reduction in personnel as regards the major portion of his or her work shall be required to transfer to the other school board.

However, with the agreement of the board which no longer provides the instruction, the regular employee or tenured employee may remain in the employ of that board provided that no layoff or placement in surplus of regular employees or tenured employees occurs because of the agreement.

However, as of the anniversary on which the responsibility for the instruction was assumed, the school board which assumed it may proceed with one or more layoffs or, as the case may be, one or more placements in surplus.

7-3.19

Upon request, the Regional Placement Bureau shall forward to the Union, a statement of the positions to be filled by means of hiring as well as a statement of the employees in surplus and of laid off regular employees registered on the lists; the lists shall be forwarded only if they are available.

7-3.20 Place of Work

For the purpose of applying article 7-3.00, a place of work means the place of work where an employee usually performs his or her duties; however, in the case where an employee usually performs his or her duties in several locations, the place of work means the location where he or she generally receives his or her instructions and where he or she must report on his or her activities.

For the purposes of applying article 7-3.00, Montréal and each of the Inuit communities where the Board provides instruction shall each constitute a distinct locality.

The employee who is a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement and who is placed in surplus under this article may inform the Board in writing, within fifteen (15) days following his or her placement in surplus, that he or she would accept to be assigned only to his or her locality of assignment in Nunavik. In this case, the employee concerned shall benefit from the following provisions:

- A) the Board and the Ministère on the one hand and the union group on the other hand shall form a committee to study the case of the employee referred to in this clause. The union group shall appoint a representative and the Board and the Ministère shall each appoint a representative to the committee. The management group shall have a right to veto on the committee;
- B) the committee may apply one of the following possible options with regard to the employee concerned, following consultation with him or her:
 - a) a retraining program for a maximum duration of one year to allow the employee concerned to fill a preidentified position with the Board in his or her locality of assignment in Nunavik, insofar as the position could be made available;
 - b) a retraining program of a maximum duration of one year to allow the employee concerned to fill a preidentified position with another employer in his or her locality of assignment in Nunavik, insofar as the position could be made available;
 - c) any other solution or program determined by the committee. Should more than one option be available, it shall be up to the employee to choose that which he or she finds most suitable among the options proposed by the committee.
- C) Under the application of subparagraphs a) or b) of paragraph B) above, the employee concerned shall remain in surplus for the duration of his or her retraining program, shall be required to follow this retraining program, and shall not be eligible for severance pay. Upon completion of the retraining program, the employee who did not successfully complete the program is presumed to have resigned from the Board and he or she shall lose all the benefits of the agreement. The employee who has successfully completed the retraining program must accept the preidentified position with the Board or another employer, as the case may be. In this latter case, his or her employment tie with the Board shall be severed and the employee concerned shall not be eligible for any severance pay.

- D) Under subparagraph c) of paragraph B) above, the committee shall determine the terms and conditions applicable to the employee.
- E) If the committee prescribed in paragraph A) does not apply one of the options prescribed in paragraph B) to the employee concerned, the following provisions shall then apply to the employee concerned:
- a) the employee shall remain in surplus and the provisions of clause 7-3.16 shall apply to him or her, except that the employee is required to accept only a full-time position with the Board situated in his or her locality of assignment in Nunavik;
 - b) if the employee concerned is not relocated to a full-time position with the Board within the year following his or her placement in surplus, his or her employment tie with the Board shall then be automatically severed and he or she shall then be eligible for severance pay as provided in paragraph B) of clause 7-3.15;
 - c) the regular tenured employee whose employment tie has been severed and who has received severance pay under subparagraph b) of this paragraph E) shall have a right to recall on the position he or she held in his or her locality of assignment in Nunavik at the time of his or her placement in surplus if the Board decides to recreate this position within twelve (12) months following the severance of his or her employment tie. In order to benefit from this right to recall, the employee concerned must reimburse, where applicable, the amount of the severance pay he or she received to the Board, less the amount corresponding to the total number of complete months elapsed between the date of severance of the employment tie and his or her recall.

7-4.01

The tenured employee affected by a permanent partial physical disability and who is therefore unable to meet the requirements of his or her position may, under article 7-1.00, obtain another position provided that there is an available position that the Board intends to fill and that he or she possesses the required qualifications and meets the other requirements determined by the Board. He or she shall then receive the salary prescribed for his or her new position.

7-4.02

The right mentioned in the preceding clause may be exercised during the period during which the tenured employee benefits from the salary insurance plan prescribed in clause 5-3.32.

The right may also be exercised within twenty-four (24) months of the date on which the tenured employee is laid off by the Board, where applicable, as a result of his or her physical disability to meet the requirements of his or her former position. During the layoff, the tenured employee shall not receive any salary.

Upon termination of the twenty-four (24)-month period mentioned in the preceding paragraph, the Board may terminate the employee's employment.

7-4.03

As of the date on which the employee referred to in clause 7-4.01 becomes unable to meet on a permanent basis the requirements of his or her position, the position shall then be considered as permanently vacant unless it was abolished under article 7-3.00.

7-4.04

The Board and the Union may agree on other terms and conditions in order to modify a position or assign a position to an employee affected by a permanent partial physical disability, provided that this does not have the effect of modifying the provisions concerning security of employment.

7-4.05

This article, with the exception of the first paragraph of clause 7-4.02, shall apply to the tenured employee referred to in clause 7-8.18 of the agreement who was unable to resume a suitable position under clause 7-8.20.

7-5.00 CONTRACTING OUT7-5.01

Contracting out must not cause layoffs, placements in surplus or demotions involving a decrease in salary among the regular employees of the Board nor a reduction in a regular employee's hours.

At the Union's request, the Board shall inform the Union on an annual basis of the subcontracts of a continuous nature related to the classes of employment covered by the certificate of accreditation.

7-6.00 REPLACEMENT7-6.01

Notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter, the Board may place in surplus a tenured employee who is not a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement or lay off a nontenured employee who is not a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement, if a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement who possesses the required qualifications and meets the other requirements determined by the Board is hired by the Board to fill the position held by the employee who is not a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement.

When the Board decides to replace an employee who is not a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement by a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement, it shall offer the position, as a priority, under clause 7-1.06, to the employees already in its employ.

When the Board replaces an employee who is not a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement in a locality¹ determined by the Board, pursuant to the preceding paragraphs, the employee thus replaced is the employee who is not a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement and who has the least seniority in the locality¹ from among the employees who are not beneficiaries under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement in the locality¹ in the class of employment in which the replacement is carried out.

However, the replacement of an employee who is not a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement cannot be carried out in a locality¹ where there is a full-time vacant position in the class of employment in which the replacement is carried out and which the Board intends to fill.

The nontenured employee who is not a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement and who is replaced by a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement pursuant to clause 7-6.01 shall benefit from the provisions of paragraph A) or B) of clause 7-3.05 and, as the case may be, of clauses 7-3.06, 7-3.07, subparagraph e) of paragraph B) of clause 7-3.16 and of clause 7-3.20 as if his or her position had been abolished.

The name of the nontenured regular employee who is laid off in the context of a replacement carried out under this article shall be registered on the list of the Regional Placement Bureau until the earlier of the following dates:

- A) the date on which he or she accepts or refuses a position offered by the Board or another employer in the education sector;

¹ Within the meaning of article 7-3.00

B) the anniversary date of the third year of his or her layoff.

7-6.03

The tenured employee who is not a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement and who is replaced by a beneficiary under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement pursuant to clause 7-6.01 shall benefit from the provisions of paragraph C) of clause 7-3.05 and of clauses 7-3.06 to 7-3.20 as if his or her position had been abolished.

7-7.00 MOVE

7-7.01

In the event of the move of a department, part of a department or several departments of the Board from Montréal to one of the communities situated in Nunavik, the procedure outlined in this article shall apply.

7-7.02

The Board must notify in writing the Union and the employees concerned, at least twelve (12) months before the date set for the move of a department, part of a department or several departments from Montréal to one of the communities situated in Nunavik. The notice to the Union must indicate the names of the employees affected by the move.

At the request of the Union or of the employees concerned and following the notices prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the Board shall organize an information session for the employees concerned to inform them of the terms and conditions of the move.

7-7.03

Employees affected by a move, as prescribed in this article, shall be on the date set for the move reassigned to a position in the same class of employment in the community situated in Nunavik to which their department or part of department is moving. The employee who accepts to be reassigned shall be reimbursed by the Board for the moving expenses prescribed in article 1, the second paragraph of article 2, articles 6 to 12 and article 14 of Appendix II under the conditions mentioned therein as well as in clauses 6-6.07 to 6-6.12.

The employee who does not wish to be reassigned pursuant to clause 7-7.03 must notify the Board to this effect in writing within ninety (90) days of the notice sent to him or her under clause 7-7.02. Failing to so notify the Board, the employee shall be reassigned pursuant to clause 7-7.03.

The regular employee who will have completed at least one year of active service as a regular employee on the date set for the move and who informs the Board that he or she does not wish to be reassigned shall be registered, as of that date, on the lists of the Regional Placement Bureau for a maximum period of three (3) years. During that period, he or she shall be obliged to accept a written offer of employment in Montréal that could be made to him or her by the Board or by another employer in the education sector if the position is situated within a fifty (50)-kilometre radius by road from his or her usual place of work or residence at the time when the employee informs the Board under the preceding paragraph, within ten (10) days of the written offer of employment. If he or she does not accept the written offer, his or her name shall be removed from the lists of the Regional Placement Bureau and the employee shall be considered as having resigned from the Board as of the refusal if he or she is still in the employ of the Board on that date.

After receiving the notice prescribed in clause 7-7.04:

- A) within thirty (30) days of the maximum time limit of ninety (90) days prescribed in clause 7-7.04, the Board shall provide the Union with the list of employees who have accepted to be reassigned to Nunavik and the list of employees who have refused to be reassigned to Nunavik as well as their options under clause 7-7.06;
- B) within fifteen (15) days of forwarding to the Union the list of employees who have accepted or refused to be reassigned and, at the request of the Union, the Board shall meet with it in order to consult it on the application of the movement of personnel ensuing from the application of clause 7-7.06;
- C) within sixty (60) days of the maximum time limit of ninety (90) days prescribed in clause 7-7.04, the Board shall inform the employee in writing of his or her options under clause 7-7.06;
- D) within fifteen (15) days of receiving the notice prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the employee shall convey his or her decision in writing to the Board.

Any other employee who has options under clause 7-7.06 must receive the notice prescribed in paragraph C) of this clause within thirty (30) days of the response prescribed in paragraph D) of this clause. The employee concerned shall convey his or her decision in writing to the Board within the time limit prescribed in paragraph D) of this clause.

The following provisions shall apply to the employee who refuses to be reassigned to Nunavik pursuant to clause 7-7.04 and to the employee who is displaced as a result of the application of this clause:

- A) if he or she is a probationary employee:
 - a) the Board shall terminate his or her employment as of the date on which his or her department is moving;
 - b) he or she shall receive a notice equivalent in duration to at least one pay period;
- B) if he or she is a nontenured regular employee:
 - a) if there is a vacant position in his or her class of employment in Montréal that the Board intends to fill, but in another department or part of a department that is not moving, he or she shall be reassigned to the vacant position, subject to the application of paragraphs A) and B) of clause 7-1.03;
 - b) failing this, he or she shall displace the employee with the least seniority in his or her class of employment in Montréal, but in another department or part of a department that is not moving;
 - c) failing this, if there is a vacant position in another class of employment in Montréal that the Board intends to fill, but in another department or part of a department that is not moving, he or she shall be reassigned to the position, subject to the application of paragraphs A) and B) of clause 7-1.03;
 - d) failing this, he or she shall displace the employee with the least seniority in another class of employment in Montréal, but in another department or part of a department that is not moving;
 - e) failing this, he or she shall be laid off as of the date on which his or her department is moving;

- f) subject to the second paragraph of clause 7-7.04, the employee shall benefit from the right to recall under paragraph D) of clause 7-1.03 and he or she shall be registered on the priority of employment list prescribed in clause 7-1.18.

Paragraphs B), C), D), E), F) and G) of clause 7-3.06, with the necessary changes, shall apply to paragraph B).

- C) if he or she is a tenured regular employee:

- a) If there is a full-time vacant position in his or her class of employment in Montréal that the Board intends to fill, but in another department or part of a department that is not moving, he or she shall be reassigned to the vacant position. The reassignment shall be carried out prior to applying clause 7-1.03;
- b) failing this, he or she may, at his or her choice, either displace the employee with the least seniority in a full-time position in his or her class of employment in Montréal, but in another department or part of a department that is not moving or receive the severance pay prescribed in the following subparagraph e);
- c) failing this, if there is a vacant full-time position in another class of employment in Montréal that the Board intends to fill but in another department or part of a department that is not moving, he or she may, at his or her choice, either be reassigned to the position or receive the severance pay prescribed in the following subparagraph e). The reassignment shall be carried out prior to applying clause 7-1.03;
- d) failing this, he or she shall, at his or her choice, either displace the employee with the least seniority in a full-time position in another class of employment in Montréal but in another department or part of a department that is not moving or receive the severance pay prescribed in the following subparagraph e);
- e) the employee who cannot benefit from the preceding provisions or who, as the case may be, chooses not to, and opts for the severance pay shall be laid off as of the date on which his or her department is moving and shall then receive severance pay equivalent to one (1) month's salary per complete year of service with the Board at the time when he or she is laid off under this subparagraph. Severance pay shall be limited to a maximum of twelve (12) months' salary. For the purpose of calculating the severance pay, the salary shall be the salary the employee receives when he or she is laid off under this subparagraph. The Board and the Union may agree on the terms and conditions for the payment of the severance pay.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the employee who has fewer than five (5) complete years of service with the Board when he or she is laid off under this subparagraph e) shall receive severance pay equal to two (2) months' salary per complete year of service with the Board. In this case, severance pay shall be limited to a maximum of six (6) months;

- f) notwithstanding the preceding subparagraph e) and subject to clause 7-7.10, the employee who, on the date on which his or her position is moving to one of the locality situated in Nunavik, has five (5) years but fewer than ten (10) complete years of service with the Board may benefit from the provisions of paragraphs A), C) and D) of clause 7-3.15 and clause 7-3.16 as if he or she were in surplus for a period of one (1) year as of the date of his or her layoff under subparagraph e).

The employee who has ten (10) or more complete years of service with the Board may benefit from the provisions of paragraphs A), C) and D) of clause 7-3.15 and clause 7-3.16 as if he or she were in surplus for a period of two (2) years as of the date of his or her layoff under subparagraph e).

Failing to relocate the employee during the period he or she is placed in surplus, he or she shall be laid off and shall receive severance pay under the preceding paragraph.

Under this subparagraph f), the employee in surplus shall perform the duties of his or her class of employment.

Paragraphs B), C), D), E), F) and G) of clause 7-3.06, with the necessary changes, shall apply to paragraph C).

D) Salary Guarantee

- a) The employee who, in the context of this article, displaces another employee in a position which constitutes a demotion, shall retain the salary of his or her original class of employment for a period of three (3) years (thirty-six (36) months) from the date set for the move in accordance with the following provisions:
- 1- the positive difference between the salary of his or her new class of employment and the salary the employee concerned was receiving before the date set for the move shall be made up by a lump-sum amount spread over each pay;

 - 3- as of the fourth year (thirty-seventh (37th) month) of the date of the move of his or her position, the employee concerned may, at his or her choice, either remain in the employ of the Board and receive the salary of his or her new class of employment or receive the severance pay prescribed in subparagraph e) of the preceding paragraph C);
 - 4- notwithstanding the foregoing, the employee who displaces another employee and who subsequently accepts to be reassigned to one of the communities situated in Nunavik shall receive the salary of his or her class of employment in the community situated in Nunavik as of the date of the reassignment.
- b) Notwithstanding subparagraph e) of the preceding paragraph C), severance pay shall be calculated according to the salary of the original class of employment of the employee referred to in the preceding subparagraph a) at the time when he or she received a first notice under clause 7-7.02, taking into account the evolution of the salary either through advancement in step or an increase in the salary scale or both, if need be.

7-7.07

The Board undertakes to ensure the welcome in the Nunavik community concerned of the employee who moves as a result of the application of this article.

- a) an employee may receive the severance pay prescribed in this article only once;
- b) severance pay shall be paid provided that the employee not hold a position with an employer in the education sector for a one-year period as of the payment of severance pay. - c) the Board and the Union may agree on the terms and conditions for the payment of severance pay.

The following provisions shall apply to the period during which the employee is placed in surplus as prescribed in subparagraph f) of paragraph C) of clause 7-7.06:

- A) The employee placed in surplus under this clause may be assigned temporarily for the period during which he or she is placed in surplus to the same duties and responsibilities he or she performed before the move. Miscellaneous Provisions

7-8.04

The employee must inform the Board of the details concerning the work accident or employment injury before leaving the establishment where he or she works, if he or she is able to do so or, if not, as soon as possible. Moreover, he or she shall provide a medical certificate to the Board in conformity with the Act, if the employment injury which he or she suffers renders him or her unable to perform his or her duties after the day on which it manifested itself.

7-8.05

The Board shall inform the Union of every work accident or occupational disease which an employee has suffered or contracted as soon as it is brought to its attention.

7-8.06

The employee may be accompanied by a union representative to any meeting with the Board concerning an employment injury which he or she suffers; in this case, the union representative may temporarily interrupt his or her work, without loss of salary, including applicable premiums, if any, or reimbursement, after having obtained the authorization of his or her immediate superior; the authorization cannot be refused without a valid reason.

7-8.07

The Board must immediately give first aid to an employee who has suffered an employment injury and, if need be, provide transportation to a health establishment, a health professional or to the employee's residence as required by his or her condition.

The cost of transportation of the employee, if applicable, shall be assumed by the Board as long as it has not been assumed by another organization.

If possible, the employee shall choose the health establishment; if the employee is unable to express his or her choice, he or she must accept the health establishment chosen by the Board but may later be transferred to a health establishment of his or her choice.

The employee shall be entitled to receive care from the health professional of his or her choice.

7-8.08

Notwithstanding clause 5-3.38, the Board may, stating the reasons for doing so, require that an employee who has suffered an employment injury undergo an examination by a health professional that it designates in accordance with the law. The Board shall assume the cost of the examination and the travel expenses prescribed in clause 6-4.01.

Group Plans

7-8.09

The employee who suffers an employment injury entitling him or her to an income replacement indemnity shall remain covered by the life insurance plan prescribed in clauses 5-3.22 and 5-3.23 and by the health insurance plan prescribed in clause 5-3.24.

The employee shall benefit, without losing any rights, from the waiver of his or her contributions to the pension plan (TPP, RREGOP, CSSP). The provisions concerning the waiver of the contributions shall form an integral part of the pension plan provisions and the resulting costs shall be shared as is the case with any other benefit.

The waiver mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall no longer apply when the employment injury has consolidated or the employee is assigned temporarily as prescribed in clause 7-8.15.

In the case where the date of consolidation of the employment injury is prior to the 104th week following the date of the beginning of the continuous period of absence due to an employment injury, the salary insurance plan prescribed in clause 5-3.32 shall apply, subject to the second paragraph of this clause, if the employee is still disabled within the meaning of clause 5-3.03 and, in this case, the date of the beginning of the absence shall be considered as the date of the beginning of the disability for the purposes of applying the salary insurance plan, particularly clauses 5-3.32 and 5-3.45.

On the other hand, for the employee who would receive from the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail an income replacement indemnity which is less than the benefit which he or she would have received as a result of the application of clause 5-3.32, the salary insurance plan prescribed in this clause shall apply to make up the difference if the employee is still disabled within the meaning of clause 5-3.03 and, in this case, the date of the beginning of the absence shall be considered as the date of the beginning of the disability for the purposes of applying the salary insurance plan, particularly clauses 5-3.32 and 5-3.45.

An employees' bank of sick-leave days shall not be reduced for the days for which the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail has paid an income replacement indemnity until the employment injury has consolidated and for the absences prescribed in clause 7-8.24. This shall also apply to the part of the day on which the employment injury manifests itself.

Salary

For as long as an employee is entitled to the income replacement indemnity but no later than the date of consolidation of the employment injury he or she has suffered, he or she shall be entitled to his or her salary as if he or she were at work subject to the following provisions:

his or her gross taxable salary shall be determined in the following manner: the Board shall deduct the equivalent of all amounts required by law and the agreement, if need be; the net salary thus obtained shall be reduced by the income replacement indemnity and the difference shall be brought to a gross taxable salary on the basis of which the Board shall deduct all amounts, contributions and benefits required by law and the agreement.

For purposes of this clause, the salary to which an employee is entitled shall include the premiums for regional disparities prescribed in article 6-6.00, if applicable.

7-8.13

Subject to clause 7-8.12, the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail shall reimburse the Board the amount corresponding to the income replacement indemnity of the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail.

The employee must sign the forms required for the reimbursement. The waiver shall be valid only for the period during which the Board has agreed to pay the benefits.

An employee who is required to appear before a review office, a medical arbitration board or the Commission des lésions professionnelles shall after having notified his or her immediate superior at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the absence and submitting written proof to this effect be granted permission to the absent without loss of salary.

Right to Return to Work

7-8.14

An employee who is informed by his or her physician of the date of consolidation of the employment injury he or she has suffered and of the fact that he or she will retain a certain degree of functional disability, or that he or she will retain no such disability, shall so inform the Board without delay.

7-8.15

If the employee's attending physician agrees, the Board may temporarily assign work to an employee while awaiting the employee to again become able to resume his or her position, an equivalent position or a suitable position, even if his or her employment injury has not consolidated, the foregoing as prescribed by law.

7-8.16

The employee whose employment injury has consolidated and who is again able to carry out the duties of the position he or she had prior to his or her absence shall be reinstated in his or her position.

7-8.17

The employee referred to in the preceding clause who is unable to return to his or her position either because it was abolished or the employee was displaced as a result of the application of the agreement shall be entitled to be reinstated in an available equivalent position that the Board intends to fill insofar as he or she is entitled to obtain the position as a result of the application of article 7-3.00 of the agreement.

7-8.18

An employee who, although unable to resume his or her duties because of an employment injury but who may be able to use his or her remaining ability and his or her qualifications to work, shall be entitled to hold a suitable available position that the Board intends to fill under clause 7-8.20.

The rights mentioned in clauses 7-8.16, 7-8.17 and 7-8.18 shall apply subject to article 7-3.00.

When the Board does not allow an employee to exercise the rights mentioned in clauses 7-8.16, 7-8.17 and 7-8.18 because the employee would have been displaced, placed in surplus, laid off, dismissed, fired or would have otherwise lost his or her employment had he or she been at work, the relevant provisions of the agreement shall apply as if the employee had been at work when those events occurred; moreover, the exercise of these rights cannot have the effect of cancelling or deferring any suspension imposed under article 8-4.00 of the agreement.

The exercise of the right mentioned in clause 7-8.18 shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

- A) the position must be filled under clause 7-1.03 of the agreement, subject to any provision contained in this clause;
- B) the employee shall submit his or her application in writing;

- C) as of the first step prescribed in clause 7-1.03, the employee shall obtain the position if he or she has more seniority than the other employees or persons concerned;
- D) the employee must possess the required qualifications and meet the other requirements determined by the Board;
- E) access to the position by the employee cannot constitute a promotion, except in step C) of clause 7-1.03;
- F) the right of the employee can be exercised only during the two (2) years immediately following the beginning of his or her absence or in the year following the date of consolidation according to whichever date is later.

However, the Board and the Union may agree on terms and conditions for the exercise of the right mentioned in clause 7-8.18 other than those prescribed in this clause, provided that this does not have the effect of modifying the provisions concerning security of employment; notably, the Board and the Union may agree on a special movement of personnel concerning priority of employment.

7-8.21

The employee who obtains a position referred to in clause 7-8.18 shall benefit from an adaptation period of thirty (30) working days; at the end of that period, the employee cannot keep the position if the Board deems he or she is unable to perform his or her duties adequately.

When the employee is thus unable to keep his or her position, he or she shall again become eligible for a position under clause 7-8.18, as if he or she had never exercised the right mentioned in this clause.

7-8.22

The employee who obtains a position referred to in clause 7-8.17 shall receive the salary he or she had before suffering an employment injury.

The employee who obtains a position referred to in clause 7-8.18 shall receive the salary related to his or her new position or, in the case of a demotion, shall benefit from the provisions of paragraph B) of clause 6-2.15.

The amounts to be paid to the employee under paragraph B) of clause 6-2.15 shall be reduced by an amount equal to any income replacement indemnity paid to him or her.

7-8.24

Once the employee who has suffered an employment injury returns to work, the Board shall pay him or her his or her salary, as well as the premiums for regional disparities prescribed in article 6-6.00 of the agreement to which he or she is entitled, as the case may be, for each day or part of day during which he or she must be absent from work to receive treatment or undergo medical examinations related to the employment injury or to carry out an activity of his or her personal rehabilitation program.

The employee who is in the service of the Board on the date of the coming into force of the agreement shall retain the seniority already acquired on that date according to the calculation prescribed in article 8-1.00 of the former collective agreement.

As of the date of the coming into force of the agreement, seniority shall be calculated under this article.

Seniority shall correspond to the period of employment of the regular employee, as of the commencement of employment in one of the positions of the classes of employment prescribed in the Classification Plan, with the Board or the school board or the school boards (institutions) to which the Board is the successor and it shall be expressed in years, months and days.

The seniority of a support staff member in the employ of the Board who is not covered by this agreement shall correspond to his or her period of employment with the Board. The seniority may be used to integrate a position for the purposes of the movement of personnel or reduction of personnel.

The seniority of an employee who belongs to a group of employees different from that mentioned above and who is integrated into a position belonging to one of the classes of employment prescribed in the Classification Plan and covered by accreditation shall correspond to his or her period of employment with the Board. However, the seniority cannot be used to integrate an employee into one of the classes of employment prescribed in the Classification Plan nor for the purposes of movement of personnel or staff reduction.

The regular employee shall retain and accumulate his or her seniority in the following cases:

- A) when he or she is in active service;
- B) when he or she is on a leave of absence with salary as prescribed in the agreement;
- C) when he or she is absent from work because of a work accident or an occupational disease;
- D) when he or she is absent from work because of an accident or illness other than a work accident or an occupational disease for a period not exceeding twenty-four (24) months;
- E) in the other cases where a provision of the agreement specifically provides for it;
- F) when he or she is on a leave of absence without salary for union activities or studies. However, if he or she applies for a vacant position during his or her leave and obtains it, he or she must return to work and his or her leave without salary shall then be cancelled, if it is for a period of more than four (4) months;
- G) when he or she is temporarily laid off due to a cyclical slowdown or seasonal shutdown of activities in his or her sector;
- H) during a leave prescribed in article 5-4.00;
- I) when he or she is on leave of absence without salary for a period of one (1) month or less.

8-1.04

The regular employee shall retain but not accumulate his or her seniority in the following cases:

- A) when he or she is on a leave of absence without salary for more than one (1) month, unless there is a specific provision to the contrary in the agreement;
- B) when he or she is laid off for a period not exceeding twenty-four (24) months;
- C) when he or she is absent from work because of an illness or accident other than a work accident or an occupational disease for more than twenty-four (24) months.

8-1.05

A regular employee shall lose his or her seniority in the following cases:

- A) when his or her employment is permanently terminated;
- B) when he or she is laid off for a period of over twenty-four (24) months;
- C) when he or she refuses or fails to return to work without a valid reason within the ten (10) days which follow a recall to work by registered letter or fax sent to his or her last known address.

8-1.06

Within sixty (60) days of the date of the signing of the agreement, the Board shall forward to the Union the list of seniority of employees recognized in the first paragraph of clause 8-1.01; the seniority indicated on the list and acquired as of the June 30 preceding the date of the coming into force of the agreement cannot be contested by means of a grievance, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary.

8-1.07

The Board shall post the list in its establishments for a period of forty-five (45) days.

8-1.08

Any alleged error in the seniority list may be the subject of a grievance which may be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the procedure for settling grievances and arbitration.

8-1.09

The posted seniority list shall become official upon the expiry of the posting period, subject to the changes resulting from a grievance submitted before the list becomes official. Any revision requested after the list becomes official cannot have any retroactive effect prior to the filing of a grievance concerning the list.

8-1.10

No later than November 30 of each year, the Board shall update the seniority list and shall post the list for a period of forty-five (45) days. Seniority shall be computed as of the preceding June 30 and a copy shall be sent to the Union.

8-1.11

When the Board posts the seniority list, it shall forward a copy thereof to the employee who is absent for the first four (4) weeks of the posting; this, however, cannot have the effect of preventing the seniority list from becoming official nor delaying or extending the posting period.

8-1.12

Clauses 8-1.08 and 8-1.09 shall apply as a result of each updating of the seniority list.

8-1.13

When an employee acquires the status of a regular employee, the Board shall inform him or her in writing of the seniority he or she has accumulated on that date and shall send a copy to the Union.

8-1.14

Every period worked on behalf of the Board as an employee referred to in clause 1-2.36 before acquiring that status, shall be recognized for purposes of seniority, retroactive to the date of his or her first hiring, unless there has been an interruption in his or her employment of more than twenty-four (24) months, in which case the time worked before the interruption shall not be counted.

The period worked shall be calculated in proportion to the regular working hours.

The seniority of a regular employee who holds a part-time position shall be calculated in proportion to his or her regular weekly working hours compared to the working hours of the regular workweek prescribed in clause 8-2.01, 8-2.02, 8-2.03 or 8-2.04, as the case may be, and shall accumulate under this article.

8-2.00 WORKWEEK AND WORKING HOURS8-2.01 Categories of Technical and Paratechnical Support and Administrative Support Positions

The regular workweek shall be comprised of thirty-five (35) hours, divided from Monday to Friday, followed by two (2) consecutive days off. The duration of the regular working day shall be seven (7) hours.

8-2.02 Category of Labour Support Positions

The regular workweek shall be comprised of thirty-eight hours and forty-five minutes (38 h 45 min), divided from Monday to Friday, followed by two (2) consecutive days off. The duration of the regular working day shall be seven hours and forty-five minutes (7 h 45 min).

Notwithstanding clause 8-2.01 or 8-2.02, for certain classes of employment such as stationary engineer or guard, the regular workweek may be divided differently according to the department's needs, subject to clauses 8-2.06 and 8-2.07. It is agreed that any schedule which obliges an employee to work on Saturday or Sunday shall include two (2) consecutive days off.

The regular workweek of the employees of the warehouse of the Board situated in Montréal (technical and paratechnical, administrative and labour support) who, on the date of the signing of this agreement, have a forty (40)-hour regular workweek shall maintain such a regular workweek. However, the Board may apply to these employees the regular workweek prescribed in clause 8-2.01 or 8-2.02, as the case may be, by sending a written notice to this effect to the employees concerned at least two (2) months before implementing the new regular workweek.

In the case where the employee has a different number of weekly working hours, the salary scales shall apply in proportion to the regular hours worked in relation to those prescribed in clause 8-2.01 or 8-2.02, as the case may be.

8-2.05

The employee shall be entitled to a fifteen (15)-minute rest period with salary, per half day of work, which is to be taken towards the middle of the period. The employee shall also be entitled to a minimum of one (1) hour without salary to have a meal during the course of his or her working day.

8-2.06

The Board shall maintain the work schedules in effect on the date of the coming into force of the agreement.

8-2.07

The work schedules may be altered after written agreement between the Union and the Board. However, the Board may alter the existing schedules if administrative or pedagogical needs make the changes necessary. The Board shall give the Union and the employee concerned a written notice of at least thirty (30) days before implementing the new schedule. An employee or the Union may, within thirty (30) working days of sending the notice, resort to the procedure for settling grievances and for arbitration.

When the arbitration roll is prepared, the grievance shall be given hearing priority.

At the time of arbitration, the burden of proof lies with the Board. The arbitrator's mandate shall be to decide whether the changes were reasonable; if they were not, the Board must return to the former schedules and shall pay the employees at the overtime rate prescribed in article 8-3.00 for all the hours worked outside their regular schedule.

Unless there is a written agreement between the Union and the Board, no modification may cause an employee to work split shifts.

8-2.08

The Board and the Union may, for the purpose of establishing a summer work schedule for the employees, agree to a different distribution of the regular work schedule as long as the distribution does not cause a reduction in the number of hours of the regular workweek.

Moreover, the Labour Relations Committee may agree to renew the summer schedule which prevailed in previous years.

8-2.09

When the work schedule of the special education technician or interpreter-technician must include, on a daily basis, time when the students are not present. The time shall be devoted to the preparation, organization and planning of team meetings as well as the follow-up with parents and persons concerned.

8-3.00 OVERTIME8-3.01

Any work specifically required by the immediate superior and performed by an employee, in addition to the hours of his or her regular workweek or regular working day or outside the hours prescribed by his or her schedule, shall be considered as overtime.

8-3.02

Overtime shall be assigned to the employee who started the work. If the work is not started during the regular working hours, it shall be given to an employee whose class of employment corresponds to the work to be performed.

8-3.03

If the overtime work can be performed by more than one employee in a class of employment, the Board shall attempt to distribute it as equitably as possible among the employees in the same office, school or territorial division.

8-3.04

For the overtime carried out, the employee shall be entitled to:

- A) for all the hours worked in addition to the number of hours of his or her regular working day or outside of the hours prescribed in his or her schedule and during a weekly day off: a leave of a duration equal to one and a half (1 1/2) the time actually worked as overtime;
- B) for all the hours worked during a paid legal holiday prescribed in the agreement in addition to his or her salary for the paid legal holiday: a leave of a duration equal to one and a half (1 1/2) the time actually worked as overtime;
- C) for all the hours worked on Sunday or during the second weekly day off: a leave of a duration equal to double the time actually worked as overtime.

The Board and the employee shall agree on the terms and conditions for applying the preceding clause by taking into account the requirements of the department; failing an agreement between the Board and the employee, within sixty (60) days of the date on which the overtime work was carried out, on the time when the leave prescribed in subparagraphs A), B) and C) of the preceding clause may be taken, the overtime shall be remunerated according to the rates prescribed in clause 8-3.06.

When the Board and the employee have agreed on the time when the leave is to be taken but it cannot be taken at that time either due to the needs of the department or due to circumstances beyond the employee's control, the employee shall then choose to either have the overtime remunerated according to the rates prescribed in clause 8-3.06 or take it in time off under subparagraphs A), B) and C) of clause 8-3.04; in this latter case, the Board and the employee shall agree on the time when the leave may be taken.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board and the employee may agree that the overtime be remunerated according to the following rates:

- A) at the basic hourly rate increased by one half (one hundred and fifty percent (150%)) in the cases prescribed in paragraphs A) and B) of clause 8-3.04;
- B) at double the hourly rate (two hundred percent (200%)) in the cases prescribed in paragraph C) of clause 8-3.04.

8-3.07

An employee may be exempted from working overtime, when he or she is required to do so, if the Board finds another employee in the same class of employment in the locality who accepts to perform the overtime work without this hindering the proper progress of the work.

8-3.08

When an employee is recalled from his or her home to perform emergency work, he or she shall be entitled to a leave of a minimum duration of four (4) hours taken at a time agreed to with the Board if this is more advantageous than the application of clause 8-3.04 of the agreement, where applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board and the employee may agree that the four (4) hours be remunerated at the regular rate.

8-3.09

When overtime is paid in accordance with the foregoing, it must be within a maximum period of one (1) month after the presentation of the claim duly signed by the employee and approved by the Board. The Board shall provide the forms.

8-3.10

When the Board decides to assign work to its employees, in relation to the rental or loan of premises, the employee who is asked by the Board to look after this outside of his or her regular working hours shall benefit from the provisions of this article except for clause 8-3.08 which does not apply in such circumstances.

8-3.11

The Board may require of an employee that he or she verify the safety of the premises, furnaces and other essential equipment in the Board's school and residences in Nunavik on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. In this case, this employee shall benefit from the provisions of this article except for clause 8-3.08 which does not apply in such circumstances.

8-4.00 DISCIPLINARY MEASURES8-4.01

Every disciplinary measure and the reasons therefore must be set forth in a written notice addressed to the employee concerned. A copy of the notice must be forwarded to the Union within three (3) working days of the sending of the disciplinary measure to the employee concerned.

Except for an indefinite suspension or a dismissal based on a moral or criminal issue, any final decision to dismiss or suspend indefinitely an employee must be preceded, subject to the fourth paragraph of this clause, by a meeting between the Board, the Union and the employee concerned. During the meeting, the Board shall inform the Union and the employee of the reasons for such measure. To this end, the employee must receive a written notice of at least three (3) working days before the meeting specifying the hour and the place where he or she must report and indicating the reason for the summons as well as the fact that he or she is entitled to be accompanied by a union representative. A copy of the notice shall also be forwarded to the Union within the same time limits.

In the case of an indefinite suspension or dismissal based on a moral or criminal issue, the meeting between the Board, the employee and the Union shall be convened within three (3) working days of the Board's initial decision.

Following any meeting held under this clause, the Board must inform the employee of its final decision in a written notice within thirty (30) days of the meeting. A copy of the notice shall also be sent to the Union within the same time limit.

The fact that the Union or the employee does not attend the duly summoned meeting shall not prevent the Board from instituting procedures or imposing a disciplinary measure.

Subject to clause 8-4.02, the Board shall convene an employee subject to a suspension either to suspend him or her or to discuss the suspension imposed on him or her. In this case and in the case where the Board decides to convene an employee regarding every other disciplinary measure which concerns him or her, the employee must receive a written notice of at least forty-eight (48) hours, specifying the hour and place where he or she must report and indicating the reason for the summons as well as the fact that he or she shall be entitled to be accompanied by a union representative. A copy of the notice shall be forwarded to the Union at the same time.

A disciplinary measure handed directly to an employee shall not constitute a summons as defined in the preceding provisions.

8-4.04

Every employee may, after making an appointment, consult his or her personal file twice a year, accompanied, if he or she so desires, by his or her union representative. Moreover, with the employee's written authorization on the form provided in Appendix V, the union representative may consult the employee's personal file after making an appointment.

8-4.05

The employee subject to a disciplinary measure may submit a grievance. However, the employee subject to a dismissal or indefinite suspension may submit his or her grievance directly to arbitration within thirty (30) working days of receiving the notice informing him or her of the Board's final decision insofar as the meeting prescribed in clause 8-4.02 has taken place.

8-4.06

A suspension shall not interrupt the employee's seniority. During the suspension, he or she shall maintain his or her contribution to the various contributory plans prescribed in the agreement.

8-4.07

In the event of arbitration, the Board must establish that the disciplinary measure was imposed for just and sufficient reason.

8-4.08

The Board may invoke an infraction that has been placed in the official file and for which a disciplinary measure has been issued, only within twelve (12) months of the infraction.

However, if more than one infraction of the same nature was committed within these twelve (12) months, each of the infractions including the first one mentioned in the preceding paragraph may only be invoked within the twenty-four (24) months of each of them. Any disciplinary measure that is void shall be withdrawn from the file.

8-4.09

No disciplinary measure rescinded by the Board may be invoked against an employee; the same shall apply to a disciplinary measure declared unjustified by an arbitration tribunal and the facts giving rise thereto.

8-4.10

Priority shall be granted to dismissal cases when preparing the arbitration roll.

8-4.11

Any disciplinary measure imposed more than sixty (60) days of the incident resulting in such a measure or after the Board's cognizance of the incident shall be null, void and illegal for the purposes of the agreement. However, in the case of changes to an indefinite suspension, the sixty (60)-day limit shall not apply at the time of the changes.

8-4.12

In the case of dismissal, if there is an appeal through the grievance procedure, the Board shall not pay the employee concerned the amounts accumulated in the pension fund nor those accumulated in the bank of sick-leave days for as long as the grievance has not been settled. The employee shall continue to benefit from the health and life insurance plans, provided that the amounts accumulated to his or her credit cover both his or her contribution and that of the Board. Failing this, the employee must pay the full premiums in advance.

8-5.00 HEALTH AND SAFETY8-5.01

The Board and the Union shall collaborate through the Labour Relations Committee to maintain working conditions that respect the health, safety and physical well-being of employees.

8-5.02

The Board and the Union may agree to set up a specific health and safety committee.

8-5.03

The employee must:

- A) take the necessary measures to protect his or her health, safety or physical well-being;
- B) see to it that he or she does not endanger the health, safety or physical well-being of other persons on the work premises or near the work premises;
- C) undergo health examinations required for the application of the law and the regulations applicable to the Board.

8-5.04

Insofar as it is prescribed by law and the regulations applicable to it, the Board must take the measures necessary to protect the health and ensure the safety and well-being of employees; it must in particular:

- A) see to it that the buildings under its jurisdiction are equipped and laid out in such a way as to protect employees;
- B) ensure that the organization of the work and the methods and techniques used to carry out the work are safe and do not endanger the health of employees;
- C) provide suitable lighting, ventilation and heating;
- D) provide safe material and ensure that it is kept in good condition;
- E) allow employees to undergo health examinations during employment required for the application of the law and the regulations applying to the Board.

8-5.05

When it becomes necessary by law and the regulations applicable to the Board to place individual or group safety means and equipment at the disposal of employees in order to meet their specific needs, this must not reduce in any way the efforts required by the Board, the Union and the employees to eliminate at the source dangers to their health, safety and physical well-being.

When an employee exercises the right of refusal prescribed in the Act respecting occupational health and safety, he or she must immediately notify his or her immediate superior or a representative authorized by the Board.

As soon as he or she is notified, the immediate superior or, where applicable, the representative authorized by the Board shall convene the union representative mentioned in clause 8-5.10 if he or she is available or in the case of an emergency, the union delegate of the building concerned; the purpose of the summons is to assess the situation and the corrective measures that the immediate superior or authorized representative of the Board intends to apply.

For the purposes of the meeting following the summons, the union representative or, where applicable, the union delegate, may temporarily interrupt his or her work, without loss of salary including applicable premiums, if any, or reimbursement.

The right of an employee mentioned in clause 8-5.06 shall be exercised subject to the relevant provisions prescribed by law and the regulations concerning occupational health and safety applicable to the Board and subject to the terms and conditions specified therein, where applicable.

8-5.08

The Board cannot impose a layoff, a displacement, a disciplinary or discriminatory measure due to the fact that the employee exercised the right prescribed in clause 8-5.06 in good faith.

8-5.09

Nothing in the agreement shall prevent the union representative or, where applicable, the union delegate from being accompanied by a union adviser at the meeting prescribed in clause 8-5.06; however, the Board or its representatives must be informed of the presence of the adviser before the meeting is held.

8-5.10

The Union may expressly designate one of its representatives to the Labour Relations Committee or to the committee set up under clause 8-5.02, where applicable, to deal with health and safety matters; the representative may be absent temporarily from work, after having informed his or her immediate superior, without loss of salary including applicable premiums, if any, or reimbursement in the following cases:

- A) to attend the meeting prescribed in the third paragraph of clause 8-5.06;
- B) to accompany an inspector of the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail during an inspection visit to the Board in connection with a matter dealing with the health, safety or physical well-being of an employee.

8-6.00 CLOTHING AND UNIFORMS8-6.01

The Board shall provide its employees, free of charge, with any uniform, special clothing or safety shoes which it requires them to wear due to the nature of their work as well as any special article or garment required by law and the regulations.

Moreover, the Board and the Union, if they deem it necessary for the performance of duties, may agree that the Board provide the employee free of charge with any other garment, uniform or special article.

The uniforms, special garments and articles or safety shoes supplied by the Board shall remain its property and may only be replaced upon the return of the old uniform, garment, special article or shoes, unless the employee is prevented from doing so due to circumstances beyond his or her control. The Board shall decide if a uniform, garment, article or safety shoes must be replaced.

8-6.03

The upkeep of uniforms, clothing and special articles or safety shoes supplied by the Board shall be the employee's responsibility except for special clothing such as overalls, smocks and other similar items used exclusively on the premises and for working purposes.

8-7.00 REGULATIONS REGARDING ABSENCES8-7.01

In all cases of absence, the employee concerned must notify beforehand his or her immediate superior of his or her departure and return according to the regulations established by the Board, except in cases where this is an impossibility.

On his or her return, the employee shall submit to the competent authority a certificate stating the reasons for his or her absence using the form provided in Appendix VII.

The Board may only contest a declaration or other proof of the motives of an absence within thirty (30) days of its remittance to the competent authority.

An employee shall lose his or her employment after an absence of ten (10) working days without a valid reason.

To this end, the School Board shall transmit by registered mail a notice to the employee within the first five (5) working days of absence and inform the employee of the consequences applicable as a result of this clause. Copy of this notice shall also be transmitted to the Union by fax or registered mail within the same delay.

In the event the Board informs the employee after his or her fifth (5th) day of absence, the limit of ten (10) working days prescribed in the first paragraph shall then be prolonged by a number of days equal to the number exceeding the fifth day of absence.

However, if the employee provides no valid reason within the time limit due to a physical or mental impossibility for which he or she has the burden of proof, the present clause cannot be applied.

Any breach of employment resulting from the application of this clause shall be considered as an administrative measure that is subject to a grievance procedure.

8-8.00 TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGES8-8.01

For the purposes of this article, the expression "technological changes" means the changes resulting from the introduction or modification of new equipment used to produce goods or services and which either modifies the duties entrusted to an employee or causes the abolishment of one or more positions.

8-8.02

The Board shall inform the Union in writing of its decision to introduce a technological change at least ninety (90) days before the date foreseen for the implementation of such a change.

8-8.03

The notice mentioned in the preceding clause shall contain the following information:

- a) the nature of the change;
- b) the school or department concerned;
- c) the date foreseen for the implementation;
- d) the employee or group of employees concerned.

8-8.04

At the Union's request, the Board shall inform the Union of the effects of the technological changes foreseen on the working conditions or the security of employment, where applicable, of the employees concerned; moreover, at the Union's request, the Board shall transmit the technical sheet of the new equipment, if it is available.

8-8.05

The Board and Union shall agree to meet within forty-five (45) days of the sending of the notice mentioned in clause 8-8.02; on this occasion, the Board shall consult the Union on the effects of the technological changes foreseen on the organization of work.

8-8.06

The employee whose duties are modified as a result of the implementation of a technological change or the introduction of new software or new working method shall receive, if necessary, the appropriate training or professional improvement, taking into account his or her skills; the training or professional improvement shall normally be given during working hours and shall be at the expense of the Board.

The parties may, by means of a local arrangement, agree on other terms and conditions concerning the implementation of a technological change, particularly concerning the movement of personnel excluding any movement which could affect the security of employment or the acquisition of tenure.

8-8.08

The provisions of this article shall not have the effect of preventing the application of other provisions of the agreement, particularly those in Chapter 7-0.00.

CHAPTER 9-0.00 PROCEDURE FOR SETTLING GRIEVANCES, ARBITRATION AND DISAGREEMENT9-1.00 PROCEDURE FOR SETTLING GRIEVANCES*9-1.01

Every employee, who has a problem concerning his or her working conditions which may give rise to a grievance, must discuss it with his or her immediate superior in order to attempt to solve it, accompanied if he or she wishes, by his or her union delegate or his or her substitute. If the union delegate or his or her substitute is unable to act or is absent, a union representative may accompany the employee if he or she so desires. However, the fact that the employee has not followed the procedure shall not cause him or her to lose any rights.

9-1.02

It is the express intent of the parties to settle all grievances regarding the application and interpretation of the agreement within the shortest possible time.

9-1.03

In the case of any grievance, the Board and the Union shall agree to comply with the following procedure:

A) Step One

The employee shall submit the grievance, in writing, to the authority designated by the Board or to the Board, if there has been no such designation, within one hundred and twenty (120) days of the date of the event that gave rise to the grievance.

Following a written request by either the Board or the Union, the union representative (s) accompanied by the plaintiff if the latter so desires, and the representative (s) of the Board must meet to study the grievance within the ten (10) working days of its receipt. In the case of a collective grievance, only one plaintiff may take part in the meeting.

However, the fact that the procedure has not been followed shall cause neither the employee nor the Union to lose any rights.

In order to participate in the meeting, a maximum of one (1) union representative may be released without loss of salary, including applicable premiums, if any, or reimbursement by the Union.

The Board shall give its written reply to the Union within the forty-five (45) working days of receiving the grievance and shall forward a copy to the employee. The notice must clearly indicate, for information purposes and without prejudice, the main reasons for the decision.

B) Step Two

In the case of an unsatisfactory reply or in the absence of a reply or if the reply of the Board was not forwarded within the time limits prescribed, the Union may submit the grievance to arbitration under the provisions prescribed in this chapter.

9-1.04

The Union may lodge and submit a grievance on behalf of an employee, a group of employees or all employees. In this case, the Union must comply with the procedure prescribed in clause 9-1.03.

9-1.05

The time limits referred to in this article shall be compulsory. The Board and the Union may however agree in writing to extend the time limits.

Failure to comply with the time limits prescribed in this article shall render the grievance null, void and illegal for the purposes of the agreement.

However, the rejection of a grievance cannot as such be considered as an acknowledgment by the Union of the Board's allegations and may not be invoked as a precedent.

The grievance notice shall contain a summary account of the facts so as to be able to identify the problem raised. The notice shall also contain, for information purposes and without prejudice, the clauses concerned and the corrective measures required.

No grievance shall be rejected because of faulty drafting. The grievance may be amended provided that the amendment does not alter the nature of the grievance. If the amendment is submitted within the five (5) working days preceding the hearing date, the Board shall obtain, upon request, a postponement.

9-1.07

An employee must in no way be penalized, harassed or troubled due to his or her involvement in a grievance.

9-2.00 ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

9-2.01

The Union that wishes to submit a grievance to arbitration must, within a maximum time limit of thirty (30) working days of the expiry of the time limit prescribed in the last subparagraph of paragraph A) of clause 9-1.03, submit a written notice to this effect to the chief arbitrator whose name appears in clause 9-2.02. The notice must contain a copy of the grievance and the written reply of the Board, if any, and it must be sent by registered mail or fax.

However, the Union may submit the grievance to arbitration in the manner prescribed in the preceding paragraph as soon as it receives the reply of the Board as prescribed in clause 9-1.03.

A copy of the arbitration notice must be sent at the same time to the Board.

In the event of a disruption of postal services, the arbitration notice shall be sent by telegram, fax or teletype and, when postal services resume, the Union shall forward the aforementioned documents as quickly as possible.

9-2.02

All grievances submitted to arbitration shall be decided upon by an arbitrator chosen from among the following:

or any other person appointed by the Centrale, the Fédération and the Ministère to act in this capacity.

However, the arbitrator shall proceed with the arbitration assisted by assessors if, when the grievance is entered on the monthly arbitration roll or in the fifteen (15) days that follow, there is a request to this effect by the representative of the Centrale, the Fédération or the Ministère.

9-2.03

In the event of an arbitration with assessors, an assessor shall be appointed by the Centrale and another appointed jointly by the Fédération and the Ministère within the time limit prescribed in the last paragraph of clause 9-2.02 to assist the arbitrator and represent each party during the hearing of the grievance and the deliberation.

The assessor thus appointed shall be deemed competent to sit whatever his or her past or current activities, interests in the dispute or duties in the Union, Board or elsewhere.

Upon his or her appointment, the chief arbitrator, before acting, shall take an oath or shall pledge on his or her honour, before a Superior Court judge, to perform his or her duties according to the law and the agreement.

Upon their appointment, each of the arbitrators shall take an oath or shall pledge on their honour, before the chief arbitrator, for the life of the agreement, to render their decisions in conformity with the law and the agreement.

After recording the notice of arbitration mentioned in clause 9-2.01, the records office shall acknowledge receipt without delay to the Union. A copy of the acknowledgment, the grievance notice and the notice of arbitration shall be sent, without delay, to the Centrale, the Fédération, the Ministère and the Board.

9-2.06

The chief arbitrator or, in his or her absence, the chief records clerk under the authority of the chief arbitrator shall:

- A) Prepare the monthly arbitration roll in the presence of the representatives of the parties to the agreement.
- B) Appoint an arbitrator from the list mentioned in clause 9-2.02.
- C) Set the time, date and place of the first arbitration session. When the employee is assigned to one of the localities of Nunavik, the hearing shall take place in Kuujjuaq or Kuujjuaraapik whichever is closer to the place of assignment or any other location determined jointly by the Board and the Union.

However, the hearing shall take place in Montréal if the fact that an arbitrator is unavailable causes a delay of sixty (60) days or more in entering the grievance on the arbitration roll.

- D) Indicate, for each grievance, whether the arbitration is referred to a single arbitrator or an arbitrator assisted by assessors according to the procedure described in this article or to an arbitrator appointed according to the accelerated procedure described in Appendix XVII.

The records office shall notify the arbitrators, the assessors, the parties concerned, the Centrale, the Fédération and the Ministère. The same shall apply to the arbitrator appointed to hear a grievance according to the accelerated procedure described in Appendix XVII or to act as mediator in the case of prearbitration mediation.

The party that submits a request for a deferral of an arbitration session within thirty (30) days or less of a hearing date shall pay the arbitrator four hundred dollars ($400) as cancellation fees. In the case of a joint request for a deferral, the cancellation fees shall be shared equally by the parties.

9-2.07

Subsequently, the arbitrator shall set the time, date and place of the subsequent sessions and shall so inform the records office; the records office shall notify the assessors, the parties concerned, the Centrale, the Fédération and the Ministère. The arbitrator shall also set the time, date and place of the deliberation sessions and shall so inform the assessors.

9-2.08

If the arbitrator is unable to act because he or she resigns, refuses to act or for other reasons, he or she shall be replaced according to the procedure established for the original appointment.

If the assessor is unable to act because he or she resigns, refuses to act or for other reasons, the party which designated him or her shall appoint a replacement.

9-2.09

The arbitrator may proceed with the arbitration if the party that the assessor represents does not designate a replacement within the time limits he or she prescribes.

9-2.10

The arbitrator shall also ensure that the operating rules of the records office are respected and, more specifically, those prescribed in Appendix XVII.

9-2.11

At any time, before the end of the hearings, the Centrale, the Fédération and the Ministère may individually or collectively intervene and may make any representation that they deem appropriate or relevant.

However, if one of the parties mentioned in the preceding paragraph wishes to intervene, it must so inform the other parties.

9-2.12

The arbitration sessions shall be public. The arbitrator may, however, on his or her own initiative or at the request of one of the parties, order the sessions to be held in camera.

9-2.13

The arbitrator may deliberate in the absence of an assessor provided that he or she has notified him or her under clause 9-2.07 at least seven (7) days in advance.

9-2.14

Except for the presentation of written notes where the Board and the Union may agree to extend the time limit, the arbitrator must render his or her decision within forty-five (45) days following the end of the hearing, however, the decision shall not be null for the sole reason that it was rendered after the expiry of the time limits.

As long as the decision has not been rendered, the chief arbitrator cannot assign a grievance to an arbitrator who has not rendered his or her decision within the time limit allotted.

9-2.15

The arbitration decision shall state the reasons therefore in writing and shall be signed by the arbitrator.

Each assessor may draft a separate report, which shall be attached to the decision.

The arbitrator shall file the original signed copy of the decision at the records office.

The records office, under the responsibility of the arbitrator concerned or the chief arbitrator, shall forward a copy of the decision to the assessors, the parties involved, the Centrale, the Fédération and the Ministère and shall file for and on behalf of the arbitrator two (2) certified copies with the Ministre du Travail.

9-2.16

At any time before his or her final decision, an arbitrator may render any provisional or interlocutory decision which he or she deems just and useful.

The arbitration decision shall be final, executory and shall bind the parties.

When the decision includes a time limit in which to comply with an obligation, the time limit shall begin on the day the decision was sent by the records office, unless the arbitrator decides otherwise in the decision.

9-2.17

An arbitrator may not, by his or her decision, subtract from, add to or modify the clauses of the agreement.

9-2.18

Subject to articles 2-1.00, 9-1.00 and 9-2.00, a grievance filed by an employee who is no longer in the employ of the Board or by the Union for an employee who is no longer in the employ of the Board shall be considered as validly submitted to arbitration, provided that the facts which gave rise to the grievance occurred during the period of employment or as a result of his or her departure and entitle him or her to a monetary claim.

9-2.19

As regards a disciplinary measure, the arbitrator may uphold, modify or annul the decision of the Board. All compensation must take into account the amounts earned by the employee during the period he or she should not have been suspended or dismissed.

9-2.20

The chief arbitrator shall choose the chief records clerk.

9-2.21A) Expenses and Fees of the Arbitrator or Mediator

In the case of an arbitration, the fees and expenses shall be paid by the party who submitted the grievance if the latter is dismissed or by the party to whom the grievance was submitted if the latter is accepted.

If the grievance is partially upheld, the arbitrator shall determine the proportion of the fees and expenses to be paid by each party.

Notwithstanding the aforementioned, in the case of a grievance regarding a dismissal, the arbitrator's fees and expenses are borne by the Ministère.

In the event of a settlement, whatever the number of grievances concerned and the nature of the settlement, the allowance to be reimbursed as cancellation costs as well as the fees and expenses of the arbitrator, if applicable, shall be shared equally between the parties or according to the modalities of the settlement.

Upon request from one of the parties, the arbitrator who takes note of the settlement may determine a different distribution.

When the grievance remains unresolved, the allowance to be paid as cancellation costs shall be assumed by the party cancelling the grievance or the party that allows the grievance.

When there is a postponement, the party requesting the postponement of a hearing shall bear the fees and expenses incurred because of the postponement, if applicable; if this is a joint request, the fees and expenses are shared equally.

The allowance to be paid when cancelling a hearing shall be of four hundred dollars ($400) and shall only apply when the request to cancel the hearing is presented to the arbitrator within thirty (30) days or less of the hearing.

In the case of a mediation, whatever the form, the mediator's fees and expenses shall be shared equally between the parties. In the event the role of the mediator changes to that of arbitrator in a given case, the fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be assumed according to the regulations provided for in this clause. The conditions concerning the allowance to be reimbursed as cancellation costs for the arbitration shall apply, if any, to mediations.

B) Conditions

Paragraph A) shall only apply to any grievance submitted as of February 1, 2006. Any grievance submitted prior to that date shall continue to be covered by clause 9-2.21 of the 2000-2002 collective agreement.

C) Expenses of the Records Office

The expenses of the records office and the remuneration of its staff shall be borne by the Ministère.

The arbitration hearings and deliberations shall be held on premises provided free of rental cost.

9-2.22

The assessors shall be remunerated and their expenses reimbursed by the party they represent.

9-2.23

The stenography costs shall be assumed by the party which requires it.

If there is a transcript of the official stenographic notes, a copy thereof shall be forwarded by the stenographer, without cost, to the arbitrator and assessors before the beginning of the deliberation.

9-2.24

At the request of a party, or on his or her own initiative, the arbitrator shall transmit or otherwise serve any order or document and may summon a witness as prescribed in the Labour Code.

9-2.25Preparatory Session

At the request of one of the parties at the latest fifteen (15) days before the hearing, the attorneys assigned to any grievance and the assigned arbitrator must take part in a preparatory session by means of a telephone call.

The objectives of this preparatory session are as follows:

- to improve the arbitration process, make better use of the time invested therein and to accelerate the holding of hearings;
- to allow the parties to declare, if they have not already done so, the grounds for defence and the preliminary means they intend to plead;
- to define the dispute and identify the issues to be discussed in the course of the hearing;
- to ensure the exchange of documentary evidence between the parties;
- to plan the presentation of evidence to be produced in the course of the hearing;
- to study the admissibility of certain facts;
- to analyze any other question which could simplify or accelerate the hearings.

9-3.00 DISAGREEMENT9-3.01

Any disagreement defined in clause 1-2.18 which may arise during the life of the agreement shall be referred to the Labour Relations Committee prescribed in article 4-1.00 of the agreement.

CHAPTER 10-0.00 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS10-1.00 PRINTING OF THE AGREEMENT*10-1.01

The Management Committee shall print the text of the agreement in a single format as soon as possible following the date of its signing and shall make a copy available to each employee and sufficient copies for the Union. The Management Committee shall do the same for the Classification Plan.

10-1.02

A copy of the agreement in Inuttitut and in English shall also be remitted to the employees concerned.

10-1.03

The time limits prescribed in the agreement concerning the filing of a grievance shall be extended until such time as the Union receives copies of the agreement in a quantity sufficient for its members.

10-2.00 APPENDICES10-2.01

The appendices shall be an integral part of the agreement.

10-3.00 INTERPRETATION OF TEXTS10-3.01

The French text shall constitute the official text of the agreement.

10-3.02

The negotiating parties shall agree on an English and Inuttitut translation of the official text of the agreement.

10-3.03

For the purposes of drafting the agreement, the parties have agreed to use the masculine and feminine genders in all designations of persons. To this end, the parties have established the rules of drafting found in Appendix IX.

The application of these rules shall not have the effect of modifying the rights and benefits which would have been applicable if the text had been drafted in the masculine and, unless otherwise stipulated, shall not confer different rights or benefits on men or women.

The employee concerned must make a written request to the Board for the amounts owing under clause 10-4.07 within one hundred and twenty (120) days following receipt of this list by the Union. In the case of an employee's death, the request may be made by his or her legal heirs and assigns.

The amounts provided for in the present clause shall be paid within sixty (60) days of receiving the employee's request.

10-4.06

The Board shall provide employees with a copy of the statement of the retroactive payment calculations along with the retroactive payment, and forward a copy to the Union.

APPENDIX II MOVING EXPENSES

1. The provisions of this appendix aim to determine that to which the employee, who can benefit from a reimbursement of his or her moving costs, is entitled as moving expenses under the relocation provisions in article 7-3.00.
2. Moving expenses shall not be applicable to the employee unless the Regional Placement Bureau accepts that the relocation of the employee necessitates his or her moving.

Moving shall be deemed necessary if it takes place and if the distance between the employee's new place of work and his or her former domicile is greater than sixty-five (65) kilometres.

Transportation Costs of Furniture and Personal Effects

3. The Board shall reimburse, upon presentation of supporting vouchers, the costs incurred for the transportation of the furniture and personal effects of the employee concerned, including the packing, unpacking and the costs of the insurance premium or the costs of towing a mobile home, on the condition that he or she supply, in advance, at least two (2) detailed quotations of the costs to be incurred.
4. However, the Board shall not pay the cost of transporting the employee's personal vehicle unless the location of his or her new domicile is inaccessible by road. Moreover, the cost of transporting a boat, canoe, etc., shall not be reimbursed by the Board.

Storage

5. When the move from one domicile to another cannot take place directly because of uncontrollable reasons, other than the construction of a new domicile, the Board shall reimburse the costs of storing the employee's furniture and personal effects and those of his or her dependents¹, for a period not exceeding two (2) months.

Concomitant Moving Expenses

6. The Board shall pay a moving allowance of seven hundred and fifty dollars ($750) to any transferred employee who maintains a dwelling in compensation for the concomitant moving expenses (carpets, draperies, disconnection and installation of electrical appliances, cleaning, babysitting fees, etc.), unless the employee is assigned to a location where complete facilities are placed at his or her disposal by the Board. In the case of an employee who does not maintain a dwelling, the Board shall pay an allowance two hundred dollars ($200).

Compensation for a Lease

7. The employee referred to in paragraph 1 shall also be entitled, where applicable, to the following compensation: for the abandonment of a dwelling without a written lease, the Board shall pay the equivalent of one month's rent. If there is a lease, the Board shall indemnify the employee who must terminate his or her lease and for which the landlord demands compensation to a maximum period of three (3) months' rent. In both cases, the employee must attest that the landlord's request is well-founded and present supporting vouchers.
8. If the employee chooses to sublet his or her dwelling himself or herself, reasonable costs for advertising the sublease shall be assumed by the Board.

¹ For the purposes of this appendix, dependent means the spouse or dependent child defined in paragraph A) of clause 6-6.01.

Reimbursement of Expenses Inherent to the Sale or Purchase of a House

9. The Board shall reimburse, relative to the sale of the principal house-residence of the relocated employee, the following expenses:
 - a) the real estate agent's fees upon presentation of the contract with the real estate agent immediately after its signing, of the sales contract and the statement of account of the agent's fees;
 - b) the cost of notarized deeds chargeable to the employee for the purchase of a house for the purpose of residence at his or her posting on the condition that the employee is already the proprietor of his or her house at the time of his or her transfer and that the house is sold;
 - c) the penalty for breach of mortgage, if need be;
 - d) the proprietor's transfer tax payable to the municipality, if need be.
10. When the house of the relocated employee, although it has been put up for sale at a reasonable price, is not sold at the time when the employee must enter a new agreement for lodging, the Board shall not reimburse the costs for looking after the unsold house. However, in this case, upon presentation of supporting vouchers, the Board shall reimburse, for a period not exceeding three (3) months, the following expenses:
 - a) the municipal and school taxes;
 - b) the interest on the mortgage;
 - c) the cost of the insurance premium.
11. In the case where a relocated employee chooses not to sell his or her principal house-residence, he or she may benefit from the provisions of this paragraph in order to avoid a double financial burden to the employee-owner due to the fact that his or her principal residence is not rented at the time when he or she must assume new obligations to live in the area of his or her assignment. The Board shall pay him or her, for the period in which his or her house is not rented, the amount of his or her new rent, up to a period of three (3) months, upon presentation of the lease. Moreover, the Board shall reimburse him or her for the reasonable costs of advertisement and the costs of no more than two (2) trips incurred for the renting of his or her house, upon presentation of supporting vouchers and in accordance with the regulation concerning travel expenses in effect at the Board.

Travel and Accommodation Expenses

12. When the move from one domicile to another cannot take place directly because of uncontrollable reasons, other than the construction of a new residence, the Board shall reimburse the employee for his or her accommodation expenses for himself or herself and his or her family in accordance with the regulation concerning the travel expenses in effect at the Board, for a period not exceeding two (2) weeks.
13. If the move is delayed with the authorization of the Board, or if the employee's family is not relocated immediately, the Board shall assume the employee's transportation costs to visit his or her family every two (2) weeks, up to five hundred (500) kilometres, if the distance to be covered is equal to or less than five hundred (500) kilometres return trip and, once a month if the return trip to be covered exceeds five hundred (500) kilometres, up to a maximum of sixteen hundred (1600) kilometres.
14. Moving expenses prescribed in this appendix shall be reimbursed within sixty (60) days of the employee's presentation of the supporting vouchers to the Board that hires him or her.

III- Salary

During each of the years referred to in this contract, the employee shall receive ____% of the salary to which he or she would be entitled under the agreement.

(The percentage applicable is indicated in clause 5-10.04 of the agreement.)

It is understood that, during the term of the contract, including the leave, vacation shall be remunerated at the salary rate prescribed in section III. - d) Each of the years referred to in this contract shall apply as a period of service for the purposes of the pension plans currently in force and the average salary shall be determined on the basis of the salary that the employee would have received had he or she not taken part in the sabbatical leave with deferred salary.

APPENDIX XII PROGRESSIVE RETIREMENT PLAN

1. The progressive retirement plan, hereinafter called the "plan", is intended to enable an employee to reduce his or her time worked for a period of one (1) to five (5) years so that the number of hours worked per week must not be less than forty percent (40%) of the length of the regular workweek prescribed for his or her category of employment.¹

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, the employee and the Board may agree to schedule the number of hours worked on a basis other than weekly.

2. Only the regular full-time employee or regular part-time employee whose regular workweek is greater than forty percent (40%) of the regular workweek prescribed for his or her class of employment and who participates in one of the pension plans currently in force (CSSP, RREGOP and TPP) may benefit from the plan only once.
3. For the purposes of this appendix, the agreement mentioned shall be an integral part thereof.
4. To be eligible for the progressive retirement plan, the employee must verify with the Commission administrative des régimes de retraite et d'assurances (CARRA) that in all likelihood he or she will be entitled to a pension on the date on which the agreement expires.

The employee shall sign the form required by CARRA and shall forward a copy to the Board.

 - A) The employee who wishes to avail himself or herself of the progressive retirement plan must forward a written request to the Board at least ninety (90) days in advance. The time limit may be of a lesser duration with the Board's consent.
 - B) The request must specify the period foreseen for the progressive retirement plan, the number of hours worked and the schedule.
 - C) The employee shall also forward to the Board, at the same time as the request, an attestation from CARRA confirming that in all likelihood he or she will be entitled to a pension on the date on which the agreement expires.
6. Approval of the request for the progressive retirement plan shall be subject to a prior agreement with the Board, which shall take into account the requirements of the office, department, school or adult education centre concerned.
7. During the progressive retirement period, the employee shall receive his or her salary, including the premiums to which he or she is entitled, in proportion to the hours worked.
8. During the progressive retirement period, the employee shall accumulate his or her seniority and experience as if he or she had not availed himself or herself of the plan.
9. During the progressive retirement period, the Board shall pay its contribution to the health insurance plan on the basis of the time worked prior to the agreement, provided that the employee pay his or her own contribution. For the term of the agreement, the employee shall be entitled to the life insurance plan from which he or she benefited prior to the agreement.
10. The Board and the employee shall sign, where applicable, the agreement prescribing the terms and conditions relating to the progressive retirement plan.
11. During the progressive retirement period, the pensionable salary, for the purposes of the three (3) pension plans currently in force (CSSP, RREGOP and TPP) for the years or parts of years covered by the agreement is that the employee would have received or for a period during which benefits under the salary insurance plan are paid, to which he or she would have been entitled had he or she not availed himself or herself of the plan. The service credited for the purposes of the pension plans (CSSP, RREGOP and TPP) shall be the service that would have been credited had he or she not availed himself or herself of the plan.

¹ In the case of an employee who holds a position of a cyclical or seasonal nature, the number of hours worked cannot be less than forty percent (40%) of the duration of the regular working hours on an annual basis.

12. For the term of the agreement, the employee and the Board must pay their share of the contributions to the pension plan on the basis of the applicable salary, as if the employee had not availed himself or herself of the progressive retirement plan.

14. The number of hours not worked per week by the employee participating in the plan shall be filled, where applicable, according to the provisions of clause 7-1.15 of the agreement.
15. Should the employee not be entitled to his or her pension upon the expiry of the agreement due to uncontrollable circumstances prescribed by regulation, the agreement shall be extended to the date on which the employee will be entitled to his or her pension even though the total progressive retirement period exceeds five (5) years.

Any changes in the dates set for the beginning and end of the agreement must have the prior approval of CARRA.

This appendix shall apply to temporary employees referred to in subparagraph b) of paragraph B) of clause 2-1.01 of the agreement whose period of engagement under those provisions is six (6) months or more.

Employees covered by this appendix shall benefit from article 5-4.00 of the agreement according to the following terms and conditions:

- A) To be eligible for maternity leave, the employee must have worked at the Board for at least twenty (20) weeks during the twelve (12) months preceding the leave.

The employee who is required by the Board in the course of his or her work at the Board to travel from Montréal to the Inuit communities may calculate as working time the duration of his or her flight as well as an additional maximum period of one (1) hour each way in order to cover the time required to travel to and from the airport and the time required to check in and pick up his or her luggage.

Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses 8-2.06, 8-2.07 and 8-3.01, the Board may modify the work schedule applicable to an employee who travels from Montréal to the Inuit communities.

APPENDIX XVI GRIEVANCES AND ARBITRATION

Any arbitrator appointed under this agreement shall be deemed competent to hear all grievances which arose before the date of the coming into force of the agreement.

Any grievance which legally arose before the expiry of the former agreement and submitted to arbitration after its expiry within the time limits prescribed in the former agreement shall be deemed validly submitted to arbitration. To this end, the Board and the Ministère shall renounce raising the objection of the nonarbitrability on the basis of the nonexistence of working conditions following the expiry of the agreement.

APPENDIX XVIIARBITRATION OF GRIEVANCES

In order to improve the effectiveness of the arbitration system, to reduce costs and to enable the local parties to assume greater responsibility for arbitration files, the parties agree, while complying with the current arbitration procedures prescribed in the agreement, to implement two new methods for settling grievances, namely: prearbitration mediation and accelerated arbitration of a "small claims" nature.

I- PREARBITRATION MEDIATION

The Board and the Union may agree on prearbitration mediation in dealing with certain grievances. To do so, the parties shall forward a joint notice to the records office. The records office shall recommend to the parties a list of mediators chosen from the list provided in clause 9-2.02. Once the parties have approved a name from the list, the records office shall set the date, as quickly as possible, of the first mediation session.

Only an employee of the Board and an employee or an elected member of the Union may represent the parties; a party may, however, after having informed the other, call upon an advisor.

The mediator shall attempt to help the parties reach a settlement. If a settlement is reached, the mediator shall take note thereof, draft it and file a copy at the records office. The settlement shall bind the parties.

The records office shall file two (2) certified copies with the Ministre du Travail.

The procedure shall apply for every group of grievances agreed to by the Board and the Union.

In the event that a number of grievances included in the prearbitration mediation process are unresolved, those remaining shall be dealt with according to the arbitration procedure agreed to by the parties.

The mediator cannot act as an arbitrator in any grievance not settled in the prearbitration mediation process, unless the parties agreed otherwise, in writing, prior to mediation.

The fees and expenses of the arbitrator mandated to act as a mediator shall be borne in accordance with paragraph A) of clause 9-2.21.

II- ACCELERATED ARBITRATION PROCEDURE OF A "SMALL CLAIMS" NATURE1- Admissible Grievances

Any grievance may be referred to this procedure provided that the Board and Union explicitly agree to do so. In this case, a notice signed jointly by the authorized representatives of the parties, attesting such agreement, shall be forwarded to the records office.

Failure on the part of the Board and the Union to sign a joint notice of their intent to refer a grievance to the accelerated arbitration procedure, the Board or the Union may indicate separately such intent by forwarding a separate written notice to this effect to the records office along with a certified copy to the other party.

In this latter case, the written notice of the Union and that of the Board must both be received by the records office at least seven (7) days prior to entering the grievance in question on the arbitration roll.

2- Arbitrator

The arbitrator shall be appointed by the records office; he or she shall conduct an investigation, interrogate the parties and witnesses previously identified to the other party and may attempt to reconcile the parties either at their request or with their consent.

3- Representation

Only an employee of the Board and an employee or an elected member of the Union may represent the respective parties; a party may, however, after having informed the other, call upon an advisor.

4- Duration of Hearing

In general, a hearing usually lasts one hour.

5- Award

The arbitration award must contain a brief description of the dispute and a summary of the reasons supporting its conclusion (approximately two pages). The decision may not be cited or used by anyone as regards the arbitration of any other grievance, unless the grievance is related to an identical dispute between the Board and the Union and deals with the same facts and clauses.

The arbitrator shall render his or her decision and shall forward a copy to the parties within a maximum five (5)-working day time limit after the hearing. He or she shall also file the signed original copy at the records office.

6- Field of Application

The provisions of articles 9-1.00 and 9-2.00 shall apply by adapting them to the accelerated arbitration procedure prescribed in this appendix, except for clause 9-2.03, the second paragraph of clause 9-2.08, clauses 9-2.09, 9-2.11, 9-2.13, the first paragraph of clause 9-2.14, the first three subparagraphs of clause 9-2.15, the first paragraph of clause 9-2.16, and clauses 9-2.22 and 9-2.23.

III- OTHER MEASURES CONTRIBUTING TO REDUCING THE COSTS OF THE ARBITRATION SYSTEM AND TO IMPROVING ITS EFFECTIVENESS

In order to reduce the amounts earmarked for the expenses and honoraria of arbitrators and to resolve a greater number of grievances, the parties agree to:

- encourage the use of the prearbitration mediation procedure and the accelerated arbitration procedure of a "small claims" nature;
- keep an updated list of joint requests as regards prearbitration mediation and accelerated arbitration of a "small claims" nature;
- submit the list on a regular basis to the chief arbitrator or chief records clerk to enable him or her to set the date of the first meeting.

APPENDIX XVIII TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR SEVERANCE PAY INSTALLMENTS UNDER ARTICLE 7-7.00

The Board shall be informed of the name of the financial institution chosen by the employee at least two (2) weeks prior to the date foreseen for the payment.
- 2.2 Severance pay shall be remitted on the first of each month following the employee's last workday for the number of months of severance pay to which the employee is entitled.

The first installment shall be equal to two (2) months' severance pay; each subsequent installment shall be equal to one (1) month's severance pay. Thus, a twelve (12)-month severance pay shall be remitted in eleven (11) installments: the first shall pay two (2) months' severance pay followed by ten (10) equal installments each paying one (1) month's severance pay. A severance pay of less than twelve (12) months shall be remitted in the same manner by making the necessary changes to the total number of installments.

- 2.3 Severance pay shall be paid in two (2), three (3) or four (4) equal installments at the employee's choosing on dates agreed to with the Board and the employee and indicated on the form completed by the employee.
- 2.4 Severance pay shall be remitted at a rate of 1/26 of the employee's annual salary every second Thursday until it has been paid in its entirety.
- 2.5 In the case of an employee eligible for retirement or who will become entitled thereto at the end of the period covered by the severance pay, it shall take the form of a preretirement according to the terms and conditions prescribed in paragraph A) of clause 7-3.15.
- 2.6 The Board may agree on different terms and conditions with an employee with the Union's consent under clause 2-2.03 of the agreement.

APPENDIX XXII

LETTER OF AGREEMENT CONCERNING THE HOUSING POLICY

The parties recognize that adequate lodging enhances the well-being of employees working in the territory of the Board.

The dwelling attributed to the employee shall be, at the time of attribution, in good repair, clean and habitable. As for the employee, he or she must keep the dwelling in the best condition possible, subject to normal wear, but will not be responsible for any deterioration beyond his or her control.

The repairs that are necessary and essential to enjoy the dwelling shall be carried out within a reasonable time, taking into account the constraints inherent to the Northern and remoteness contexts.

The dwelling shall be attributed while taking into account the terms and conditions prescribed in the directive on dwelling units. Also, the employee who has an adequate dwelling within the meaning of the directive on dwelling may not displace another employee but may move into a dwelling that is free or whose construction has just been completed, with the Board's consent.

Barring unforeseen circumstances, no employee can be forced to share his or her dwelling or to share another employee's dwelling.

APPENDIX XXIIICLASSIFICATION OF CERTAIN EMPLOYEES

This Appendix is applicable only to employees for whom this agreement constitutes the first agreement and to employees covered by a first accreditation prior to the date of termination of the agreement.

In such cases, the Board shall forward to the employee, within sixty (60) days after the date of signature of the agreement, a notice establishing the class of employment and step held by the employee and shall simultaneously forward a copy thereof to the Union.

The employee whose classification (class of employment and step) has thus been established and who claims that the duties mainly and customarily required by the Board correspond to a different class of employment from that assigned to him or her or who claims that the step assigned to him or her does not correspond to that which he or she is entitled to, may submit a classification grievance within ninety (90) days after receiving the notice of classification. This grievance can also be submitted by the Union and must, to the extent possible, provide the reasons for the dispute. The Board shall send a response to the employee, with a copy to the Union, within thirty (30) working days after receiving the classification grievance.

In the event of an unsatisfactory response or, failing a response within the prescribed deadline, the employee or the Union may, within twenty (20) working days after expiry of the deadline prescribed for the response, submit the grievance to arbitration according to the procedure prescribed in article 9-2.00. In the case of arbitration, clause 6-1.15 shall apply.

In this case, the arbitrator may only determine the class of employment, within the Classification Plan, in which the employee should have been classified as well as the salary step. Should the arbitrator be unable to establish a match between the characteristic assignments mainly and customarily required of the employee by the Board and a class of employment provided in the Classification Plan, clauses 6-1.09 and 6-1.11 up to and including 6-1.16 shall apply with the necessary changes.

The application of these provisions cannot have the effect of leading to the demotion of the employee concerned.

APPENDIX XXIV TRANSITIONAL MEASURES FOR THE CLASSES OF EMPLOYMENT OF CARETAKER, NIGHT CARETAKER, MAINTENANCE WORKER-CLASS II, DOCUMENTATION
TECHNICIAN, AND LABORATORY TECHNICIAN

Whereas the February 7, 2011 edition of the Classification Plan now includes the following classes of employment: caretaker, class I; caretaker, class II; night caretaker, class I; and, night caretaker, class II;

Whereas the February 7, 2011 edition of the Classification Plan includes modifications to the following classes of employment: maintenance worker, class II; documentation technician; and, laboratory technician;

Whereas the employees concerned by the above-mentioned modifications must be informed of the class of employment that is attributed to them in the February 7, 2011 edition of the Classification Plan;

The provincial negotiating parties agree to the following:

- 1) The employee who belongs to one of the classes of employment included in the table below shall receive a notice of classification that shall provide, as of the date of the coming into force of the agreement, his or her class of employment according to the February 7, 2011 edition of the Classification Plan corresponding with the class of employment¹ held before the signature of the collective agreement;
- 2) The notice of classification shall be forwarded at the latest ninety (90) days after the coming into force of the agreement. A copy of the notice of classification shall be forwarded to the Union;

APPENDIX XXV LETTER OF INTENT CONCERNING THE GOVERNMENT AND PUBLIC EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT PLAN1. Legislative amendments

The government shall adopt the necessary orders-in-council and propose to the National Assembly for adoption the necessary legislative provisions in order to make the amendments prescribed in sections 2 to 7 to An Act Respecting the Government and Public Employees Retirement Plan¹ (RREGOP).

2. Number of years of service

The maximum number of credited years of service that can be used for calculating pensions has increased. This maximum shall be increased gradually and reach thirty-eight (38) years on January 1, 2014. Subject to the following, these years shall guarantee the same benefits as the previous ones:

- As of January 1, 2011, the number of credited years of service used for calculating pensions beyond thirty-five (35) years must be worked or redeemed. No redemption of service prior to January 1, 2011 may cause that the credited service used for calculating pensions shall exceed thirty-five (35) years on January 1, 2011.
- No retroactivity provision shall be allowed. Service exceeding thirty-five (35) credited years of service used for calculating pensions before January 1, 2011 shall not be recognized neither through a required contribution nor through a redemption.
- The pension reduction applicable as of the age of sixty-five (65) (QPP coordination) does not apply to the credited years of service used for calculating pensions exceeding thirty-five (35) years.
- An individual who receives a long-term salary insurance benefit cannot accumulate beyond thirty-five (35) creditable years used for calculating pensions.
- Any service occurred after January 1, 2011 beyond thirty-five (35) credited years of service is pensionable up to a maximum of thirty-eight (38) credited years of service.

Concerning the revaluation of pension credits, the increase from thirty-five (35) to thirty-eight (38) in the maximum number of years of service shall not result in the increase, or decrease, of the number of years that would be revalued if this measure did not exist.

3. Pension credits

As of January 1, 2011, the possibility of redeeming prior service in the form of pension credits is abolished.

4. Contribution formula

As of January 1, 2012, the contribution formula is amended based on the specifications described in Appendix 1.

The compensation, as described in Schedule 1, represents an amount that allows a contributor whose annualized salary is lower than the MPE to pay contributions comparable to the ones they would pay if the thirty-five percent (35%) MPE exemption was maintained.

The compensation amount is calculated each year, at the latest nine (9) months following the end of the calendar year, by the CARRA; it constitutes a shortfall for the participants' fund. This shortfall is absorbed each year by the government who transfers, at the three (3) months following the CARRA's calculation, the required amount from the employers' contribution fund to the RREGOP employee contribution fund (fund 301).

5. Bank of ninety (90) days

Absences without pay that are not redeemed and subsequent to January 1, 2011 may not be granted without cost upon retirement. However, absences without pay in consideration of parental leaves that are not redeemed can continue to be offset by the ninety (90)-day bank. The ninety (90)-day limit continues to apply.

6. Frequency of actuarial valuations

The frequency of actuarial valuations remains on a three (3)-year basis. However, an update of the actuarial valuation is performed yearly.

7. Indexation clause

Should there be a surplus that exceeds by more than twenty percent (20%) the unfunded liability for benefits for which members are responsible, as identified in a three (3)-year valuation based on assumptions whose relevance has been confirmed by an independent actuary or in an updated valuation, the indexation clause for benefits to which members are entitled that are payable to retirees with respect to service credited between June 30, 1982 and January 1, 2000 is improved on the January 1st following receipt by the Minister of the report of the independent actuary in the case of a three (3)-year actuarial valuation or on the January 1st following an update of such a valuation, to the extent that the portion of this surplus that exceeds twenty percent (20%) of the unfunded liability allows the cost of the improvement to be entirely covered.

This cost corresponds, with respect to the years of service credited between June 30, 1982 and January 1, 2000, to the difference between the present value of the benefits that would be payable to retirees according to the indexation clause applicable for the service credited after January 1, 2000 (CPI-three percent (3%) with a minimum of fifty percent (50%) of the CPI) and the present value of benefits for which members are responsible, payable to retirees pursuant to the indexation clause (CPI-three percent (3%)).

On January 1 of each subsequent year, the improvement of the indexation clause remains in effect only if, based on an update of the three (3)-year actuarial valuation or the receipt by the Minister of a report from the independent actuary validating a new three (3)-year actuarial valuation, there is a surplus that exceeds by more than twenty percent (20%) the unfunded liability of benefits for which members are responsible, and the portion of this surplus exceeding twenty percent (20%) of the unfunded liability entirely covers the cost of the increase as calculated above. It is understood that a benefit increased as the result of the improvement in the indexation granted for one (1) year will not be reduced thereafter.

With respect to the benefits for which the government is responsible, payable to retirees with regards to the service credited between June 30, 1982 and January 1, 2000, the government agrees, when the above conditions are met, to discuss with the union associations for whom this Letter of Intent is intended, the possibility of improving the indexation clause in the same way as it has been improved with respect to the benefits for which members are responsible.

When benefits to retirees with respect to service credited between June 30, 1982 and January 1, 2000 for which the government is responsible are not increased, a transfer of funds from the contributions by employees to the contributions of funds by employers must be made to ensure the cost-sharing of benefits provided by law, with the understanding that the improvement applies only to the portion of benefits for which members are responsible. The amount to transfer is determined by CARRA as of the December 31 preceding the improvement of benefits for which members are responsible, and payable to the retirees using the method and assumptions of the most recent actuarial valuation. This amount is transferred in the three (3)-month period following the date on which the CARRA has determined the amount to be transferred.

8. Amendments to the pension plans

Subject to the amendments prescribed herein during the term of this Agreement, no amendment to the RREGOP may make the provisions of the plan less favourable for members, unless there is an agreement between the negotiating parties to this effect.

SCHEDULE 1

CONTRIBUTION FORMULA

A- The participant's contribution to the RREGOP is currently determined based on the following formula:

a) If Pensionable salary < 35% of MPE

Contribution = 0

b) If Pensionable salary > 35% of MPE

Contribution = Rate A x (Pensionable salary – 35% of MPE)

Where MPE: Maximum pensionable earnings;

Rate A: The contribution rate applicable to the excess pensionable salary on 35% of the MPE determined by the CARRA during the actuarial valuation.

B- As of January 1, 2012, the above (point A) contribution formula shall be replaced by:

a) If Pensionable salary < 35% of MPE

Contribution = Rate B x [Pensionable salary – Z% of the MPE] – Compensation

Compensation = MAXIMUM [0; Rate B x (Pensionable salary – Z% of the MPE)]

b) If Pensionable salary > 35% of MPE

Contribution = Rate B x [Pensionable salary – Z% of the MPE] – Compensation

Compensation = MAXIMUM [0; Factor x (MPE – Pensionable salary)]

Where Rate B: The contribution rate applicable to the excess pensionable salary on Z% of the MPE determined by the CARRA during the actuarial valuation;

Z: Equals 33 for 2012, 31 for 2013, 29 for 2014, 27 for 2015 and 25 for 2016;

Factor: A factor calculated annually by the CARRA so that the contributions paid by the contributors whose pensionable salary is below the MPE are essentially the same as when the current contribution formula is used (point A)

APPENDIX XXVI

AMENDMENTS TO THE LETTER OF INTENT CONCERNING THE GOVERNMENT AND PUBLIC EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT PLAN
SIGNED ON JULY 9, 2010

Under the implementation of the legislative provisions arising out of the signature of the letter of intent, two amendments are made to this letter.

The first component deals with the elimination of a situation in which a participant could not reach thirty-eight (38) credited years of service. Indeed, considering the administrative impact of differentiating the long-term salary insurance benefits from the short-term ones, the saving clause to the effect that “An individual who receives a long term salary insurance benefit cannot accumulate beyond thirty-five (35) creditable years used for calculating pensions” is deleted.

The second component is to specify more clearly the objective of the parties concerning the elimination of recognized service in the form of pension credits. The wording should be as follows:

“As of January 1, 2011, the possibility of having prior service recognized in the form of pension credits with the RREGOP, RRE and RRF is abolished.”

APPENDIX XXVII

LETTER OF AGREEMENT CONCERNING THE CREATION OF A “SKILLED WORKERS” WORKING GROUP

1. The parties agree to create a joint intersectoral working group composed of five (5) union representatives and five (5) employer representatives. The committee has the mandate to examine the situation pertaining to employee attraction and retention as concerns the class title of skilled workers in the public and parapublic sectors herewith annexed. If need be, the working group shall specify the nature of the problems that were identified.
2. The working group shall file its recommendations, joint or not, to the negotiating parties, at the latest on December 31, 2011.

APPLICATION OF PAY EQUITY

- 1) The employee is entitled, retroactively and according to the duration of his or her services, to an amount equal to the difference between:
 - the salary he or she would have received as of December 31, 2010 until the date of payment of the retroactivity and the salary received in application of the new salary rates and scales.

Except for the employee concerned with paragraph 2), the amounts owing are paid at the latest on September 30, 2011.

- 2) The employee who is no longer in the employ of the Board at the time of the payment of the retroactivity provided for in paragraph 1) must make a written request for payment in order to receive the amount of salary adjustment that is owed.
